

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

A Reverend and Refreshing Sleep After Hard Study.

Elwood, Ind., March 6, 1891. I used Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic for nervous and restless nights after hard study. It gave me refreshing sleep and great relief. I also ordered it for another person who suffered from nervousness and it did him much good.

REV. B. BIEGLER, DUBLIN, Ohio, Feb. 1891. A young man 28 years old who is subject to a crash of blood to the head, especially at the time of the full moon, and he at such times raves and is out of his mind. Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic helps him every time, so says...

REV. WM. SCHOLL, Lowell, Ohio, July, 1890. I had epileptic fits for about four years, two every week, when Rev. J. Kampmeyer recommended Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic, since using it he has had none. It is the best epileptic medicine I have ever used and I have used many.

ADAM CRAMER, A Valuable Remedy on Nervous Diseases and a sample bottle to any of our friends. It is the best epileptic medicine I have ever used and I have used many.

FREE. KOENIG MED. CO., 49 S. Franklin Street, Rochester, N. Y.

Sold by Druggists at 25 per bottle. 5 for $5. Large size, $1.75. For Sale at 126 North Clinton St. Rochester, N. Y.

Spencerport. Miss Mary Brennan is home on her vacation.

Miss Whalen of California, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Brennan of Adams Basin.

M. J. Leonard intends to remove his residence to Union street in the near future. Phelps.

Miss Catherine O'Neil, of Nazareth Academy is the guest of her uncle, Rev. A. M. O'Neil.

Mrs. Margaret Brophy, of Shortsville, is spending a few days with her son John and family.

Miss Maggie Lynch, of Brooklyn, is the guest of her brother, Joseph Lynch.

Miss Mary McAniff and Miss Anna Connors, of Auburn, are spending their vacation with relatives in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bolger and family have the sympathy of all in the death of their son Joseph, who was buried in Lyons last week.

Frank J. Ryan is expected home from Boston this week.

Montezuma. The ice cream festival held by the ladies for the benefit of St. Michael's Catholic Church, was a success financially.

Edward Davis and family of Auburn, are visiting Mrs. Q. A. Jones.

The farmers in this vicinity have commenced gathering their hay crop, and report a good yield.

Wheaton B. Jones, of Syracuse, is the guest of his brother, J. A. Jones.

Mrs. James J. McLoud and Senator Dow, of Syracuse, are spending a few weeks at their summer home here.

Mrs. James W. Clarke and family, of New York, will spend the summer season at their home in this place.

Mrs. Jane Ross accompanied her son Edward to his home in Lansing, Michigan, where she intends to make her future home.

Canandaigua. Miss Helen Meath, of Ovid, is visiting her home here.

Miss Maggie Baun is visiting friends in Cheshire.

Among the people here to spend the Fourth of July were: Misses Minnie O'Brien and Katharine Ford Rochester; Misses Dolan, Penn Yan, Frank Carr, Geneva; Miss Buckley, Geneva, and Miss Driscoll, Victor.

John Downs, of Batavia, is spending a few days with his parents here.

Miss Nellie Mitchell, of Rochester, is the guest of Miss Mary Judge, on Saltonstall street.

J. Mary and family are outing at Idlewild cottage, with Mrs. Lynch and daughter, of Rochester, Miss Alice Dillon and John Grieve, of Canandaigua, as guests.

Thomas Moore and family, of Chester, are visiting relatives in town.

Scipio. The festival for the benefit of the Catholic Church at Kings Ferry was a great success, over ninety tickets being sold.

A number of young people attended the lawn festival and dance at Auburn, July 4th.

The Black street school closed Friday, after a very successful term.

Assistant Postmaster John McManus will spend his vacation at Wedsport.

Some one stole the wheels of James Whalon's buggy last Sunday night. If they are caught they will be severely dealt with. Mr. Whalen offers ten dollars reward for the return of the wheels.

Joseph Dillon, of Venice, was the guest of John Farley Sunday.

Mary McDowell, of Auburn, is spending her vacation with her parents.

improving. Misses Mary and Rose Conroy spent Sunday with friends in Port Byron.

Miss Mattie Lanier, of Syracuse, is home on her vacation.

Miss Lizzie Ryan spent Sunday in Clyde. Geneva.

The remains of Mrs. Catherine Bradley, who died in Hornellville at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel Scott, were brought to Geneva Monday, to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Mensch, on High street. Mrs. Bradley was 73 years of age. The funeral took place from St. Francis de Sales Church at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning.

The funeral of Michael J. Kane was held from St. Francis de Sales Church at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning. The deceased was 34 years of age, upright and industrious, and leaves many friends to mourn his untimely death.

Redmond Devaney and wife, of Cleveland, Ohio, are spending a few weeks at Geneva visiting relatives and friends.

Jeakelis' Pony Circus opened at the fair ground Tuesday morning for the balance of the week.

Work was commenced Tuesday morning preparatory to straightening of the bed and arching over of Castle Creek on North Main street. Wm. Dove was awarded the contract.

Grecco. Branch 155 C. M. B. A. met last Tuesday evening July 9th, in the hall.

Joe Paille the well known horse shoer, and blacksmith, is doing a rushing business here. Mr. Paille has been in business here only a few years, but his honest labor and fair dealings, has put him far ahead of his brother workmen. We wish him success.

C. W. Voshall has a creamery on the big Elm stock farm now. Clifton Springs.

Belle Robinson, of Bradford, Pa. is visiting her aunt, Mrs. R. Morphy. Mrs. Mary McDuff, of Philadelphia, Pa. is making her daughter, Mrs. Joseph McAniff, a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. McLoughlin are outing at Conesus Lake.

At the last meeting of the Literary and Temperance Society, it was decided to adjourn until September.

Harry O'Neil is enjoying his vacation at Spencerport.

Willie and Jennie McGinnis are in Lockport.

John Mary is laying a new cement walk for Mrs. Pierce on Kendall street.

Leslie J. Madden lies dangerously ill at his home in this village, from a rupture of a vein in the head, while at Addison about ten days ago.

John Gilbert returned to New York Sunday. His wife and child will remain for the summer with her mother, Mrs. Gilbert.

The death of young Kless, who committed suicide July 4th by taking poison, ought to be an object lesson to our young men, on the evils of intoxication, as in all probability such a rash act would never have been thought of had he not been indulging in strong drink.

Geneseo. A branch of the Ancient Order of Hibernians is to be organized here soon.

Nellie O'Connor left on Monday to visit her sister Mrs. H. Ganley, of Farming.

John O'Leary and Phillip Kerwin of Buffalo, spent Sunday last with their parents here.

Josie Knight of Avon, was the guest of Winnie Curran here this week.

Hattie Gibbons is spending a ten week's vacation with her parents in Fowlerville.

Ella Fitzgerald of Rochester, is home on a visit.

One of the closest games of base ball played in this village this season, was the one played here on Wednesday, between the Cornings and Geneseos. Score 9 to 8 in favor of the Geneseos. This makes the sixth game they have played and lost none.

Bullet Marks in a Church Door. An interesting discovery has been made at the Church of St. Mary, with St. Andrew, Tenham, in Kent. The western door recently underwent renovation, and the removal of all superficial covering disclosed that the portal was of fine massive oak, which, on examination, was found to be scarred in several places with bullet marks. There are eight distinct punctures, in some of which the leaden bullets still remain imbedded. It is supposed that they were fired into the door by some of Cromwell's soldiers when engaged in the spoliation and desecration of the Kentish churches.—London Letter.

The Change. Banks—I thought she needed sympathy, and so I married her.

Banks—And—Banks—And we have now changed places.—Detroit Free Press.

ST. PHILIP HONORED.

The Italians Celebrate the Third Centenary of His Feast with Fitting Ceremony.

A Brief From the Holy Father.

ROME, ITALY.

The Feast of the Third Centenary of St. Philip Neri was celebrated in Rome in an elaborate manner. It was ushered in on Saturday at mid-day by the numberless steeples of Rome, and for several days the Feast was the center of universal attention. On Saturday evening after the first Vespers of the Feast, the streets of Rome were ablaze with countless myriads of part-colored lanterns and filled till a late hour with unending crowds of eager admirers. On Sunday morning even at an unusually early hour it was almost impossible to force a way into the Chiesa Nuova, the sumptuous temple in which repose the ashes of the good Zi Pippo, whose memory after three hundred years is as dear to the Romans as if he had but yesterday departed from them. Many Cardinals said Mass at the shrine of the Saint, and the other altars of the Church were continually occupied by Bishops, Prelates, and priests. His Eminence, Cardinal Rampolla distributed a General Communion to a most numerous representation of all the parishes of Rome. At 10 a. m. his Eminence Cardinal Parocchi sang High Mass. The Sixtine Choir under the direction of the Maestro Mustafà rendered the Mass of Pope Marcellus. The church was crowded to excess, and the heat of the numberless chandeliers was all but unbearable. Mgr. Sardi, Bishop of Anagni, one of Italy's best orators, preached the panegyric of the Saint. Mgr. Berlucca sang the Vespers, assisted by the Propaganda College. On this occasion was used for the first time a splendid organ erected in the church for the Feast. The crowds were greater than in the morning, so that in the Corso Vittorio for some hundreds of metres on either side of the church it was literally impossible to move. A dinner was given on the same day to 200 poor persons. It was served by representatives of the best families of Rome. In the evening the facade of the church was brilliantly illuminated. The rest of Rome followed the example, and you would have found it difficult to discover a street, small or great, which was not adorned with festive lanterns. The Government edifices were the only exceptions.

On Monday at an early hour Mgr. de Neckere said Mass and distributed a General Communion to the Colleges, Institutes, and Schools of young ladies in Rome. At 10 a. m. Mgr. Lazzareschi sang Mass, assisted by the Capitolo Liberiano, and the Seminary of San Sulpice. The music was directed by the Maestro Moriconi. In the afternoon the panegyric was preached by Padre Teobaldo da Pratovecchio of the Capuchins. Mgr. Grossi sang Vespers, assisted by the Bohemian College.

On Tuesday his Eminence Cardinal Serafino Vanutelli said the early Mass and gave Holy Communion to the children of the foreign schools of Rome, and to those of the schools of the provinces. Solemn High Mass was sung by his Eminence Cardinal Bianchi, assisted by the Vatican Chapter, and the German College, with music by Meluzzi. The panegyric was preached in the afternoon by Mgr. Bartolini, and Mgr. Sirolli gave the Vespers, assisted by the Belgian College. A religious concert was held the same evening at the Palazzo Sini baldi, the seat of the Circolo dell'Immacolato, at which a most distinguished audience was present.

On Wednesday great crowds were present at the High Mass in Greek Rite, sung by Don Arsenio Pelligrini, assisted by the Basilian Monks of Grotta-ferrata. The sanctuary was fitted up according to the Greek Rite with sacred furniture brought from the above Greek Monastery. An explanation of all the parts of the ceremony had been printed, and was distributed by the Fathers of the Oratory. The prayers of the congregation were offered for the union of the two Churches. The panegyric was preached by P. Luddie, O. P. Solemn Vespers were given by Mgr. Quaroni, Bishop of Cuma, assisted by the Dominicans, with music by Capocci.

On Thursday his Eminence Cardinal Aloisi Masella gave a General Communion to the representatives of the Ecclesiastical Colleges, Seminaries, and Institutes in Rome. High Mass was sung by Mgr. Guidi, Archbishop of Nice, assisted by the Chapter of S. Lorenzo in Damaso. The music was directed by Capocci. The panegyric was by Padre Semeria of the Barnabites. The Vespers were sung by Mgr. Ceppetelli, Bishop of Tagerias, assisted by the Lombard College.

On Friday Cardinal Macchi said the early Mass and gave a General Communion to the various societies and circles for young women. Pontifical High Mass was sung by Mgr. Stonor, Archbishop of Trebizond, assisted by the English and Scots' Colleges. The panegyric was preached by Padoa Galleran, S. J. The Vespers were given by Mgr. Cassetta, Archbishop of Nicomedia, assisted by the French Seminary.

On Saturday Cardinal Di Pietro said Mass and gave a General Communion to the Institutes, circles, and unions of young men. Mgr. Costantini, Archbishop of Patrasco, pontificated, assisted by the College of St. Auselin. The panegyric was by Mgr. V. Sardi, Canoniers Segreto of His Holiness. Cardinal Vincenzo Vannutelli gave the Vespers, assisted by the South American College. During the week the Church was crowded even as upon the first day of the Feast.

On occasion of the Tercentenary Feasts of the Apostle of Rome the Holy Father has addressed a Brief to the Very Rev. Giovanni Scaramucci, the Superior of the Congregation of the Oratory. In it he speaks with pleasure of the Feast being kept in Rome in honor of the Saint who, though known to all the world was in a special way devoted to Rome, for which, under a Divine call he left house and friends and gave up his desire to evangelize the Indies. Time bears testimony to his work, to which he was devoted even till his last days upon earth. In his day customs were depraved, and error was fast spreading abroad in Europe. If Rome was not visited by the pestilence, if she saw the return of good customs and the revival of faith and the all but forgotten practices of piety, she was greatly indebted to the words and example of Philip. Hence the deep impression that he has left upon the Eternal City, whose walls seem to talk of Philip. This is the sign of a great mind, that when it has exchanged earth for Heaven it leaves its memory behind in men's hearts, in its institutions, in its disciples. Naturally, therefore, he finds joy in the sight of the Feasts made in honor of Philip. Nothing could be better than that the present generation should recall to mind the works of that most innocent priest who was so beneficial to the generation that have gone before it. The true way to venerate a Saint is to endeavor in some measure to imitate his virtues. Then, addressing the Father of the Oratory, he tells them that the present Feast is for them, as it were, a family Feast. He exhorts them to make the memory of Philip live in their lives by copying his life and virtues. The present day shows them how necessary this is, since our age is like the age in which Philip lived. It is an age hostile to virtue, an age of depraved manners. Hence they must follow the example of Philip, especially his charity, which regenerated not only Rome, but the whole earth. Nothing would please him more than to be able, like his predecessors, to visit the Shrine of St. Philip; since, however, the present state of things does not allow this, he at least wishes to give a proof of his devotion, and for that end he sends some sacred furniture. May St. Philip look down with love from on high and intercede both for Rome and the whole world. He then imparts his Blessing to the Fathers of the Oratory.

PATRICK RYAN.

Because a minor pugilist said incautiously that Corbett could not knock his head off, this assertion being in response to Corbett's intimation that he could successfully execute that severe and necessarily unpleasant climax of the manly art, the champion demands an apology. The settlement of the question is not of vast importance, but it calls attention to the delicate code of ethics governing the ring. No wonder that so little fighting is permitted to occur near it.

La Gascogne is evidently hard on piston-rods. Some ships always break the rudder, some always get the screw in trouble, some break the shaft; but the Gascogne's specialty is piston-rods. Now then, it would be well for the company to have her overhauled, so as to determine whether the piston-rods are wrong, or whether the driving force is in such a condition that no piston-rod can last. Two good warnings are as many as one can expect.

To Subscribers. BOTH OLD AND NEW.

The most liberal proposition ever made to the readers of THE CATHOLIC JOURNAL.

Read It and Take Advantage Of It.

In order to extend the circulation and influence of THE JOURNAL, the publishers are now prepared to make an offer that ought to accomplish their object, and that is to present to every subscriber (new or old, sending in his or her name, and at the same time remitting One Dollar for one year's subscription, in advance, any of the following

Imported Oleographs, 12x16.

They are gems of art. Beautifully colored in harmonizing shades, and undoubtedly the finest line of artistically colored pictures on the market; they must be seen to be appreciated. The assortment is varied and comprises 256 different popular subjects, to which new subjects will be added.

- 1. Holy Trinity 127. St. Joachim
2. Coronation of Mary 128. Holy Family (walking)
3. Our Lady, protectress of the distressed 129. St. Emanuel
4. Our Lady of Peace 130. A pilgrimage at Lourdes
5. Christ blessing bread and wine 131. Jesus on the Mt. of Olives
6. Infant Jesus (full figure) 132. Madonna of the rosary
7. Infant Jesus (with figure) 133. The seven holy sacraments
8. The seven works of charity 134. His Flood saves us.
9. The Crucifixion 135. Judgment day
10. The Resurrection 136. Paradise
11. The Ascension 137. Our Lady protectress of the atoned ones
12. Our Lady of perpetual help 138. The last moments of Christ
13. St. Joseph 139. St. Mary, light of heaven
14. Holy Family (at home) 140. St. Barbara
15. St. Francis 141. St. John of Nepomuck
16. St. Theresa 142. St. Margaret
17. St. Nicholas 143. St. Vincent of Paul
18. St. Crispin and Crispianus 144. St. Augustin
19. Pope Leo XIII 145. St. Lawrence
20. Madonna della Seta 146. Queen of the Saints
21. Madonna of the rosary 147. St. Isidor
22. Madonna of the scapular 148. St. Patrick
23. Immaculate Conception 149. St. Magdalen
24. St. Elizabeth 150. Madonna of the rosary
25. In memory of our beloved child (with English or German poetry) 151. St. Charles Borromeus
26. The Passion of Christ 152. Child Jesus of Atocha
27. St. Anne 153. In memory of our departed mother (with English or German poetry)
28. St. Anthony of Padua 154. Way of the cross
29. St. Francis Xavier 155. Mary's Joy
30. St. Albius 156. Mary's grief
31. St. Sebastian 157. St. Hyacinth
32. St. Catherine 158. The Vision of St. Anthony
33. Madonna Sixtina 159. Mystical Rose
34. Assumption of Mary 160. St. Hieronymus
35. St. George 161. St. Cajetan
36. St. Ignatius of Loyola 162. St. Philomena
37. Our Lady of Lourdes 163. St. Cyprian
38. Baptism of Christ 164. Our Lady of Solitude
39. Descent from the cross 165. St. Benedict
40. Sacred tomb of Jesus 166. St. Agnes
41. Sacred tomb of Mary 167. St. Anne
42. Madonna of Mt. Carmel 168. St. Bernard
43. St. Rosale 169. The seven joys of the B. V. M.
44. St. Francis of Assisi 170. The seven griefs of the B. V. M.
45. St. Louis of Spain 171. Rosario
46. St. Peter 172. Charitas
47. St. Paul 173. The sacred hearts of Jesus and Mary (with designs)
48. Christ before Pilate 174. St. Theresa
49. Our Lady of the Sacred Heart 175. St. Cecilia
50. St. Joseph of the Sacred Heart 176. Guardian Angel (with sleeping child)
51. St. Roch 177. Queen of the Roses
52. Christ on the cross 178. Holy Virgin of the Angels
53. The Good Shepherd 179. Maria Zell
54. St. Michael 180. The Vision of St. Francis Assisi
55. St. Lucy 181. Holy Family (bust)
56. Guardian Angel (carrying a soul to heaven) 182. Adoration of the Shepherds
57. Annunciation 183. Adoration of the Magi
58. Holy night 184. Flight to Egypt
59. Holy face of Jesus 185. Christ entering Jerusalem
60. St. Michael 186. Jesus healing the sick
61. Christ on the cross 187. Jesus blessing children
62. St. Martin 188. S. Heart of Jesus
63. St. Raimund 189. S. Heart of Mary
64. Angels adoring the holy sacrament 190. Our Lady of Lourdes
65. Our Lady of Gandelupe 191. In memory of our departed father (with English or German poetry)
66. Christ bearing the cross (surrounded by the 12 mysteries) 192. Holy Trinity
67. Our Lady of good counsel 193. Coronation of Mary
68. St. Rita of Casia 194. The cross of the Apostles
69. St. Nicholas of Bari 195. Cross of the Evangelists
70. Blessed Margaretta of Alcoque 196. The holy alliance against Sin.
71. St. Raphael 197. Ecce Homo
72. The seven holy words of Jesus 198. Mater Dolorosa
73. St. Anthony the hermit 199. Holy Family
74. St. Florian 200. St. Louis, King of France
75. St. Wenceslaus 201. St. Alphons de Liguori
76. The life of Jesus 202. Holy Family
77. The life of Mary 203. Goetlicher Hausgegen (German
78. Infant Jesus (with cross and globe) 204. Hanesliche Tugenden (Mottoes
79. Infant St. John (with lamb) 205. Madonna di Canetti di Satefrati
80. Madonna of Caravaggio 206. St. Thomas of Aquinas
81. St. Genevieve 207. St. Veronica
82. Mater Salutis 208. The 14 Helpers in Need (with the name of each one)
83. Pope Leo XIII 209. St. Bartholomew
84. Death of St. Joseph 210. St. Clara
85. Death of the Just 211.
86. Death of the Sinner 212.
87. Our Lady of Mt. Carmel 213.
88. St. Pascal 214.
89. Our Lady of Mercy 215.
90. Beneath the Cross 216.
91. St. Vincent Ferrer 217.
92. St. Rosa of Lima 218.
93. St. Cosmas and Damian 219.
94. S. Heart of Jesus 220.
95. S. Heart of Mary 221.
96. All the Popes (from St. Peter to Leo XIII) 222.
97. St. Anthony of Padua 223.
98. St. Francis of Assisi 224.
99. St. Joseph 225.
100. St. Anne 226.
101. St. Francis of Paula 227.
102. St. Anthony the Hermit 228.
103. St. Lucy 229.

Each one of the following pictures is surrounded by smaller pictures, illustrating scenes from the life of each particular Saint:
95. St. Anthony of Padua
102. St. Francis of Assisi
109. St. Joseph
110. St. Anne
113. St. Francis of Paula
137. St. Anthony the Hermit
138. St. Lucy

The Catholic Journal Publishing Co., 327 East Main St., ROCHESTER, N. Y.