GOOD-BY, INCOME TAX.

The citizens of the United States once more have been brought face to face with the fact that there is a higher power in the land than the President, his cabinet, the United States senate or the House of Representatives and that is the Supreme court of the United States.

The machinery was set in operation to collect the income tax. Blanks and instructions were sent to the internal revenue collectors; additional clerical help was given the bureau at Washington and more deputies were given the internal revenue collectors all over the country.

Whenever it becomes necessary, in the course of human events, to criticize some particular branch of the city government, why is it that the Board of Education is selected?

When, however, the supreme court decided that incomes from rents and most bonds were exempt from taxation the most of this class escaped and as one person aptly expressed it, "all that was left of the law was a tax on brains."

It is fitting that the children of the parochial schools turn out in the Decoration day parade to honor the memory of the dead soldiers who fought that this great country might not be rent in twain.

the high esteem in which the United States Supreme court has been held will be lowered somewhat, especially in the minds of lawyers, by the reversal of its own decision of less than a month previous.

As for the general public it makes no difference whether there be an income tax or not. Most, several millions, certainly of our citizens are not in the receipt of an income over $4,000, the mean at which taxation began under the Wilson law.

However, the law was so arbitrary in some of its provisions and so obviously a class law that it is a pleasure to record its doom.

Had the original law been sustained in its entirety and the income from rents of real estate not been stricken out, it would have been the poor man, in the long run, who would have paid the major part of the income tax.

IT IS FITTING.

It is fitting that the children of the parochial schools turn out in the Decoration day parade to honor the memory of the dead soldiers who fought that this great country might not be rent in twain.

There is another reason why we are glad that the parochial school children will take part in the parade this year. It shows that the Veteran's Brigade, under whose auspices and direction, the Memorial day exercises are held is not tainted with bigotry and it also will be a slap in the face of the bigots who would have the non-Catholic world believe that the children in the parochial schools are uneducated, ignorant little anarchists.

A CATSPAW.

Whenever it becomes necessary, in the course of human events, to criticize some particular branch of the city government, why is it that the Board of Education is selected?

When a paper has neither subscribers nor imprimatur it is in an unenviable predicament. The "Sun" certainly must be hard up for subscribers when its agent copies names out of the city directory, as was done in Auburn.

"Blessings are no doubt essential to the success of the Rochester Journal, continues the "Sun." The only "blessings" that are essential to our success are: A clear conscience, an ability to mind our own business, a bona fide paid up subscription list, they are hardly able to spell correct, and before they know much about the history of their own country, or whether Greenland is in the North American continent or in Europe.

There is an old saying "Give the devil his due," and we believe the Board of Education is being dealt with unfairly. If there be corruption in the Board—and we do not believe there is—there is equally as much in other departments of the city government, and the board should not be made to bear all the criticisms.

THE CLERICAL ECHO AGAIN.

The Syracuse "Sun's" clerical biletta did not take the bit of information given by the Journal of May 11th in the friendly way it was imparted.

The "Sun's" editor, or his "clerical biletta" again displays skill as a mind-reader. He, or it, says: "Father Cronin named well THE ROCHESTER JOURNAL. It is said that even Parcell of the "Union and Advertiser" is ashamed of it."

Two weeks ago the "Sun" posed as the voluntary defender of four clerical editors whom it charged the JOURNAL with attacking, when, as a matter of fact, we mentioned no names.

The Rochester JOURNAL is very indignant because we did not sustain it in calling Fathers Lambert and Phelan and Cronin "clerical blackguards."

In-as-much as it was the "Sun" that called the names, we will let it apologize to Rev. Mr. Malone, of the "Colorado Catholic," whom it included in its first list of "blackguards" but left out of its second.

The "Sun" must be in worse shape than we ever dreamed of. Just listen to this confession: "If a paper has no subscribers it certainly should have an imprimatur."

When a paper has neither subscribers nor imprimatur it is in an unenviable predicament. The "Sun" certainly must be hard up for subscribers when its agent copies names out of the city directory, as was done in Auburn.

Probably the ones who will feel the upsetting of the income tax the most are the deputy internal revenue collectors appointed to collect the tax. Their jobs are gone.

and a good advertising patronage. All these the JOURNAL possesses. We might add that there is another requisite to the success of a Catholic paper: Loyalty and respect for the church and her representatives.

We hope the "Sun" and its mind-reading biletta see the point.

The editor of "The Post Express" insists that the editor of the "Union and Advertiser" should retire. Is there any reason why the stockholders of "The Post Express" company should not insist upon the retirement of the editor of the P. E.?

Will Governor Morton sign the water storage bill? If he does not, the anti-Platt men in Buffalo will say that the governor is out with Platt.

"Bishop" Newman, of the Methodist Episcopal Church has broken loose again, and wants all Catholics exiled to the middle of the Atlantic ocean or some other equally remote place.

But why track this headless comet? Bishop Newman will next appear, in all probability, in a newspaper picture as a triumphant proof of the curative power of a patent medicine which restores failing physical powers, loss of memory and general incoherency of thought after the use of six bottles.

It is true that Joseph H. Choate received $100,000 for his argument before the United States Supreme court against the income tax and $100,000 more because of the knock out of the law, there is one person who has been benefited by this robbery law, as the New York "Sun" styled it.

Milwaukee has had a bad dose of A. P. A. in the shape of a national convention of the three letter organization. Judging from the fun the "Catholic Citizen" had with the convention, it was neither a credit to Milwaukee nor to the order itself, if there be anything creditable about it.

How time flies! Bishop Gabriel, on May 5th, celebrated the third anniversary of his elevation to the episcopate and yet it seems but yesterday that he was called from the presidency of the theological seminary at Troy to be a bishop. Ad multos annos.

The Syracuse "Sun" is worried about the JOURNAL's subscription list. We are ready at anytime to compare bona fide, paid up circulation or subscription with our neighbor of the Saline City. Does it dare to meet the challenge. Come now! An alleged cash capital of $30,000 does not always mean a successful newspaper.

Listen to this from the staid old "Times" of Philadelphia: "Rev. Mathias Raus, rector major of the Redemptionist Order, is to visit the United States. He should receive a rousing welcome."

Let's see. Was there not a candidate for regent of the state university who hailed from Syracuse and has not been known off and on as a clerical editor?

PURCHASE OF PAINTINGS.

The purchase is completed, now comes the sale.

But to explain.

We have purchased the balance of the paintings of A. Landseer Harris which that artist had on exhibition in the Electric Building, corner of East avenue and East Main street.

To Rochesterians it is unnecessary to enlarge on this statement. The character of the water color work of Mr. Harris is too well known. Every piece purchased is signed by the artist.

These paintings are placed on sale in the Picture Department, and dry goods prices rule.

THE GOSPELS.

GOSPEL: St. John xv. 26-27; xvi. 14—At that time, Jesus said to His disciples: "When the Paraclete cometh whom I will send you from the Father, the spirit of truth, who proceedeth from the Father, He shall give testimony of Me. And you shall give testimony, because you are with Me from the beginning. These things have I spoken to you, that you may not be scandalized. They will put you out of the synagogue; yea, the hour cometh that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth a service to God. And these things will they do to you, because they have not known the Father nor Me. But these things I have told you that when the hour of them shall come, you may remember what I told you."

What did Christ promise here? "He promised that the Holy Ghost would give testimony of Divine mission, and of the truth of His doctrine. The promise was fulfilled. The world has acknowledged Jesus to be the only-begotten Word clothed with our flesh; it has recognized Him to be the Messiah foretold by the prophets and foreshadowed in the law; it was convinced of the holiness of His doctrine, by which truths not known before were taught, and precepts inculcated worthy of the God who taught them and worthy of man, who was called to put them in practice with the help of divine grace."

To Those who Mourn their Loved and Lost.

There exists at Chappelle Montligeon, (France), an Archconfraternity, the Buve Expiatoire established with the approbation of Mgr. Zrigaro, Bishop of the Diocese in which 2,000 Masses are offered up every week for the forsaken souls in Purgatory. (112,000 Masses were celebrated in 1894.) The Associates enrolled on the registers of the Archconfraternity in the suffrages of all these Masses, and ensure for themselves the efficacious and powerful protection of the holy souls by subscribing one cent yearly, or one dollar in perpetuity. The Buve Expiatoire has received the approbation of his Holiness Leo XIII, and over 500 Cardinals and Bishops.

Address enquiries to R. v. Paul Bagnat, Chappelle Montligeon P. O. France.
