Easter Sunday was observed in the usual brilliant manner in the Catholic churches of the city. The alters were decorated and trimmed in the most artistic manner. Cut flowers pouled plants, hundsome trailing vines and smilax and numberless lighted oil lamps and burning condles figured in bedutifying the different altars

The young ladies of St. Mary's Church are taking preliminary steps towards the organization of a dramatic club.

The Catholic ladies of the city are about to organize a local branch of the L. C. B. A., in fact, the organization has been effected and the installation will take place, probably, Tuesday night next, on which occasion it is proposed to give a musical entertainment and a box sociable, in honor of the event It is expected that the number of charter members will be upwards of eighty.

At the meeting of the Common Council. Monday night, a resolution was adopted to the effect that a bill providing for municipal ownership of the electric lighting of the city, be prepared and sent to Albany, in the hope of having it rushed through the present session. Alderman Rhodes introduced the resolution, and it is hoped that if satisfactory terms cannot be had with the present Electric Light Company, that a new plant will

On Tuesday evening the little ones of the Anburn Orphan Asylum were given a supper by the ladies of St. Alphonsisus' German Catholic Church. Those ladies have, for a few years past, given the orphans a supper on Easter Tuesday night, and the occasion ust past was even more elaborate than its predecessors. Rev. Joseph Netzel, pastor of the church, was present and presided at the table and the excellent enterminment which the little ones gave after.

Grand services and brilliant music comprised the Easter celebration at Holy Family Church is t Sunday. Rev. Father Mc-Mahon sang the high mass at II o'clock and Rev. Father Hickey preached an eloquent sermon on the "Resurrection." The singing by the choir was especially fine, the solos by the Misses Murphy, Briggs, White, Welch, Kittle and Bessie Stafford and the Messrs. M. C. Murphy, Hanlon, Hennessy, S. A. Murphy and James Graham being well rendered.

Solemn vespers were sung in the evening Mrs. Gerin. The marble altar never looked more beautiful with its profusion of calls and Easter lilies and polted plants. Miss Teresa Graham presided at the organ.
