A Tribute to Dr. Freeman's Skill!

BY A WELL-KNOWN BUSINESS MAN

Mr. T. A. Widmer the well-known grocer formerly in business on Plymouth street, and now connected with the Armour Packing Co., residing at 359 State st., was until three years ago a great sufferer from Catarrh and Dyspepsia resulting from it. Many days during his business career as a grocer was he unable to wait upon his customers. Intense headaches, and dizzy spells accompanied by vomiting, distress after meals, bloating and shortness of breath, were his almost constant companions. All these distressing symptoms were the result of Catarrh whose secretions constantly dripped from the head into the throat. He was obliged to hawk and spit continually in an effort to raise this thick tough slime. The throat became sore and the chest painful. His lungs also became affected and the cough was persistent and annoying. He lost flesh, strength and ambition rapidly. At this point he began treatment with Dr. Freeman's at his Institute 125 Franklin st., and in a few weeks he was a well man, and has remained so for a period of three years which time is sufficient to prove that Dr. Freeman does cure Catarrh, Dyspepsia and other Chronic diseases, and that his cures are permanent, which cannot be said of any other system of treatment. Dr. Freeman's charges are low and and his friendly and kind will refund all money paid him. What fairer proposition can be made? The next winter money trying uncertain results of the unscrupulous doctors but got at once cured by the same Dr. Freeman.

HANGING TO A BRIDLE

A THRILLING ADVENTURE IN THE BIG HORN MOUNTAINS.

A Hunter Held Over a Bottomless Canyon by His Horse's Bridle Reins—The Mystery of Two Rifle Shots Explained—How Lee Cleared the Path.

During the fall of 1877, just after the expedition which had resulted in the running down and capturing of Chief Joseph and his band of warriors, my troop was detached to make a scout from Camp Brown down through the Rattlesnake range to the Platte river and from there to the Yellowstone by way of the Goose Creek trail.

When we camped on Clear creek, a comrade named Lee and I started off for a day's hunting among the high peaks of the Big Horn mountains, expecting to get a few sheep. Lee was a man of extraordinary strength and was noted in the regiment for his feats of muscular ability.

We ascended the mountain by a deer trail. Lee riding in advance. The trail led up a "hogback" until it ran out against the side of the mountain, when we had to pick our way over the side hill until we struck another trail winding in a zigzag manner toward the summit. We dismounted and led our horses, for the trail ran dangerously close to the edge of a cliff that formed one side of an immense canyon, whose depth we could only guess. Narrower and narrower grew the trail as we advanced until it seemed to terminate at a point only a short distance in front of us. We moved forward cautiously, for on one side the mountain appeared to rise from under our very feet into a wall of solid rock. On the other side we looked into the depths of the great canyon, which would prove an eternal grave to either of us should he lose his footing and topple into it.

The apparent termination of the trail was due to a curve at that point, to round which required steady nerves. We passed it safely, but had not gone 20 yards when both horses bent their ears forward, snorted and showed evidences of the greatest terror. Before I could ascertain the cause of it, being in rear of Lee's horse and unable to see beyond it, a shot was fired that awaked ten thousand echoes.

What followed the sound of the shot happened so quickly that I did not realize danger until I found myself hanging between life and death. My horse, unable to see what was in the path ahead of us, but whose instinct warned him of the presence of some dreaded wild beast, had stopped in terror, and when the shot was fired, suddenly threw up his head and began bawling. I had pulled the reins over his head when I dismounted and held them in my right hand, to which fact I owed my escape from instant death. The rapid backward movement of the horse and the sudden tossing of his head threw me off my balance, and before I could recover I was falling over the cliff.

Instinctively I tightened my hold on the reins and endeavored to grasp the edge of the cliff with my left hand as it was rolling over. I did succeed in checking the shock of my fall somewhat, but could not secure a hold sufficient to sustain my weight. For a moment I hung suspended over the terrible abyss, my whole weight resting upon my right arm. Quick as a flash I grasped the reins with my left also, and there I hung, expecting death every instant, for I knew that my horse would not stand long in the position he then held. I could see him standing above me, and the beauty of his pose and the rigidity of his position, as he stood braced against the weight dangling at the end of his bridle rein, made an impression upon my memory that will never be effaced.

I asked myself how much longer it was possible to hang by so frail a support as a bit of leather. The grip of my hands was so tight that my finger ends were tingling and burning as though cooked with a hot iron.

Suddenly another shot rang out, awakening a myriad of echoes that seemed to mock me with shrill laughter. Again that backward movement of my horse, and as I felt the reins drag along the edge of the precipice I thought I must surely let go and fall. Strange thoughts began to flash through my brain, mental pictures of loved ones long since dead appeared to whisper prayers for me, there was singing in my ears, and I realized that my strength was giving out.

Just then I heard my name spoken. At first I thought it was but the voice of one of the visions my excited brain had conjured up. But no; there it sounded again. It was Lee's voice, calm, collected and inspiring. He was whispering words of caution.

OUR ROMAN LETTER.

Condemnations Contained in the Last Decree of the Congregation of the Index.

Examinations of the Congregation of Rites.

ROME, ITALY.

The Supreme Court of Appeals is called upon to pronounce sentence upon the appeal made by the Noble Guards of His Holiness against the sentence passed in first instance, and confirmed by the lower Court of Appeal, ordering the payment of an income tax upon the honoraria and pensions assigned by the Holy Father to his Noble Guards. From the proceedings of the case in the Supreme Court, and from the confirmation of the sentence in the lower Court of Appeal, it seems most likely that the Supreme Court will simply ratify the sentence.

From all this it is clear that the spoliation of the Holy See are not satisfied with the noble refusal made by the Pope to the millions of lire assigned him by the law of guarantees as a subsidy to the Ruler of the Church. They wish also to control and tax the distributions made by the Holy Father of the offerings generously made to him by the Catholics of the whole world. It would be difficult to imagine any measure more odious, but at the same time nothing could more eloquently prove that the boasted law of guarantees is nothing more than what Plus IX. said it was—a magnificent monument of hypocrisy and falsehood.

A decree of the Sacred Congregation of the Index has just been published. It condemns and proscribes the following works:

1. Borio.—Christ at the Feast of Purim, with new preface added to the present edition, with portrait of the author. 32nd thousand. 1894, Naples. This work is condemned as being already condemned by the general rules of the Index—laqueum prae damnatum ex regulis indicis.
2. All his works (opera omnia).
3. Sentiments d'un philosophe sur la scholastique en general, et sur St. Thomas en particulier—articles published in a review—Nouvelles Annales de Philosophie Catholique (Garche, Seine et Oise, Rue de Surienne 13). Numbers 136, 137, 138, 139 and 140. July, August, September, October and November, 1891. (Dec. S. O. F. Fer. IV. 21 Febr 1893.) Auctor P. Hillaire de Paris laudabiliter se subject et articulo reprobavit.

4. Auctor operis—Vie de S. Polycarpe—L'Ange de l'Eglise de Smyrne—et l'Apotrope des Goules par l'Abbe Octave Mirzau—Pretre de la Basilique de S. Jean l'Evangeliste de Smyrne—Poitiers, Imprimerie Blaise, Roy et Cie, 7 Rue Victor-Ugo, 1893—(Prohib. Decr. die 19 Sept., 1885)—laudabiliter se subject et opus reprobavit.

At the last sitting of the Congregation of Rites, the following dubia were discussed:

1. The validity and importance of the Apostolic Process instituted in the curia of Cornuailles upon the fame of sanctity, virtues and miracles of the Venerable Julian Mauoir, Professed Priest of the Society of Jesus.
2. The Revision of the new writings of the Venerable Vincenzo Pallotti, Founder of the Pious Society of Missions.
3. The same of the Venerable Gaspare Del Bufalo, Founder of the Missionaries of the Most Precious Blood.
4. The same of the Venerable Giovanni Martini Moya, Founder of the Sisters of Providence.
5. The same of the servants of God, Nicolaes Biancovici, Bishop of Mazzara, Founder of the Order of St. Philip at Spalato.
6. The same of the servant of God, Nicolo Le Nobles, Secular Priest of the Diocese of Cornuailles.
7. The same of the servant of God, Don Francesco da Campo Russo, Lay Brother Professed of the Ospuchiani.
8. The same of the servant of God, Sister Maria de Santa Dufosse Pallotti, Foundress of the Sisters of the Good Shepherd.
9. Confirmation of the cultus, given ab immemorabili to the servant of God, Joan of Tolosa, Carmelite nun of the old observance, styled Blessed and Saint.
10. Approbation of office and Mass in honor of Idesbaldo, third Abbott of the Dun of the Cistercians.
11. The same in honor of the Blessed Agostino da Thaurigo, O.P., Bishop of Zagabria and Luocera.
