FORT FOOTS Kan. Oct. 18 - A sensation was created here when Vice President J. J. Stewart of the State bank of this city posted the following notice at the opening

This hank is alosed subject to the order of the state bank stemmissioner. Depositors will be paid in fall. The full try to open is summed by the defaloation of the conlider. J. J. Bruwaler, Vice President.

A large stown of excited depositors gath. ared around the bank door and discussed the situation. The ossider, J. R. Cole-He had the nimost confidence of all. He had been osshier since the bank was hotel, St. Louis, Saturday night, that he responsible for the ricks. had lost $25,000 in stock and bond speculation. The theft had been systematically practiced for a period of over two years and covered up by manipulation of the bank's books

In a statement launed by the bank the officials say:

"The loss will fall wholly upon the stockholders, as the assets of the bank are amply sufficient to pay all depositors: Is will take some little time to realize on the essets, but the officers of the bank are fully assured of their sufficiency to pay all olalms."

It is now learned that when Colemna left last week he had no hope of covering up his disersoe and had no intention of returning. He had become very nervous and was under a St. Louis specialist's DATE LEAK WOOK.

Friday he wrote President Coone that he had become a wreck. Mr. Coone telegraphed Coleman to remain in St. Louis and went on to meet him. Coleman did so and there Saturday night in the pres ance of his wife and brother-in-law, Mr. McArthur, of Jacksonville, Ille, and President Coope, he made a confess He broke down and oried pitcously.

PARKHURST'S POSITION.

Though Disappointed In the Fusion Tickat Will Give It His Support. NEW YORK, Oct. 18 .- Rev. Dr. Park

hurst has issued a statement of his posttion in the county carapaign. His first expression is of disappointment with the efforts at fusion which have been made. While not oriticising the Committee of Fifty, he thinks the ticket could have been mands stronger had the sub-committee of Mys made a bolder stand.

Dr. Parkhuret asserts that the terms this year is the same as last, viz., the fight against Tammany Hall, and he says: "There is no abstement in either the absentainess or the heartiness with which I am still prepared to carpy on the truit of the striped beast. We shall not be muniespally safe till she is dead."

The reverend gentleman fiels confident of victory if the hosts will concentrate their attention to this one point of attack. He announces his intention to support at least a portion of the ticket, enving:

"Though I repudiate a portion of the fusion platform, and though I shall not megiost to sornich one or more manues on the fusion ticket, yet that fact is no seab-bard into which I shall throughny sword that is already red with the tiger's blood. Masked Robbers Source as Sum of Monay
