

Well Satisfied. 11
Stephan, S. Dak. April, 1893.
After using half a bottle of Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic for sleeplessness and nervousness, I must confess that it is the best medicine I ever used.

SISTER VICTORIA.
The Best Medicine for Sleeplessness.
I used Pastor Koening's Nerve Tonic for sleeplessness, from which I was suffering fifteen years. The Tonic had the desired effect. It is the only medicine which gives me sleep.

Mrs. Shakespeare. Shakespeare, who was born in April, 1564, was in his nineteenth year when he married, writes Dr. William J. R. in the Ladies' Home Journal.

Female Inquisitor. Of the multifarious uses of the hair-pin, some at least are well known. They are suggested by a French traveler's description of a pin which the Indian women of Peru wear as a fastener for their shawls.

Met by Chance. An amusing story is told of Robert Franz, the famous German song writer, and another equally celebrated composer.

What should a feller say? "What should a feller say," asked the young man anxiously, "when his wife asks him if he would marry again if she were to die?"

A Distinguished Female Clergyman. In all probability the most distinguished female clergyman in this country is Rev. Phebe A. Hanaford, at present a resident of Gotham.

Essex, the favorite of Elizabeth, had a set of shirts which cost $50 apiece.
