The King and Queen and Prince of Naples will return to Rome for the celebrations making the twenty-tifth anniversary of the taking of the city. Apropos of this feast, the Liberals have been repeating what they consider as an immortal ben-mot. Some time izo when a question was raised as to the advisability of irritating the Vationa by bringing the Duke and Duschess of Aceta to Rome after their wedding, the King was reported to have said "Oh, if the Vations is likely to be offended by their cosming now. they candefer coming until September 30th, when we shall be colebratcontinued in Germania Hall, where the colors of Fatherland formed the ing the Breach of Ports Pia."
