Citation for Proof of Will.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, by the Grace of God, Free and Independent. To Mary O'Neil, Kate McDonell, William R. Shaughnessy, Mary Hughes, Margaret Fleming, Catherine Crowley and John Shaughnessy, heirs at law and next of kin to Margaret O'Shaughnessy, deceased, send Greeting:

Whereas, Anna FitzPatrick, the executor named in a certain instrument in writing, bearing date March 6, 1886, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Margaret O'Shaughnessy, late of the City of Rochester, in said County of Monroe and State of New York, deceased, and relating to both real and personal estate, has lately made application to the Surrogate's Court of our County of Monroe, to have said instrument proved and recorded as a Will of personal and real estate, you and each of you are cited and required to appear before the Surrogate of the County of Monroe, at his office in the City of Rochester, in said County of Monroe, New York, on the 19th day of December, 1894, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon of that day, then and there to attend the probate of said last Will and Testament. And if any of the aforesaid persons are under the age of twenty-one years, they will please take notice that they are required to appear by their general guardian, if they have one, and if they have none that they appear and apply for the appointment of a special guardian, or in the event of their neglect or failure to do so, a special guardian will be appointed by the Surrogate to represent and act for them in the proceedings for the probate of said will.

In testimony whereof, we have caused the seal of the Surrogate's Court, of the County of Monroe, to be hereto affixed.

(L. S.) Witness, Hon. J. A. Adlington, Surrogate of said County, at the City of Rochester, this 16th day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-four.

WILLIAM L. KIEFER, Clerk Surrogate's Court.

CONNAUGHT.

GALWAY.

In Galway district six National School teachers have, during the present season, been awarded certificates of competency to teach the Irish language.

The Tuam Board of Guardians have got sick of too much talk at their meetings, and the following new rule has been adopted by them—That no Guardian be heard more than once for more than ten minutes at the most, upon any one resolution, or upon the appointment of any officer; and that the mover of a resolution be heard twice only, and for fifteen minutes at the most—in those fifteen minutes being included both the moving of the resolution and the reply. That this rule be inexorably enforced without relaxation and without exception.

MAYO.

At the last meeting of the Castlebar Asylum Board, by the unanimous vote of the Governors, Surgeon F. Ellison, M. D., T.C.D., was appoluted Assistant Medical Superintendent.

The Most Rev. Dr. Lyster, has made the following changes in the diocese of Achonry;—Rev. Andrew Callaghan, from the curacy of Keash, to the curacy of Coolaney, Rev. D. Gallagher, C.C., Swinford, to Keash, Rev. J. O'Connor, C.C., Ballaghaderreen, to Swinford, Rev. N. J. Devine, C.C., Killasser, to Corry, Rev. James McKeon, C.C., Maynooth College, to Killasser, Rev. D. O'Grady, C.C., Collooney, to Bohercurry, in room of Rev. Father Benson, C.C.; Rev. M. Dempsey, late chaplain Convent of Sisters of Mercy, Banade Abbey, to be C.C., Collooney. Rev. P. Mulligan, P.P., Curry, who has been lately on a voyage to Canada, resumed charge of his parish.

ROSCOMMON.

Oats sold in the Roscommon market at 8s. 3d per barrell. The supply was not large.

The Roscommon Town Commissioners have accepted the tender of the local Gas Company to light the twenty-two public lamps of the town, for six months, for the sum of £82.

Mr. James D. O'Conner, Ballagh, Roscommon, has been re-appointed shareholders' auditor of the Royal Bank at a salary of 75 guineas.

At the Athlone Petty Sessions, a man named John Garvey was prosecuted by the Local School Bord for neglecting to send his boy, aged 13 years, to school, and a fine of 5s., and costs was imposed. In three similar cases small fines were imposed, and, and an order was made, in each case, directing the parents to send their children to school.

At a special court of inquiry, before Captain Preston, R. M., in Athlone, recently, a man named Patrick Lennon and his daughter for assaulting a man named John McManus, over a turf bank, at Ardnanew, on the 14th of May last. Both defendants were returned for trial to the next Roscommon Quarter Sessions, and were allowed out on bail.

SLIGO.

At the last meeting of the Sligo Board of Guardians, legal proceedings were directed to be taken against a number of people in Carney who have not had their children vaccinated, unless they comply with the provisions of the Vaccination Act.

The Tubercurry Board of Guardians, passed a unanimous vote of condolence on the occasion of the death of Mr. Cunningham, who had been Rate-collector in that Union for the past thirty years.

The Postmaster General has appointed Miss Ellie McSharry Postmistress of the Grange office. The appointment has given the greatest satisfaction, as Miss McSharry and her family are deservedly respected [illegible] in the district.

LEINSTER.

CARLOW.

The question of the appointment of an assistant medical resident officer to the Carlow Lunatic Asylum has at last been settled. The Lord Lieutenant has selected Dr. Fitzgerald, and the appointment has been officially announced. It will be remembered that no less than three elections took place with reference to the appointment. Two candidates presented themselves in the first instance, viz., Dr. Fitzgerald (who has now got the post), and Dr. Deane, who was the nominee of the landlord class. On the first division there was a tie, and the chairman of the meeting (Most Rev. Dr. Comerford) gave a casting vote in favor of Dr. Fitzgerald, who had far superior qualifications to his competitor for the post. The vote was challenged and a new election ordered, when there was a tie again. On the third occasion Dr. Fitzgerald was elected by a majority of votes, but irregularity was alleged, and the Bruen-Barton party entered a strong protest. The matter then fell into the hands of the Lord Lieutenant for settlement, with the result stated. The appointment is a very popular one. Dr. Fitzgerald is a clever young man, of excellent qualifications for the important position to which he has been appointed.

DUBLIN.

The medical authorities in Dublin are puzzled over an outbreak of disease in the Richmond Lunatic Asylum of a character hitherto unknown. Its principal system is dropsy, the result of a nerve disease, and it has proved directly fatal in a dozen cases. The disease is evidently of azymotic character. It attacked a large number of the inmates at once. No one appears able to offer an opinion as to how the disease was introduced into the asylum.

Mr. C. E. G. Harvey has been appointed, to fill the position of secretary to the Royal Irish Academy of Music, in succession to Dr T. R. G. Joze, who was recently elected to fill the Professor's chair rendered vacant by the death of the late Sir Robert Stewart.

KILKENNY.

On the Feast of Our Lady of Mercy the ceremony of reception took place in the pretty convent chapel of the Sisters of Mercy, St Michael's Wexford. The young ladies who received the white veil were Miss Mary Giles (who took the name in religion of Sister M. Paul), eldest daughter of Mr. Michael Giles, the Terrace, county Roscommon; and Miss Joyce (in religion Sister M. Patrick), second daughter of Mr. T. Patrick Joyce, Miltown, Borris, county Kilkenny. A large number of friends, both clerical and lay, of both young ladies, were present. The Bishop officiated.

KING'S.

The appointment of Dr. David J. Ryan, to the Phillipstown Dispensary, is announced. Dr. Ryan has made himself very popular at Clonaslea, where his departure is greatly regretted by his many friends.

LONGFORD.

A man named Robert Gorden, in the employment of Lord Longford as sweeper, died in the county infirmary from injuries received on Kilmartin racecourse, during the holding of the Longford races. The deceased ran across the 'straight' as the horses were running home in the second race, when a horse ridden by Mr. Matty McCann struck him, knocking him to the ground and also falling and rolling over him, and so gave the injury which caused death.

LUOTH.

A fire broke out recently in the stabling and coach-house buildings of Dr. J. B. Kelly, J.P., Drogheda. How it originated is not known; and it is stated that, when first discovered, a few buckets of water would have disposed of it, but there was no water to be got, as the mains are turned off at night, with a view of economising the resources of the Waterworks Company. The horses, the vehicles in the coach-house and the contents of the harness-room were safely got out, but the buildings were completely destroyed.

MEATH.

Information is wanted of Ellen Callaghan (maiden name Gogarty), who left Wilkinstown, county Meath, in 1850. When last heard from she was in New York. Also of Rose Gogarty, who left Wilkinstown about sixteen years ago, and has not been heard of since. Any information will be thankfully received by Thomas Gogarty, Wilkinstown, county Meath, Ireland.

WEXFORD.

At the recent Intermediate Examinations the following pupils of the Loretto Convent, Wexford, took prizes—Miss O'Mara, £2 prize, English Composition, Miss Margaret Kavanagh, £2 prize, English Composition, Miss Eleanor Hore, £2 prize in books.

WICKLOW.

Recently, a man, of no fixed residence who refused to give his name, but had evidently been in the army was brought up in custody, before Mr. Burke at Bray, charged with having burglariously entered the Catholic and Protestant churches in that township. Nothing was taken from the Protestant church, but £2 11s 4d was taken from the poor box in the Catholic church, besides several other articles. Information was given to the constabulary, who the prisoner, on whom was found the sum of money stolen and also a chisel. Mr. Burke sent the prisoner for trial to the Wicklow Quarter Sessions.

MUNSTER.

CLARE.

Mr John Walsh, of Ayle House, Feakle, has been appointed by the Lord Chancellor a Justice of the Peace for Clare.

At the last Ennis Petty Sessions, a farmer named Kenny, from the Martree district, Corofin, was summoned by Acting Sergeant Forrest, Local Food and Drugs Inspector, for selling butter in Ennis Market which was found to have in it 18½ per cent. of added water. The defense was that the butter was made in the warm weather, and a quantity of salt was put in it to 'make it keep,' which, the defendant contended, 'brought the water.' A fine of 5s. and costs was imposed.

CORK.

It has been decided by the members of the National Association of Master Bakers of Great Britain, to accept the invitation that the association should hold its next annual conference at Cork. Mr. Morris is the president-elect.

It is stated that the War Office authorities will, within the next few months, take over possession of the extensive mountain between Mitchelstown and Kilworth, for the purpose of establishing a military camp there for the regulars and militia. The locality derives additional interest from the fact that it was in that section the Southern insurgents made their 'hosting,' during the brief and disastrous 'rising,' in 1798, and there, also, the Young Irelanders, in 1848, made their abortive attempt, at insurrection, which was repeated in 1866-67. The government, evidently, means to 'garrison' the locality.

KERRY.

A number of moonlighters lately attacked the house of a farmer named Connell, at Dromid, and fired shots through the window. On getting up Connell found nine of his cows dead. Some of them had been stabbed in several places, and others had been driven over a neighboring cliff. The outrage is ascribed to Connell's having grazed the lands, from which another man had been evicted.

LIMERICK

A statement that has appeared in some of the Irish papers, to the effect that the Local Government Board has sanctioned the appointment of the Christian Brothers to take charge of the Glin District School is premature. The Board of Management of the school, at their last meeting, decided, if necessary, to pay the full salaries of the Brothers, if appointed, and in the letter received on the subject the Local Government Board sent on a number of queries to be answered forthwith in order that their final reply may be sent to the Glin School Board. From the nature of the queries put it may assumed that the appointment of the Brothers will eventually be sanctioned by the Local Government Board.

TIPPERARY

Very Rev. Dean White, P.P., V.G., Nenagh, announces the receipt of a further instalment of £500 from Rev. Father Curry, toward the new church fund, collected by Father Curry in the United States.

WATERFORD.

At a recent meeting of of the Dungarven Town Commissioners, Mr. Ed. Keohan presiding, a communication was read from Mr. Alfred Webb, M. P., for the Western Division of Waterford, in reply to a resolution recently forwarded requesting that gentleman to reconsider his decision of retiring from the representation of the division at the close of the next session. In his letter, Mr. Webb says he feels that, after the next general election it would appear to me a decided gain to the cause that some one else should take my place in the Parliamentary Party, and that after a visit of some months to relatives abroad, I should resume regular residence in Dublin, using my pen and personal influence to forward the cause. . . . If I believed the fight would be settled in a year or two my duty would be clear; but as it appears to me likely it may be continuous yet for a few years longer, it would seem to me wisest that each man should take that position in which he would be most likely to be useful and able to bear the continuous strain of public life. The letter was ordered to be placed on the minutes.

ULSTER.

ANTRIM.

The report and balance sheet of the Ulster Bank show that the dividends and bonus paid last year equal 19 per cent. for the year on the paid-up capital, and, in addition, £1,000 has been applied to reduction of cost of bank premises and £1,000 to the Officers Superannuation Fund, leaving a nett balance of over £20,000 to be carried forward. An unexpected payment to the bank of £6,000, which had been written off as an irrecoverable old debt, is to be appropriated as the nucleus of a Widow's and Orphan's Fund for the officials other than directors. It will seen from the detailed statement that the bank retains all its prosperty, and, indeed, the generous action of the directors and shareholders of the bank to their employes entitles them to be, as they have been this yerr, both lucky and rich.

CAVAN.

During the progress of a fair at Coothill, a married woman named Mrs. Ramsey, of Scarva, about a mile and a half from the town, suddenly dropped down in the fair green, and expired before medical aid could be procured. The body was conveyed to a house in Coothill, where an inquest was held, and a verdict of death from heart disease was returned.

DERRY.

A young man named Francis Keogh, a painter, residing in O'Neill street, met with a serious accident while working at the post-office. He was engaged painting the ceiling of the instrument-room in the telegraph department, when he fell from where he was standing to the floor, a distance of about sixteen feet. He was at once conveyed to the city infirmary, where his injuries, which were of a serious nature, were attended to.

DONEGAL.

His Eminence Cardinal Logue, accompanied by the Most Rev. Dr. O'Donnel, Bishop of Raphoe, arrived at Ballyshannon on a visit in connection with the new Shiel Hospital, of which he is a governor. Next day he presided at a solemn Requim High Mass, celebrated for the repose of the souls of the deceased parishioners. A very large congregation was present at the ceremonies in the church.

DOWN.

The Revision of the Parliamentary voter's lists for the borough of Newry, which has just been concluded by Judge Roche, County Court Judge for Down, resulted in a splendid gain for the Nationalists.
