Resolutions by the St. Vincent de Paul Society. A reception by the Y. M. C. C. Deaths, etc.

CATHEDRAL In Memoriam.

At a meeting held on Sunday, March 24th, St. Vincent de Paul's Conference of the Cathedral took appropriate action on the demise of James O'Donoghue, one of its charter members.

At a meeting held on Sunday, March 24th, St. Vincent de Paul's Conference of the Cathedral took appropriate action on the demise of James O'Donoghue, one of its charter members.

Resolved, Therefore, that while we bow to the will of God in Himself our associate and brother, we wish to express with deepest regret our sorrow at the loss we sustain, and yet to console ourselves with the assurance that eminently true in his case are the inspired words: 'Precious in the sight of God is the death of the just.'

John L. Madden, Richard Whalen, James P. Kiernan, Committee.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

Branch 139 will receive Holy Communion in a body at the early mass in Corpus Christi Church on Palm Sunday.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

Mrs. Michael O'Grady died Monday noon at her home 61 Columbia Avenue. She is survived by her husband, one son, Thomas O'Grady, and three daughters, Mrs. C. F. Wilson, of New York; Mrs. Elizabeth A. and Katherine L. O'Grady, of this city.

ST. PETER AND PAUL'S.

Branch 82 C. M. B. A. will receive Holy Communion in a body Sunday at 8 o'clock Mass.

One of the leading social events after Easter will be the second monthly social of the Y. M. C. C. at their room Wednesday April 17th.

The Knights of St. Peter and Paul expect to appear in their new uniforms on Palm Sunday. No doubt but that they will make a creditable appearance, as their membership has increased rapidly of late.

Rev. J. P. Stewart preached at the late Mass last Sunday. His sermon was an eloquent one.

Local Notes.

A lecture with stereopticon views by Rev. Dr. Breen, and a musical entertainment, for the benefit of Knights of St. John the Baptist, will be given April 18, at French Hall, Pleasant street.

An Easter entertainment will be given by the children of Corpus Christi School at French Hall, Pleasant street.

The musical given by Miss Helen Cook assisted by Mrs. Charles G. Hooker, contralto; Mr. Philip Fried, tenor; Prof. Bonn, pianist; Dr. Ingersoll, fustist, at Genesee Valley Club Thursday evening of last week was of a high order of merit and showed Miss Cook to be possessed of great talent.

Wm. S. Kimball the well known millionaire tobacco manufacturer of this city died in Virginia Monday after an operation for the removal of an abscess. He was one of the most public spirited citizens of Rochester and his death is a great loss to the Flower City.

The remains of Mr. Kimball reached this city Wednesday night at 9:15 o'clock, and were taken at once to his late residence. Many prominent citizens met the funeral train. With the funeral party were John Pope, first vice-president, William A. Marburg, third vice-president, and Louis Ginter, a director of the American Tobacco Company.

The funeral of Rosetta Farley will be held from her late residence, 455 Plymouth Avenue, at 8:30 o'clock Saturday morning and at 9 o'clock from Immaculate Conception Church.

James O'Donoghue's Will.

The will of the late James O'Donoghue has not yet been offered for probate, but it is learned that it contains a number of bequests to religious and charitable institutions. Deceased gave largely to these causes all his life, so that his last bequests may be considered as merely rounding out his total contributions from his fortune.

St. Bernard's Seminary will receive the sum of $1,000, this being one of the institutions to which Mr. O'Donoghue contributed most freely during his life. There are also, other bequests to St. Patrick's Girls' and St. Mary's, Boys' Orphan Asylums, among which will be divided $1,000 to $12,000, all the Catholic Churches which were built in the city at the time the will was made being remembered.

The remainder of the estate will go to the family. Rev. Francis O'Donoghue is the only surviving child, and to him will go the most of the estate.

The will is to be offered for probate in the Surrogate's Court on Monday.

Do You Want Money?

If you do, earn it. And when you earn it, save some of it. A good way to save it is to exercise good judgment in making your purchases. Take coal, for instance. You can actually throw money away by buying a poor, worthless article. You can save money by purchasing only the best brands. L. C. Langie sells the latter kind, and his prices are always reasonable. Give him a trial order, and you will say: "At last I have found good coal." main office East Main street, cor. PROMOTED.

Rev. Wm. Harrington, the New Pastor at Waterloo—Rev. Thomas F. Hickey, his Successor—Father McGrath goes to Moravia—Rev. John Quinn to St. Mary's Church.

As announced in last week's Journal Bishop McQuaid has promoted Rev. John J. Hickey, of Waterloo, to be pastor of the Holy Family church in Auburn. The Bishop last week settled the question as to who should go to Waterloo by naming Rev. W. E. Harrington, for the last seven years Catholic chaplain at the State Industrial school to be pastor at Waterloo. A better selection could not well have been made. Father Harrington is one of the most brilliant preachers in the diocese of Rochester. He possesses also a winning personality that cannot fail to endear him to his new parishioners. He is a native of Auburn and received his early education in the public schools of that city. When he decided to study for the priesthood he entered St. Andrew's seminary. During his first year there he showed such ability that the bishop decided to send him to the American college in Rome, Italy. Here the young student spent six years, graduating with high honors. He was ordained in October, 1887. Shortly after his ordination he was sent to take care of the Brookport parish during the absence of Rev. Richard J. Story. After Father Story returned, Father Harrington was named by Bishop McQuaid as Catholic chaplain and agent at the State Industrial school. This is a trying position. In addition to ministering to the spiritual wants of Catholic inmates the chaplain has to look up homes for those who have come and at stated periods visit the homes and see that the foster parents take proper care of their adopted children. Father Harrington has performed these duties with rare tact and has so endeared himself to the children that they will be loth to lose him. The other officers of the school will be sorry to part with Father Harrington while pleased to hear of his promotion. In addition to his work at the State Industrial school Father Harrington has preached at the Cathedral and assisted Father Kiernan in his pastoral work. The congregation at Waterloo to which he has been assigned has a membership of about 1,500.

A fitting successor to Father Harrington as chaplain at the State Industrial school has been selected by the bishop. He is Rev. Thomas F. Hickey, who for several years has had charge of the parishes at Moravia and Orleans and since the death of the late Father McMann has in addition had charge of the parish at Graton. Father Hickey is a native of Rochester. He is a son of the late Jeremiah Hickey, a brother of Jeremiah Hickey, jr., of this city. He was sent to St. Andrew's seminary from St. Mary's parish. From St. Andrew's he went to Troy Theological seminary where he completed his theological studies. After his ordination he was sent to Auburn as an assistant and stayed there until he was sent to Moravia. Father Hickey is a brilliant preacher and has a splendid voice which will be heard to advantage in high masses at the Cathedral, where he will assist on Sunday.

Among the changes that have taken place in the diocese since the death of Rev. Dean Seymour are two that have been made this week in Auburn.

Rev. John J. McGrath, who since October, 1890, has been at St. Mary's Church as assistant pastor, has been transferred to Moravia, to assume charge of Father Hickey's flock, that gentleman going to Rochester.

Rev. John Quinn, who was associated with the late Dean Seymour, as assistant pastor, takes Father McGrath's place at St. Mary's. Both are young men and hard and earnest workers in the cause of Catholicity, and their many friends will wish them the best of success in their new fields.

The Spring Hat and Bonnet Department of Western New York, in fact, are here. We display this is the most beautiful department in New York. This is no idle boast. It's an involuntary remark of every visitor. It's a fact we investigate. Flowers, feathers and fads, all else where are here. This is the last of the season. We have gone into history—an unprecedented series of great sales. Prudent purchasers prefer to have all of them—many exclusive ones. Thousands here yesterday. We would like to see you today.

Leaders of Fashion Coats

Are Continental, Napoleon and Queen Louise shapes. They're the very latest fashions of the World's famous modistes. They're as popular with buyers as we can imagine for they're going faster than any other design. Dutch Bonnets and Tribby bonnets are just as pretty and should not be overlooked. Then there is the rich Euboea hat and hundreds more of the latest and handsomest things ever displayed in Western New York.

Stylish Capes

The Cloak Department is on the main floor—just a step from the millinery. The display here is unique and inviting. The ideas of the world's fashion makers are embodied in this elegant showing. From broadcloth, covered with jet in swirling folds, lined with taffeta silk, bows of chiffon at the neck; French broadcloth, openwork, violet lining, trimmed with deep jet and fur, trimmed with moiré silk and deep velvet, velvet, moiré silk, and rows of silk ruffling, fine tulle and trimmings with Vandyke points, an elegant garment in light tan shade; tulle with three rows of ruffling, lined with shimmable carles, collar trimmed with shimmable satin bows; Lyons velvet, trimmed with jet and satin applique silk ruffling; Parisian garment, light tan lined with tulle, collar trimmed with lace and shimmable applique and fish net insertions. These are some of the richest garments to be seen in any American cloak house. We show them in America at $75 and $100, and down as low as $25.

Separate Skirts

Our line of Separate Skirts is a vast one. Flared skirts, long and short, silk, satin, serge, moiré, and all the latest styles in this class. These garments are all made to order, and are made to order, and are made to order.
