Wedding at the Immaculate Conception.
Open Meeting of the L. C. R. A. — Sermon at St. Bridget's. — A Little Child's Death.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

The marriage of Miss Nellie R. Mc-Kenna, daughter of Thomas McKenna, of 143 Bartlett Street, and Mr.
James O'Neil took place at the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 8 o'clock Monday morning. Rev.
James F. O'Hare performed the ceremony. The bridesmaid was Miss Minnie Leary, a cousin of the bride, and the best man was Mr. Thomas F.
O'Neil, a brother of the groom. A wedding breakfast at the home of the bride followed the ceremony and later the young couple started on a trip to Philadelphia and Washington.
Upon their return they will reside at 340 Plymouth ave.

ST. PETER AND PAUL'S.

there will be services in this Church on Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7:30 on Wednesday there will be a sermon and benediction and on Friday the stations of the Cross.

At the opening meeting of Branch evening of last week, the following program was rendered before a large and appreciative audience.

ST. BRIDGET'S.

The announcement that Very Rev.
James F. O'Hare, pastor of the Church of the Immaculate Conception and Vicar General of the diocese of Rochester, was to preach in St. Bridget's church on Gorman Street Sunday evening, was sufficient to attract a congregation that entirely filled the church. Father O'Hare was formerly pastor of St. Bridget's church and his old parishioners were pleased to see him again in the pulpit. He it was who built the church, and as St.
Bridget's was the first congregation of which he was ever in charge he takes considerable interest in the welfare of the parish.

Father O'Hare was called on to address the parishioners in the interests of the Ladies Aid Society of the church, which is doing much to ameliorate the suffering among the poor of the parish.

Father O'Hare's remarks were on the subject of charity, and he called on those who were in possession of a goodly supply of this world's goods not to allow their less fortunate neighbors to suffer.

ST. JOSEPH'S.

The marriage of Mr. Michael Angelo Stupp and Miss Theresa Frances Fisher was solemnized on Thursday at St. Joseph's Church. Rev. F. J.
Cook performed the ceremony.

Robert H., son of Charles M. and Catherine Bayer, died Tuesday night at 602 East Main street, aged 8 years.
The funeral took place from the residence Thursday afternoon and at 2:30 o'clock from St. Joseph's church.

ST. MARY'S.

At the 10:39 Mass last Sunday Rev. Owen Farron, the new assistant, preached, taking his text from the Gospel of the loaves and fishes.
Father Farron gives every promise of becoming a brilliant preacher, and his sermon was a source of delight to the people of St. Mary's. From the miracle of the loaves and fishes the young priest constructed a powerful argument to prove the reasonableness of the Catholic doctrine of the Real Presence in the Blessed Eucharist.

Local Notes.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Glavey celebrated their silver wedding Thursday evening at their residence, 78 Pennsylvania Avenue. There were about 100 friends present.

Mr. James Moloney, one of Chic-ago's leading business men, paid a flying visit to his sister Mrs. Burke, of Smith St., last week.

Special services were held in all the Catholic Churches Ash Wednesday.
At the Cathedral the Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. P. Kiernan. After Mass the ashes were blessed and distributed to the members of the congregation.

celebrated Dunlap hats. We are sole

Hat and Fur Co.

SACRED HEART CONVENT.

Both the junior and senior classes of Sacred Heart Academy gave entertainments on Friday of last week.

The little ones very wisely selected the early part of the day for the presentation of their charming fairy tale, "Hop O' my Thumb." It was the old nursery story, put up in a dramatic form, with which all are familiar.
Bruna and Annette represented by Mabel Euercks and Marie Cor, were such parents as these to their seven little ones till the pressure of poverty made them unnatural. Little Harriet Murphy, Carmel McMahon, Florence McKelton, Helen O'Hare, Margaret Fee, Elizabeth Paine and Genevieve Tyler were valuable waifs in their simple, artless talk about their misfortune and the God who loved them always. The kind hearted "Mog" was admirably acted by Marjorie Knapp.

The afternoon entertainment consisted of a dramatized chapter out of the days of Queen Elizabeth, when to be a Catholic was to have a price put on one's head. Those who took part in the drama were Miss F. Kane, Miss A. Stuart, Miss O. Connell, Miss J. Mahon, Miss G. North, Miss F.
McIntyre, Miss E. Rafferty, Miss B.
Boehat, Miss E. Phelps, Miss E. Egan, Miss A. M. Devine, Florence Mc-Kerone, Harriet Murphy, Miss E. Mooney, Miss M. Lang, Miss K. Donnelly, Miss M. McCarthy, Miss L. Thomas, Miss R. McCauley. In the various scenes, vocal music was rendered by Misses A. Stuart, R. McCauley and Miss Connell, and instrumental selections by Misses Mullett, Phelps, Kane, Lang, and O. and K. Connell.
The prologue was given by Miss E.
Phelps, and the epilogue by Miss O.
Connell.

The musical interludes bore ample testimony to the fact that "music and her sister song" are at home in this sanctuary of the home on Prince street. In the vocal solo and in the beautiful duet, "Holy Mother, Guide his Footsteps," there was a wonderful blending of tenderness, purity and simplicity, fitting both the words and the air. The closing chorus, by fresh young voices, showed the difference between mechanical vocalization, and that elicited by the touch of nature.

Deaths and Funerals.

Catherine C. Gilboe, wife of Daniel Gilboe, jr., died Tuesday evening at her home, 16 Hebard street, aged 87 years. A husband and four children survive her.

Sat. matinee. The three act musical comedy, Miss Telephonia, will be the attraction at the Cook Opera House.
The company is headed by William Keller Mack (late of Monroe & Mack) and comprises the very best comedian singers and dancers of the Vanderville profession. The piece is full of life and action and there is not a dull moment from the rise until the fall of the curtain and the specialties are far above the average.

It is with pleasure that we announce the appearance in our city the first part of next week at Cook's Opera House of the jolly jynons Geo-man dialect comedians, Ohas. A. Lor-er. The management promises a treat in store for all who love to spend an evening of fun, laughter, and merriment.

for season is here; but we must not think that we are to have summer weather right away. On the contrary there will be many cold, raw days, when the houses will be damp and cheerless. It behooves all pre-
