Auburn.

For the second time in the history of St. Alphonsus' parochial school the school work of the pupils during the year, their written reviews, their examinations, drawing and writing books have been placed before the parents, friends and public for inspection, during Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the past week. The school has made an excellent showing and the work accomplished during the year has been more than satisfactory to both teachers and pupils. During the three days that the school was open for that purpose it was most gratifying to the teachers and pupils to see the large numbers who inspected the work, showing by their presence their interest in the school. The books all showed careful work and excellent training, on the part of the teachers of the school. The work was all exceptionally neat and was carefully inspected by a number of the teachers of the public schools who paid high compliments to the teachers and the children for their excellent work. The school was started eight years ago. Since that time Sister Irene has been at its head as principal and has worked faithfully and untiringly to place it in its present excellent condition. The school is conducted on the same plan as the public schools and the pupils in the several grades were subjected to the same examinations as the pupils of the public schools, the Board of Education kindly permitting the sisters to use the same paper for their classes as the test for promotions in the several grades of the public schools.

Supplementing the regular secular studies is the religious instruction which forms an important part. The moral and religious standard of the school is up to any in the diocese. The school at present numbers 300 pupils and is well graded, a large class passing the final entrance examination to the High school.

Rev. Joseph Netzel, pastor of the church, has labored faithfully for the interest of the school and has spared no time or expense to make the school rooms pleasant and accommodating for the pupils.

The Junior Circle of the Music class at St. Mary's Convent, gave their closing recital Wednesday evening. The parents of the artists debutants, together with some interested friends evinced great satisfaction upon the success of the little ones.

The program included selections from favorite writers of Rindler music notably Reinecke, Theo. Rullak, Schumann, Lichner, Streattog and Franz Behr.

The young performers seemed to fully grasp the spirit of numbers bearing the inspiring titles of: Cock Robin and Game Sparrow at a Polka; Bye-bye, Baby; Brothers Frog and Hop-toast on a Galop; A Short Story; Mr. Lark and Miss Nightingale in a slow Waltz; The Secret; A Surprise for Mamma; Play Hour; Under the Wings of my Guardian Angel.

The participants in first part of program were: Mollie O'Leary, Nellie Long, Emily Gilbert, Mary Feehan.

Selections of a more difficult grade were creditably rendered by Mary Keeler, Mary Cheney, Nellie Sullivan, Lulu Grady and Kittie Ryan.

At the close of the program, Rev. Father Mulhern addressed the little folks, in a most happy vein, his remarks afforded high encouragement to the young players of the evening. The Senior Circle of the Music Class are to give a "Summer-evening Musical" on the 19th inst.

Manchester has no fire department nor apparatus for fighting the flames so that all that could be done was to arouse the occupants of the building and bid them flee for their lives. There was no time to save any belongings and the guests of the hotel escaped with only their night clothes. The hotel was owned by Mrs. Abbie Aldrich with D. D. Herendine as proprietor. The barber shop, billiard room and household goods of Charles Hedge were burned, as well as the barber shop of Joseph Greenway, bakery of William Hawker, A. L. Knapp, grocery, Pratt Bros., grocery, Post office and Frederick Green, market. The flames died out about 9:30 o'clock because there was nothing left to burn. ## CATHOLIC SOCIETIES.

C. M. B. A.

CALENDAR FOR NEXT WEEK.
Monday—Branches 93, 131, 734.

The pleasures and benefits that may be derived from membership in the C. M. B. A. may well be illustrated by the following incident. A member of Branch 139 was standing in front of St. Mary's Church one Sunday when three young men, clad in uniforms stepped up to him and asked when the next mass would be celebrated. After receiving the required information, one of three said to his companions, "Charlie, this gentleman is a C. M. B. A. man, too." Courtesies were exchanged and it developed that the three strangers were members of Branch 15, of Toronto and had crossed the lake on the steamer Alexandria with the intention of wheeling through the northern part of New York state. Two of them were brother named Gormly, the third was named Shaw. A pleasant chat followed resulting in the quartette becoming fast friends and the Rochester member of the C. M. B. A. was cordially invited if he ever visited Toronto to accept the hospitality of the Canadians.

Resolutions, C. M. B. A.

At a session of Branch 91, C. M. B. A., held July 1st, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to remove from our midst one of our honored brothers in the person of Thomas McDonald, bowing in meek submission to the heavenly decree, we deeply mourn the loss we suffer in the death of our beloved brother.

Resolved, That we tender to his sorrowing family and friends our heartfelt sympathy and condolence in this their hour of bereavement, and commend them to Him alone who can heal the wounded heart and give true consolation in the hour of affliction.

Resolved, That the charter of this Branch be draped in mourning for the period of thirty days in honor of our deceased brother.

Resolved, That these resolutions be recorded in the journal of this Branch, also a copy be transmitted to the family of the deceased, and to the Fairport "Herald" and to the Rochester CATHOLIC JOURNAL for publication.

27TH ANNIVERSARY

OF RT. REV. BISHOP McQUAID

A Short Sketch of What His Holiness has accomplished in the Diocese.

July 12, 1869, was celebrated by Rt. Rev. B. J. McQuaid as his jubilee, he having been ordained Bishop just twenty-five years previous to that time. A large number of priests from out of town attended the special services of the day, and the event was one of note. On the day of this week a similar celebration was held at St. Patrick's Cathedral, when pontifical mass was celebrated at 10:30 A. M. by the Bishop, assisted by Rev. J. P. Kleiman and Rev. A. A. Hughes. Very Rev. Mgr. H. De Mege was master of ceremonies.

The Church was decorated with American and Papal colors, and the altar, throne and pulpit were beautifully decorated with cut flowers, potted plants, palms and ferns.

There was a large congregation present. Orphan from St. John and St. Patrick's Asylums occupied the side galleries. Priests from the city and many from the surrounding parishes and St. Anthony's were also in attendance.

The choir of the Cathedral, the choir of St. Patrick's, and the choir of St. John's were also in attendance.

In connection with the anniversary, it is interesting to look backward over the past 27 years, and we are glad to see that the work of the diocese has been so successful. The number of the diocese in 1869, was 1,000, and now it is 10,000.

St. John's church, which was founded in 1848, by Archbishop McQuaid, is now a large and beautiful church.

St. Patrick's church, which was founded in 1854, by Archbishop McQuaid, is now a large and beautiful church.
