

CITY PARISH NEWS.

What is Going on in the Various Parishes.

Grand Carnival in St. Mary's Parochial School.

The grand carnival in St. Mary's parochial school will open on Monday evening July 29 and close Monday Aug. 5. This promises to be one of the most famous and successful entertainments ever held in this city. The arrangements are complete for erecting and decorating the booths and lighting and cooling the hall by electricity.

The following are the committees to sell and receive admission tickets at the door, James Gallagher, Nicholas McNally, James Kennedy, Thomas O'Neil. Treasurers of the Carnival, Thomas Laughney, John Courneen, P. Cooper and Wm. Bruton. These gentlemen will take up all moneys received every evening and keep an exact account of them.

The following gentlemen will form an executive committee to be ready to render their services in the hall at anytime.

Messrs. B. Dunn, J. McNulty, Thos. McCormack, John West, M. Higgins, O. Sullivan, M. D. Sheehan, J. Clancy, T. Hickey, T. B. Dempsey, J. B. Doyle, T. B. McInerney, J. Toomy, W. G. Reid, M. Davis, Thos. Smyth, C. Rehberg, W. and J. Carey, M. J. Rickard, F. M. Talling, W. Chandler, F. R. Chas. Chisum, John Loughery, and George Connelly.

Press committee, James Connelly, John Rogan, and W. Mackie.

The Carnival will open every evening at 8 p. m. with a brief musical program, by St. Mary's choir assisted by the Keyes sisters from New York, and other splendid talent.

Kavanaugh's orchestra will be in attendance for those who wish to enjoy dancing. Messrs. Egan, Kennedy, and Lawlor, will be in charge of this part of the entertainment. Voting will commence every evening at 9:30 and be continued to suit the circumstances attending the various contests. The following are the most famous: A gold watch between detective J. P. McDonald and fireman Edward Colbert, captain of No. 1 Stone street. This will be a memorable event. They are the two most popular men in their respective departments. A bicycle, donated by Sibley, Lindsay & Currier, between Daniel Hibbard of that firm and Cornelius O'Brien of Gorton & McCabe, also a diamond ring donated by Smyth Bros., Jewelers, corner Main and Front streets, between Miss Rehberg of Cayuga Place and Miss Connelly of Lawrence st. D. C. Sullivan of 174 E. Main st., donated a suit of clothes to be voted for between T. B. Mooney of West Main st. funeral director and Joseph Toomy of 8 Amity street. For a doll, Misses Hogan and Hamon, for a boy's bicycle, Raymond Shield, Frank Keleher, and Joseph Gahn, for a doll, Misses Kennedy and Paisley. The ladies will be costumed in colors in keeping with the idea represented by the booths. Refreshments will be served at low prices, and everything done to make the Carnival enjoyable.

Next Sunday July 31 at 4 p. m. a special meeting of all the tables will be held in the hall. The ladies and gentlemen interested are requested to be present to make final arrangements for the opening on Monday evening July 29.

Voting on the gold watch will commence every evening at 9:30 and if circumstances suit both candidate will finally close at 10:30 on Saturday evening Aug. 3rd. Voting on the other articles will finally close Monday evening Aug. 5.

SS. PETER AND PAUL'S.

The funeral of Nellie Sealey who was struck by a passenger train at Saxton st. crossing on Wednesday evening took place from this Church last Sunday morning Miss Sealey was highly respected by all who were acquainted with her.

Our worthy pastor and Frank Pohl have returned from Detroit they also report visiting Rev. Fr. Ege at Wright, Mich., where they were highly entertained.

On account of the large number of pupils who will attend our school in Sept. it has become necessary to remodel the school in order to have more class rooms the hall will be on the ground floor.

FREE COFFEE AND CAKES.

Custom Now in Vogue on First Nights in London Playhouses.

"By the way," said a gentleman who arrived here from England a few days ago, "have you heard of the London theatrical managers' latest scheme to attract a crowd on first nights? Well, it's rather odd, and I wouldn't be surprised if the New Yorkers copied it before long, although the circumstances are somewhat different here.

"You know, the little tea and coffee rooms in London that correspond to the New York coffee and cake saloons are much more numerous than here, and there is sure to be one near every theater.

"It is the custom there for great crowds to come to the pit and gallery entrances of the theaters long before the time of opening the doors. The pit is one of the best parts of the theater for seeing and hearing, and it costs only 60 cents, but there are no reserved seats, so those who come early get the good places.

"It is common, in the case of important first nights, for a long line of people to form at the pit doors before it is opened, and when the play is very successful and popular this may continue for an indefinite number of nights.

"It has now become the custom to admit those who care to pay sixpence extra for the privilege at 5:30. Then they get good seats, but they have to wait a prodigiously long time in their places before the play begins.

"This state of things recently inspired some ingenious manager with another happy thought. He hit on the plan of providing free coffee and cakes, from the nearest tea and coffee rooms, to the crowd waiting in the pit on the first night of his new play. It proved such a good arrangement that the others followed the example."—New York Herald.

Have you tried U. S. Baking Co.'s Biscuit Flakes. They are the daintiest and best cracker on the market. Ask your grocer for them, and be convinced of the fact.

Base Ball.

The Rochesterers have finally obtained sixth place and it is only a question of time when they will advance another notch. The big three are now throwing out lines for another pitcher of ability to take the place of Duryea who had the misfortune to receive a ball in the eye Monday.

Wilkesbarre plays here Monday, Providence, Wednesday and Thursday, Springfield, Friday and Saturday.

THE HONEST FINNS.

Life and Property Are Both Thoroughly Secure Among These People.

Life and property are thoroughly secure in Finland. Trunks and parcels are left for hours in the street, to be found when wanted by their rightful owners. In the country districts the houses are never barred and bolted, even in the absence of their owners. Then, again, it is no uncommon thing for a blooming girl of 17 or a young married woman to drive alone in her car a distance of 50 or 60 miles through dense forests and by the shores of gloomy lakes, conveying the family's butter, cheese and eggs to market in town, and then to return home alone with the proceeds. In trade the Finns are not only scrupulously honest, they are heroically, quixotically so.

A tradesman will tell you the whole truth about his wares, even when he knows perfectly well that by so doing he loses a customer whom the partial truth would have secured. "This seems exactly the kind of apparatus I am looking for," I said to a merchant in Helsingfors some months ago in reference to an article that cost $75. "And I will buy it at once if, knowing what I want it for, you can honestly recommend me to take it." "No, sir; I do not recommend you to take it, nor have I anything in stock just now that would suit you." And I left the shop and purchased what I wanted elsewhere.

"Here's your fare," I said to a peasant in the interior who had driven me for three hours through the woods on his drook, handing him $1. "No, sir; that's double my fare," he replied, returning one-half the money. And when I told him he might keep it for his honesty he slightly nodded his thanks, with the dignity of one of nature's gentlemen.—Scottish American.

Satin Surah, 6c

An opportunity that you never had before—one that you may never know again—awaits your coming to-day. We have 3,000 yards of Satin Surah—full 30 inches wide—light and dark shades, a fine assortment of pretty patterns. These goods sell everywhere for 12½¢ per yard, but on this lot we more than cut the prices in half. While the dainty summery stuffs last you can have your pick at 6¢ per yard. We place them on the bargain table at the main street entrance, that buyers will have every advantage.

Honeycomb Shawls.

For cool evenings in town or out—but more especially the evenings at the lake—this warm wrap is desirable, more, is necessary. Nothing fills the bill so well in every way as one of our neat Honeycomb Shawls. Every thread is wool and the patterns are now and pretty. White, cardinal and black are the colors. A nice Shawl worth $1.25 sells for 76c. Large $1.50 Shawl is worth a dollar more than the price.

Ladies' Neckwear.

Did it ever occur to you that the best place to buy Ladies' Neckwear is at the place where the greatest number of ladies do their buying? You'll find a nice lot of new things at that place to-day.

Sailor collars in linen batiste, 25¢ and 35¢.
