

CITY PARISH NEWS

What is Going on in the Various Parishes.

HOLY ROSARY.

A stereopticon lecture on "Rome and the Holy Land" will be given by Rev. A. E. Breen, D. D. at Cathedral Hall, Wednesday evening, Nov. 27, for the benefit of Holy Rosary church.

CORPUS CHRISTI.

The solicitors for the Home of Industry fund are canvassing the parish, and it is hoped that everyone will help to put the Home, the crowning effort of Mother Hieronymo's long career of charity on a sound financial basis.

The people of this parish should show their appreciation of the work of the Home; its being situated at the very doors of their church, they, especially, are aware of the charities of this magnificent institution.

Mrs. Jas. Murray, of Oswego, is visiting Mrs. Thomas Murray, of Alexander street.

At the last meeting The Guards of the Sacred Heart adopted a constitution and elected the following officers:

President—Jos. Dunn.
Vice President—Wm. Hart.
Secretary—H. Kelly.
Treasurer—Thomas Murray.
Librarian—P. Lavin.

The programme for next week is a debate: Question—Resolved that the U. S. should recognize Cuba as a belligerent power.

OUR LADY OF VICTORY.

The missionary Fathers Rev. J. Ostello and Rev. E. Struble of the order of the Redemptorists, Montreal, Canada, will give a mission at this church next week. The mission will be opened at the high mass at 10.30 a. m. and continue for one week.

Solemn Vespers will be sung at 7.30 Sunday evening. The hours for week day services are as follows: Mass and sermon at 8.30 and 8.00 a. m. evening vespers 7.30 p. m.

LOCAL NOTES.

Edward McSweeney has resigned from the Board of Excise commissioners.

A grand concert for the benefit of Mother Hieronymo's Home of Industry will be given at the City Hall, Wednesday evening, Nov. 30th.

Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of Police Officer James Devereaux and Miss Margaret Griffin. The ceremony will be performed at 5 o'clock next Monday afternoon at St. Mary's church.

Edward McCauley, of No. 268 Solo street, a brakeman on the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburgh railroad, met with a serious injury Wednesday afternoon while coupling cars at Gainesville. In some manner the man fell in front of one of the cars, and it passed over his right leg, crushing it badly. He was picked up and brought into the city on one of the passenger trains. An ambulance was sent to the station, and the man was carried to St. Mary's Hospital.

Mrs. John C. Hayden, wife of Assistant Chief of Police Hayden, was driving near her home Wednesday afternoon when she met with a painful accident. She and her little daughter were riding a pony dog cart and were nearing home when the pony suddenly turned into a neighbor's yard.

The turn upset the cart and the occupants were thrown out. The little girl escaped injury but Mrs. Hayden was thrown against the curb and her collar bone was broken. She was taken to her home on Augustine street and medical attendance was summoned. She is reported to be resting comfortably.

The Official Count.

The correct count of the votes cast on election day will not be known for some time. It is known now that the best and cheapest place to buy coal is of L. C. Langie, yards at So. Clinton st. and North ave. Central office, cor. E. Main and East ave.

Tulip Soap Consumers.

Our annual extra picture will be given the first two weeks of November, instead of December, owing to our not being able to wait on so many people at Christmas time. Every lady presenting fifty or more Tulip Soap wrappers at No. 90 West Main street will receive a fac simile pastel matted with Tortian mat, in addition to the regular premiums. But one to a family.

Furniture Movers.

Furniture moved, packed and stored by Sam Gottry & Co. Orders taken at Erie Office, 13 Exchange street, or house, 8 Thompson street. Telephone 1058 or 648.

All Ladies are Invited.

to call at the Cuiross bakery No. 30 State street, a fine display of baked goods always on hand.

DEATH OF SISTER M. EPHREM.

Death has again entered Nasareth's portals, and claimed one of its inmates, and today we chronicle the decease of one whose life of love and sacrifice mirrored the virtues of a noble soul.

Sister M. Ephrem (Powers) is a well-known name in many family circles, especially in our own city, where she had spent the greater portion of her life in the profession of teaching.

She was born in New York City in 1854, and there received her early education. At the age of 21 she entered the Community of the Sisters of St. Joseph at Nazareth, and for the past twenty years she has been a devoted and edifying religious.

The principal scenes of her labor have been Geneva, Auburn, and Rochester. We love best to associate her with the immaculate Conception school, where she has taught for eight years, and by her cheerful manner, and the motherly interest which she took in the children under her care, won the esteem not only of the little ones, but of all the members of the parish, as has been proved during her protracted illness.

Her parents are still living, and four brothers and two sisters are left to mourn her death.

Four years ago her health began to fail, and despite all efforts to check its advance, consumption's insidious progress became painfully evident.

Being of a strong, courageous character, she battled with indomitable energy against this dire disease, and entertained hopes of recovery even when hope seemed faintest. Her death was singularly calm and peaceful, as becomes the reward of those whose life is spent in loving, unselfish duty.

The friends of the deceased were invited to attend the funeral on Tuesday morning, and those who were present in the chapel will not soon forget the impressive, calm, and serenely which prevailed. The horrors of death seemed lessened by the beauty and peace of the surroundings. Tributes of remembrance in the form of floral gifts adorned the altar, and everything spoke of death as a holier, happier life.

A solemn High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Monsignor H. De Regge, assisted by Rev. James P. Kiernan, deacon, and Rev. John J. Van Ness, sub-deacon. There were also present in the sanctuary Reverends Father O'Hara, Notobart, Gleason, Hannan, Hickey, Payne, Liebert and Hughes.

Her father and brother and sister from New Haven, Connecticut, her sister, Sr. M. Madeline, of Nasareth Convent, and her brother, John H. Powers, of St. Bernard's Seminary, were the chief mourners. She was interred in the Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Rev. Fr. Hartley, Meenan, Brown, and Liebert, and the students of the Seminary sang the Benedictus at the grave.

Deaths and Funerals.

Andrew Short died at the family residence in Henrietta Wednesday noon, aged 84 years. Mr. Short came to this country forty years ago from County Dublin, Ireland, taking up his residence in Henrietta, where he had since resided. He leaves a wife and seven children, two of whom Andrew and William Short reside in this city. The former is well known in Rochester, having been connected with the fire department for the past seven years. He is at present the Foreman of Hose 6 on Culver Park. The other children are John, Margaret, Mary and Lizzie Short and Mrs. Sarah Nolan, of Henrietta.

Removed to a Better Location.

L. A. Wendell, successor to A. V. Smith & Co., has removed his large stock of harness and horse furnishing goods from 185 to 69 State st., ground floor, where he will be pleased to see all his old customers and as many new ones as desire to call. The stock comprises everything in the line of first-class hand made harness, horse boots, blankets, robes, whips; in fact everything for the complete equipment of a first-class stable.

2-2, 3-2 and 4-2.50 Shoes $1.10.

These shoes run from AA to EE. They are vic stock turns and wells. It will surely pay you if you wear this size to see them.

J. W. Maser,
196 East Main st.

While Thinking.

About where you will buy your coal, don't forget Louis Edelman, who deals in the best brands of Pittston and Scranton, soft and smithing coal 40 North Avenue and railroad.

Ladies When Down Town.

stop in the Cuiross bakery, No. 30 State st. and get some of their baked goods. They are delicious.

Remember the Protestant Episcopal Church.

A mild sensation was caused at the Protestant Episcopal Diocesan Convention of New York by the Rev. Frank M. Glendonin, of St. Peter's Church, of Westchester, who offered a resolution calling on Bishop Potter to instruct the delegates to the approaching triennial convention at Minneapolis to urge that the name of the Church be changed to some title more truly descriptive of its character. In his resolution Mr. Glendonin didn't suggest a new name for the Church, but in private he announced that the name he had in mind to take the place of "Protestant Episcopal" was "Holy Catholic Church." Everybody seemed much surprised when the resolution was offered, and immediately there was a burst of conversation all through the church of Holy Trinity, where the convention was held.

Bishop Potter was the only one who didn't seem surprised over the resolution. He immediately ordered it laid over until the afternoon session, and later in the day in a few remarks on the matter said that at the request of Mr. Glendonin the resolution had been withdrawn. This action was taken, he said, because it was the opinion of the majority of the ministers at the convention that it was rather late in the day to bring up such an important subject. Action might have been taken, he said, had the resolution been offered earlier in the convention.

Then Bishop Potter sprang a surprise on the ministers. He spoke for just about half a minute, but in that time he gave the convention thoroughly to understand that he was heartily in favor of the change suggested by Mr. Glendonin, and said openly that he thought the present name of the Church thoroughly inadequate. Later, when approached by a reporter, Bishop Potter declined to talk on the matter, and Mr. Glendonin was equally reticent. None of the ministers would give an opinion on the matter, but all of them said that the question of changing the name of the Church was going to bring about the liveliest kind of a fight at the triennial convention at Minneapolis.

COOK OPERA HOUSE.

On Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday will be presented at the Cook Opera House Dora's greatest comedy success, "Pawnee Ticket 210." This piece was written by David Belasco and Clay M. Green and is probably one of the best of those clever authors' productions. Now-a-days we seldom find a play in which comedy and pathos are so perfectly blended and when presented by so excellent a company as manager McLean brings to us there are few plays which could arouse a larger amount of interest than "Pawnee Ticket 210." The scenic equipment is entirely new the first act showing the interior of an old Pawnee shop.

There is no organization traveling which has received such thorough and extensive endorsement as the romantic play of "Jack Harkaway", which is underlined as the attraction at this house commencing Thursday Nov. 24, and remaining the rest of the week. The story is said to be one of the most absorbing; the situations thrilling and the comedy bright and sparkling. The production will not only prove attractive from being founded on the famous Harkaway stories, but additionally so, dealing, as it does, with the romantic incidents of the Peninsular Wars and the diplomatic incidents between England, France and Spain. The cast embraces the names of ladies and gentlemen of the stage of prominence only.

ACADEMY.

The attraction at this house next week will be Sam. T. Jack's Creole Co., the only organization of its kind in existence direct from Sam. T. Jack's Opera House, Chicago, Ill., and traveling in its $15,000 palace hotel car. The success that has attended this attraction is due not alone to its novelty, but to Mr. Jack's indefatigable efforts to present the representative artists of the race. In character oriental and creole, the entertainment never lacks the merit of freshness, and is lavishly replete with features that insure abundant amusement. Neither pains nor expense has been spared in equipping the company. The tropical scenes are faithfully depicted, while the costumes are rich and accurate. In talent as well as in equipment, the high standard heretofore attained is invariably maintained. There are solo stars of the sunny South whose specialties are bright amusing. In old Southern melodies and in grotesque dances of the South, the company has never been equaled. There is a peculiar adaptability of the native voice to these melodies which even the lovers of classical music will appreciate, while in dances such as are seen on the plantation and leave the native himself is without a peer.

WONDERLAND THEATRE.

The management of this popular house, always on the look out for novelties, come out with a great bill for next week. In fact we may say double bill, composed of Frank Hall's Comedy Company, headed by the inimitable Irish comedian, Mr. Frank Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Tooley, a comedy duo with a great American reputation, and Kae Belle O'Leary the charming and talented soprano. In addition to the comedy company there will be a vaudeville company, which includes some of the brightest specialty stars in the country, headed by a funny pair, Bartlett and May, the loose jointed man and the little girl, and Miss Alice Gilmore, America's representative singer of descriptive and negro songs, and two other artists of ability, the whole forming one of the strongest and best comedy and vaudeville programmes ever shown the public of Rochester. The management has secured a number of specialty artists.

If you want the order to John S. Clayton, 99 West street. You can get a good Lehigh coal cheaper than he will sell it.

How Warner got 64, Majesty.

By getting the votes, of course. You can go to Josiah Newman's, 36 S. St. Paul street, and get splendid, smooth, velvet old whiskey at wholesale or retail prices. He also, wines, and cordials for table or medicinal purposes are pure and cheap. Try a sample and see.

J. W. Maser Making East Main st. Street.

See us first when looking for shoes; we always quote the lowest prices. We have special bargains. J. W. Maser, 196 East Main street.

J. M. Reddington is not in politics but he is in the real business and sells the celebrated Lehigh which you want for your grate as well as your furnace. Clean coal, full weight, call at 92 West Main st., or telephone 390.

WELCOME

Everybody—Come and see a show on Easy Payments.

Over 50 styles to select from, all the latest fashions. Prices guaranteed to be lower than elsewhere. Three times faster than any other method in New York state.

Don't allow your credit to be ruined. Get your credit established here. Have a good credit record. And pay as you go.

The People's Credit Co.
59-61 STATE ST.
ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Save Your Clothing

From the Wear and Tear of Machinery by using the Work Coat BY HAND & M.

Victoria Laundry

21 ELM STREET

Have U

Ever Tried Our Easy

Weekly Payment Plan

$10,000 worth of the finest goods in the city. Latest, the finest goods in the city. White and Segments. Call on us in Rochester.

Pick out anything you want, take it home with you, and pay as you go. In small weekly or monthly payments. We guarantee prices no per cent. lower than any house in Rochester.

Hogan Bros.

Over 235 East Main St.,

Opp. Mason.

F. E. Spooner,

Manufacturing

Optician

225 North St., Rochester, N. Y.

This is an example of how a pair of eyes should be fitted. Eyes Examined Free for Glasses. Special Lenses Ground to Fit the Eye. Complete Satisfaction Guaranteed.

Overcoats

Our enormous stock of Overcoats are now on hand. Very Large Stock, Very Low Prices. Get first choice by calling on us.

The Wheeler & Wilson Co.

Franklin and Jackson

Bricks, Grates & Water Pipes. For all kinds of work.

M. P. PARKER

Women are

To come to our Winter Millinery Opening to see to buy—rather to admire—these fashions. Autumn's fashions in hats, coats, and beauty hats that adorn the new winter are exclusive—some are duplicates of what Parisian creations—all are

Repe Portieres

Innocent reformers give our

Drapery Department a designation that is full in most every home in Rochester. The styles and colors and easy looking goods and have made beautiful are

Large Portieres have been in window and drawing they stately and beauty. The last drapery department open and convenient. For what that the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the

the