CITY SUBSCRIBERS—ATTENTION!

Our Agent and Collector, Mr. A. Herman, will call on our city subscribers next week. We hope they will be prepared to pay their subscriptions.

We wish to caution our subscribers to pay no person unless they can show proper credentials from this office.

ST. PETER AND PAUL'S

During month of May, devotions will be held at this church on Tuesday and Thursday evenings.

Beginning next Sunday early Mass will be at 8 o'clock, and High Mass at 10 o'clock.

The third annual social of the Y. M. C. C. was held at their rooms last Monday evening. There were forty couples present, who enjoyed themselves highly.

Last Wednesday morning occurred the death of Miss Margaret Emenhand, at the residence of her grandmother on Victoria street, after suffering untold agonies for fourteen weeks. Deceased was 17 years and 4 months.

The funeral took place from this church Saturday morning. The bearers were Joseph Smith, Frank Khrber, George Hange, Joseph Dietrich, and Leo Dengler.

ST. BRIDGET'S

The older members of St. Bridget's Church remember Agnes Kinney, a former pupil of the school and whose sweet voice was heard in the choir. Several years ago she became an opera singer, and adopted the professional name of Agnes Sherwood. She was married to Jerome Sykes, also a member of the profession, and resided in New York. She died in childbirth last week at her home in that city. Mr. Sykes brought her body to the residence of her mother, Mrs. B. Kinney, 459 North street, and on Monday she was buried from St. Bridget's Church, her former friend, Rev. T. A. Hendrick officiating. Many handsome floral offerings were sent from theatrical celebrities.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

The Columbian Literary Circle will give a dramatic entertainment at the school Hall Tuesday evening, May 29th.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

Preparations are being made for a Fair, to be held some time in July. Branch 104 L. C. B. A. received Holy Communion in a body last Sunday. The Branch has over 100 members, and nearly all were present.

FRENCH CHURCH

"O Canada, or the Indian Rose," a Canadian drama, will be given by the pupils of the school at French Hall, Monday evening, June 24th, at eight o'clock p. m. The admission has been placed at 25 cents.

ST. MICHAEL'S.

The Knights of St. George gave a pleasing dramatic entertainment at Germania Hall, Tuesday evening.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

The opening devotions for the month of May were largely attended. The young ladies' sodality were present and added to the solemnity of the occasion. Rev. Father Hartly of Palmyra, preached an eloquent sermon on the Blessed Virgin.

ST. JOSEPH.

Great preparations are being made for the fair which is to commence Monday evening next. Branch 91 O. M. B. A. will attend in a body.

LOCAL.

John Burns, of Farmington, and B. Quinn, of Moravia, were among the callers at the CATHOLIC JOURNAL office this week.

A cable dispatch from Paris has announced the sudden death of Rev. Mother de Sartorius, Superior General of the Religious of the Sacred Heart. A requiem mass was offered in the convent chapel on Prince street this Saturday morning at 9 a. m.

The convention of the Ancient Order of Foresters, which will be convened in this city next week, promises to be one of the biggest meetings ever held by that order. It will be called to order next Tuesday morning at 9 o'clock, when Mayor Lewis will deliver an address of welcome. Tuesday evening the Foresters will visit Powers art gallery, and in the evening will occur the parade. There will be over 2,000 men in line.

Deaths and Funerals.

The funeral of Sadie McDonald took place from the residence of her grandfather, No. 88 Franklin street, at 8:40 o'clock Wednesday morning, and at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's Church.

John A. McDermott, son of Police Captain McDermott, died at 5 o'clock Tuesday morning at the family residence, No. 84 Manhattan street, aged 24 years. The deceased was employed as a street railway conductor for some time, and about a year ago he contracted a severe cold, which developed into pneumonia, and afterwards into quick consumption. Mr. McDermott was unmarried. Besides his parents, he is survived by one brother, Edward. Mr. McDermott was a young man of exemplary character, and quiet and unassuming manner. He had a large number of friends, who will be pained to learn of his death. The funeral took place from the house at 8:40 o'clock Thursday morning, and from St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock.

The funeral of Catherine Cullinan was held from her late residence, No. 15 Ward park, at 8:30 o'clock Monday morning and from St. Bridget's Church at 9 o'clock. Rev. Father Hendricks celebrated requiem high mass. The interment was in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Orelie Rivard, widow of the late Pierre A. Rivard, died Tuesday night at No. 212 Conkey avenue, aged 69 years. She leaves two sons, Frank Rivard and Dr. Peter E. Rivard, and three daughters, Misses Agnes and Mary Rivard of this city and Mrs. Demar of Troy.

The funeral was held this Saturday morning at 8:30 from the house and at 9 o'clock at the Church of Our Lady of Victory.

Paul Pohl died Sunday at his home No. 27 East Maple street, aged 60 years. The deceased was born in Peterswalden, Germany. He had lived here eight years. He is survived by three sons, Frank, who is the organist of St. Peter and Paul's Church, Frederick and Herman, one daughter, Sister Pauline, of Notre Dame convent, Philadelphia.

The funeral took place at St. Peter and Paul's Church Wednesday morning at 8:30. Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated by Dr. Sinclair, assisted by Rev. Dr. Pascual and Father Boppel. Revs. Rauber, Harather, Regenbogen and Hanna were present in the sacristy.

Mrs. Elizabeth L. Connolly, relict of the late Patrick Connolly, a well known State street merchant of former years in this city, died rather suddenly, though not unexpectedly, at the family residence, No. 114 Pearl street, between 8 and 9 o'clock Sunday morning. Deceased was a native of Rochester, and a lady of most estimable qualities, whose departure from this life is regretted and mourned by a large circle of relatives and friends. The members of her immediate family who survive are these children: James C. Connolly, Superintendent of the Money Department of the Rochester Postoffice; Mrs. John C. Fee; Sister Mary, of the order of Sisters of Charity, in charge of St. Vincent's Orphan Asylum, Albany; Sister Louise, also of the order of Sisters of Charity, Providence Hospital, Washington, D. C.; Miss Teresa E. Connolly, a teacher in No. 24 school, Rochester; Mrs. Frederick Cunningham, and Miss Anna B. Connolly, all of this city.

The funeral was held at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning, and from St. Mary's Church at 9 o'clock. Rev. J. P. Stewart celebrated solemn requiem high mass, Rev. Felix O'Hanlon, of Clifton Springs, acting as deacon, Rev. Thos. Hickey of St. Patrick's as sub-deacon, and Rev. E. J. Hanna, of St. Bernard's Seminary as master of ceremonies.

The choir of St. Mary's, assisted by Mrs. Kate C. Mahon, Thomas Burns and Miss Anna Roches sang the music. During the mass Miss Roches sang a pretty "Ave Maria," and Thos. F. Kearney, director of the choir, sang "Dies Irae." Dr. Hanna pronounced the final absolutions, assisted by Revs. J. P. Stewart and Felix O'Hanlon. As the cortege passed out of the Church, Mrs. Mahon sang "All for Thee." The bearers were William Carroll, Walter B. Duffy, William Carroll, James Fee, Richard Whalen, and Bernard O'Reilly. Interment was at Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Do You Know

Children's Aid Society.

The Children's Aid Society of Rochester is now prepared to enter upon the work which it was organized to perform. The society has elected its officers and discussed different ways in which the work laid out can be performed.

It will be the aim of the society to not only provide homes for children who have not proper guardians, but also to look after children who on account of the age limit may be discharged from the various public institutions. These children will be provided with homes where their education will be properly looked after.

Catholic children will be sent to Catholic families and Protestant children to Protestant families.

Base Ball News.

The local base-ball management have extended an invitation to all the city and county officials to attend the formal opening of the new ball park on Monday afternoon. Most of the invited ones will be present and occupy the seats that are to be reserved for them in the grand stand. To Mayor Lewis will fall the honor of putting in play the first ball. He has been requested to do so, and has made up his mind to undertake the job. There will be a street parade before the game.

Springfield will cross bats with the Rochesterers the first half of the week and Providence the second half.

Fashion's Dictates

Are promptly heeded in every department of this store. "If it's swell you'll find it at Burke's," say the smart dressers. We never disappoint them. And somehow we manage to keep prices down at the same time. Burke's Corner owe their popularity to these reasons. Small prices, elaborate the wheels of merchandising.

All Ready Suits.

"The new woman" profits much through buying suits ready to wear. They're economical, serviceable, stylish. Some folks don't think so. We're converting skeptics every day.

For $6.47—This trifling price buys a Black or Navy Serge Suit with tight fitting, double breasted jacket, skirt lined throughout.

Women's Capes.

First half of the week ladies needed few garments for comfort. That Turkish bath temperature won't last, though. Never know just what the weather is going to be. No better guard against its treacherous changes than one of our Capes.

Brown, tan and black cloth Capes with velvet collars, full sweep, $2.47.

Black Cloth Cape lined with silk velvet collar, $3.97.

Black Silk Cape, trimmed with ribbon and Van Dyke points of jet, lined, $10.

Black Silk Cape, lined, ribbon ruffling, jet and braid trimming, $10.75.

Black Silk Cape, lined, trimmed with ribbon and ruffling, $15.

Separate Skirts.

Our Separate Skirt section yesterday resembled Main Street on Saturday night. We're striving to make it look like that all the time. Prices are never allowed to grow big.

Navy Serge Separate Skirt, lined throughout, full sweep, gilet back, $8.79.

Tan Covert Skirt, lined throughout, gilet back, $4.50.

Dress Goods.

We have more staple things and more novelties in Dress Goods than any other Rochester house. We don't have the same ones more than a few days in succession, though.

Shepherd Checks, desirable fabric for children, a nice assortment may be found here.

Storm Serges in black and navy are still very much used for outing suits. The assortment is complete. Prices range from 40c to $1.25 per yard.

19c per yard—This is the price on a line of tasteful and serviceable goods, plain and fancy colors, that you would pay more for at other stores.

25c per yard—Take into consideration the fact that these exclusive Dry Goods houses, and you have our reason for selling 50c Plaids, Stripes, Diagonals and Mixed effects at 25c per yard.

Leather Goods.

Raw leather is increasing in price every day. Our figures on the manufactured goods are lower than ever.

Ladies' Leather Bags, Portmanteaus, Trunks, etc., at 10c per yard. Side Valises 25c and up. Leather Bags 50c and up.
