FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC
GENEROUSLY GIVEN THE POOR.
San Elencio, Tex., June 12, 1911.
Two years ago you were kind enough to send me some of Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic, which I gave to two poor girls who were suffering from falling sickness, and they got well after using your excellent remedy. My parish is poor to the utmost, but your charity will be your crown, for your remedy so generously given to the poor, and so excellent, cannot but be an eternal reward.
REV. E. V. LEBBETON.

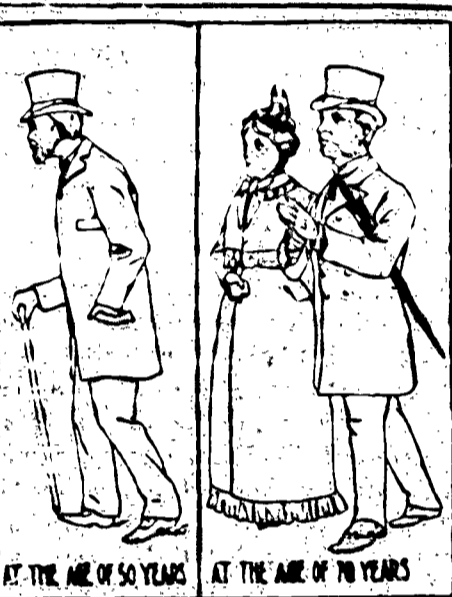

Consent of Our Lady of Mercy, Worcester, Mass., September 8, 1911.
We are happy to state that the boy on whom Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic was used has entirely recovered from St. Vitus Dance, and has been working for some time with his father.
