The Dead of Winter.
Find the undertaker busy and it finds the coal man hunting. It should be said that the undertaker gets much of his business from the unwise people who give little trade to the coal dealer. People whose houses are not properly warmed can not expect to be healthy. If you would avoid cold houses and sickness keep the coal bins well filled with good hard coal such as L. C. Langte sells at his office corner East Main at and East Avenue and at his yards, So. Clinton St. near Alexander and North Ave. near railroad.

We are convinced that we never published more reliable testimonials than those for Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic. This remedy deserves special recommendation, because it is given free to the poor.
