ST. PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL.

Next week Friday, July 13th, will be our Right Rev. Bernard J. McQuaid's twenty-seventh anniversary of his ordination. The choir of the Cathedral will render O. Greith's beautiful orchestral mass Op 25 on that occasion.

Father Notebaert announced last Sunday that hereafter the hours for masses would be 8 and 9:30 o'clock.

ST. JOSEPH.

First communion was given to a large class in St. Joseph's Church on Sunday.

SS. PETER AND PAUL'S.

Last Sunday the Feast of SS. Peter and Paul was celebrated in a most fitting manner. Solemn High Mass was celebrated at 8 o'clock. The Y. M. C. O., the Knights of SS. Peter and Paul and SS. Peter and Paul's Societies received Holy Communion.

In this Mass the singing of the choir of this and St. Michael's Church was very good, for which the members as well as their directors received great praise.

The closing exercises of the school were held in the Parish hall on Monday evening. The hall was well filled with the parents and friends of the graduates and a large part of the congregation. An elaborate and interesting programme had been prepared, and was carefully carried out by the pupils.

Our worthy pastor presented the graduates with their Diplomas. There were sixteen graduates, and the following are their names:

Aloys Mattern, George Joseph Bletzer, John Drexler, Wm. Reichenberger, Leo Douglar, Mary Dentinger, Alice Stephan, Maggie Vay, Hattie Dengler, Sophia Amberg, Christina Leary, Teresa Dechman, Ottilia Miller, Mary Andrews, Teresa Leary.

The following named members of the Y. M. C. O. are camping at Long Pond for ten days: Henry Jesserer, John Merklinger, John Rauber and Frank Gamacoe.

The children of this parish will receive first Holy Communion at half past seven o'clock Mass this Sunday.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

The funeral of little Nellie Melody, who was fatally burned on Sunday, took place from her home, 107 Champlain street, Tuesday afternoon. The casket was borne by four little boys, and many friends and relatives attended the funeral. Very Rev. James F. O'Hare, of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, read the service. The pall-bearers were Ernest McKenna, James Hawkins, William Varion and William McPaddon.

LOCAL NOTES.

Dr. J. F. Crowley has recovered from his recent severe illness.

The Misses Gaffney of Rochester have returned from their European trip and are at present the guests of their sister, Mrs. Marie Gaffney Smith of New York.

On Monday and Tuesday Father O'Connor and ten of the members of the Father Hecker reading circle were entertained by the Cardinal Newman circle of St. Bridget's Church.

Corinne Mahon has been elected president of the Rochester Catholic Reading Circle of the Cathedral in place of Mrs. D. B. Murphy who resigned. Margaret Leary will fill O. Mahon's former office of secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Coffey of London, Canada, were guests of Dr. Casey last week, while en route to Atlantic City. Mr. Coffey is the well-known proprietor of the Catholic Record published in London.

Bishop McQuaid preached at St. John's Church, Utica, last Sunday when the marble pulpit, which N. E. Kernan erected as a memorial to his father was unveiled.

Mollie Rae, of 128 Broadway, and Mary Joyce, of 161 Platt street, started Thursday morning for Denver where they will visit their aunt, Mrs. C. M. Neal. They will be gone two months.

Deaths and Funerals.

The funeral of Theresa Voelkl was held from the late residence, No. 308 West Maple street, at 7:30 o'clock Friday morning, and from Holy Family Church at 8 o'clock.

The infant son of Catherine and James O'Rourke died Wednesday morning at the family residence, No. 87 Emmet street, aged 4 years and 10 days. The funeral will be held Friday morning. Interment private.

Mary Patten Teller died Tuesday night at St. Mary's Hospital, aged 92 years. The deceased is survived by a husband. Interment took place at Lyons.

Joseph A. Foss died at the family residence, No. 193 Jay street, Sunday evening, aged 39 years. A wife and three children survive him. The funeral was held from the house at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, and from SS. Peter and Paul's Church at 8:30 o'clock.

Peter F. Hughes died Sunday at No. 213 South Fitzhugh street, aged 26 years. The deceased is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hughes, three brothers and three sisters, Charles E. Berard, Mand, Joseph, Kittie L., and Mary V. Hughes, and Sarah Call. The funeral was held from the house at 8 o'clock Tuesday morning, and from Immaculate Conception Church at 8:30 o'clock.

The funeral of Marie Moynihan was held Monday morning from St. Patrick's Cathedral. Services were conducted by Rev. Father Kiernan, assisted by Fathers DeRegge, Hanna and Hughes, and at the burial services in Holy Sepulchre cemetery several other priests were present. Six young ladies from the Young Ladies' Sodality of the Cathedral acted as honorary bearers and James Hanna, Daniel Byrne, James Shaw, John S. O'Brien and Michael Casey were pall bearers. Miss Moynihan was very popular, and the services were largely attended by sorrowing friends. She was for several years a teacher at No. 22 school, and a suitable memorial has been adopted and sent to her parents by the teachers of that school.

Mrs. Catherine Hughes died at 6:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at her home, 213 South Fitzhugh Street, aged 58 years. Pathetic as death always is, the circumstances connected with the death of Mrs. Hughes were especially sad. On Sunday last her son, Peter F. Hughes, a young man of 26 years, died. Mrs. Hughes was greatly attached to her son and the shock of his death proved too much for her to bear. For a long time she had been in ill health, but she rapidly grew worse after his death and survived him but a few days. The funeral of both mother and son was held Thursday morning, at 8:30 o'clock from the house and at the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 9 o'clock. Besides her husband, Mrs. Hughes leaves three sons, Charles, Bernard M. and Joseph Hughes, and three daughters, Kittie L., Mary and Eddie C. Hughes.

A Wee Speck

Of money will do a wee speck of buying if you buy in the right place to do it. And if you bought here, if not right, it can be turned into cash again.

Irish Lawns.

So thin that you wonder how the dainty stuff support the prettiest flowers that seem to grow upon them. Isn't this the sort of fabric you're looking for? Irish Lawns is at once the coolest, dreshest and cheapest of hot weather dress materials. We have a splendid variety, 40 inches wide, 90 per yard.

Six Striped Challis.

Never in the past did you, never in the future will you know an opportunity like this. You know that at most stores the price even for last year's stuff is from 80c to $1.00. You know that this is a Challis season. You know that Silk Striped Challis are favored by the best dressers. Have none of last season's Challis. We have a nice lot of this season's late ones. They are made to sell for 50c but we'll let the pretty patterns go for 25c per yard—a price that you never dreamed of knowing.

Ladies' Knit Vests.

For warm July weather our thin vests are the best of comfort givers. Here are two special lots for the rest of the week: 3 cases Vests, 50 each. 2 cases plain White Vests, four for 25c.

Brocade Satens.

Most every store offers a bargain once in a while, but few stores offer real bargains every day in every department.

Every lot of material that we suggest before you buy them, realized once you begin wearing these cool and pretty Jacquets and Dimities. You have paid 25c per yard for them but now we have only a trifle more than a dollar that sum. And the light, airy stuffs are just as nice as those that you'd pay the other stores at other places. We've got them 10c per yard.

Jacquets and Dimities.

Dresden Ribbons.

Three widths, 1/2, 3/4 and 1 inch, the first Ribbon Ribbon in Rochester. The 1/2 inch is better value than any other ribbon obtainable elsewhere in New York. Now, by the lot of the breaking ribbon, you can get more than you ever dreamed of.
