What is Going on in the Various Parishes.

CATHEDRAL

Rev. James P. Kiernan celebrated the 7:30 a. m. mass at the Cathedral last Sunday, and gave a short, but forcible, instruction on the gospel of the day. A large number of communicants received communion. It was especially gratifying that many of the communicants were young men.

If one would test the depth of the faith in a Catholic heart, let him go to the Cathedral any Sunday morning at the 7:30 o'clock mass. The well-filled church at that early hour will convince him that Catholics go to church to worship, not because it is stylish or to show their costly gowns and suits.

HOLY ROSARY.

To-morrow is the first Sunday of the month and there will be two masses, at 7:30 and 9 a. m. Confessions will be heard this evening.

Last Sunday high mass was celebrated and the new society banner was blessed by Rt. Rev. B. J. McQuaid, who made a few remarks regarding the success of the organization. He then bestowed his blessing upon the society.

The society Monday evening marched in full uniform from Holy Redeemer Church escorted by the society of St. Fidelis and St. Louis in uniform, to Germania Hall. A musical programme was presented as follows: Overture, Minges Orchestra; festive chorus, Latitia Mannerchor; flute solo, Julius Zoller; recitation, Joseph Meier; song of praise, Latitia Mannerchor; ode, Frank X. Fisher; violin solo, Joseph Widauer; humorous selection, Latitia Mannerchor.

The following named members of the society acted as committee of arrangements, and to their efforts is due to a large degree the success of the concert: F. X. Fisher, Andrew Kohl, Louis Zinnerlein, Joseph Weier, Joseph Ripstein, Melobios Kestner. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used for society purposes.

ST. MARY'S FAIR.

A Large Attendance Every Evening. The carnival held at St. Mary's Hall to raise money for the payment of the church debt began Monday evening most auspiciously, and large crowds have been in attendance each evening.

The hall was handsomely decorated with evergreen and American flags. From the center of the ceiling was hung an enormous Japanese umbrella, which formed a canopy over the heads of the dancers. Along the right side of the hall were arranged the booths of Father Stewart, Smith and Farron. In one corner of the hall was a prettily decorated booth where tickets for dancing were sold. All had numerous artificially arranged articles calculated to attract the eye of purchasers, and a small corner of Father Farron's booth, partitioned off by a screen, where fortunes were told, was a center of attraction.

The fair will continue until August 5th, when the final result of the voting will be announced.

A New Altar.

A new altar was dedicated in the chapel of the convent of the Sisters of Mercy Wednesday morning. Rev. J. P. Stewart, M.
