

FLOUR CITY CLOTHING COMPANY'S

-- Startling Announcement.

It comes Like a Thunderbolt from a Clear Sky---Their $85,000 Stock of Men's, Youths', Boys' Clothing, Hats, Caps and Furnishings to be sold at 40 per cent. Less than Actual Cost.

Shout the Glad Tidings, Wave High the Banner. Spread the News Both Near and Far---Let the Good People of Western New York be on the Lookout, for there is a Feast in Store for Everyone.

To make room for extensive improvements, the entire stock contained in our building, and occupying three floors, must be disposed of before February 1st. Be it said in all truth and soberity, that there is not a better, brighter or more reliable line of clothing to be found in the State. Every garment has been selected with great care and consideration and placed on the counters with our full endorsement and guarantee---the kind of clothing that has made us a name for "Honorable Dealing and Superior Values." We are not given to exaggerating, but we say candidly to every reader of this announcement, that such a genuine clearing out sale has never been seen before at any time or in any place.

We have never indulged in clap-trap humbuggery to secure patronage, but in straight-forward business principles, allowing our goods to tell the story.

On Saturday Morning at 9 o'clock the Grandest of All Sales Will Begin.

Great piles of clothing filling three floors. Heavy Storm Overcoats, Medium-weight Overcoats, Suits for work, Suits for Business, Suits for Dress. High price and low price goods, all sizes and the best patterns, new styles. Men's overalls, Underwear, Hosiery, Shirts, Collars, Cuffs, Ties, Umbrellas, Hats, Caps, complete outfits for Children, all of the very best and newest ideas, at 40 per cent. less than actual cost. Think of it, was there ever such an opportunity offered before, or will there ever be again? Let every one come---from city, town and village to this great Harvest of Bargains.

PLEASE HAND THIS TO YOUR NEIGHBOR.

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC
A Cheap Life Saver.
I was afflicted with nervousness for twelve years and I trembled all over and could not sleep and had nervous pains in the back and head every day. I tried every medicine I could get but nothing helped me. I saw a bottle of Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic and bought a bottle and it cured me. I am convinced that there is nothing else that will cure it as I was cured by it.
MRS. G. HOFFBAUER.

FREE A valuable book on Nervous Diseases. Write for it to the publisher, Dr. J. W. Koenig, 117 North Second Street, Philadelphia, Pa. The book is also given to the needy.

Timothy Donoghue was seriously injured by being thrown from a horse on Monday last. Died at Pittsford, on the 15th Inst. Mary, wife of Patrick Conway, aged 69 years. The funeral services were held from St. Mary's Church on Thursday of last week.

Just Like a Woman.
A young and well dressed woman entered Charing Cross telegraph office the other day and wrote out a dispatch to be sent to Manchester. She read it over, reflected for a moment, and then dropped it on the floor and wrote a second. This she also threw away, but was satisfied with the third and sent it off. The three telegrams read:
First---"Never let me hear from you again."
Second---"No one expects you to return."
Third---"Come home, dearest. All is forgiven."---Pearson's Weekly.

Realism.
"This picture belongs to the realistic school."
"Ah!"
"Yes. Notice that atmosphere! It is supplied by an air pump in the basement."---Detroit Tribune.

Society is very queer. The people most sought after are those who do not pay their debts.

Concussion.
Patrick Ryan, trustee of St. William's Church, Concussus, since it was founded twenty years ago, died suddenly Sunday morning and was buried at St. Michael's cemetery on Tuesday last. Father Hendrick officiating at funeral obsequies. Mr. Ryan was a native of Tipperary, but came to this place thirty years ago from England. He was a man faithful to his religious duties, taking a great interest in matters pertaining to his church. He was a kind friend to the priests, and he will be greatly missed in this community.

Adam Carried an Umbrella.
but the modern man must if he does not wish to be in the swim, so to speak. We carry a complete line suitable for a holiday present and for every-day wear at Henry Likly's, 96 State street.

Shakespeare Said
"He who steals my purse, steals trash, etc." While we are on the subject of pocketbooks, we would call your attention to our immense line of pocketbooks, all grades, styles and finish. The prices are right. Henry Likly's, 96 State St.

COOK OPERA HOUSE
All next week, the Milton Aborn Opera Company will be the attraction at Cook's Opera House. The company numbers 40 people, and includes Marie Dea, Maud Davis, Sylvester Corais, Maud Dancy, Manie Grivelle, Joseph W. Smith, John Dewey, Warren D. Lombard, and Frank Woolley. Special care has been exercised in the selection of a large and well trained chorus. The repertoire for the week has been selected with great care, and will be as follows: Monday matinee, "Ship Aho"; Monday evening, "Said Pasha"; Tuesday evening, "Boccaccio"; Wednesday matinee, "Bohemian Girl"; Wednesday evening, "Tar and Tartar"; Thursday evening, "Chimes of Normandy"; Friday evening, "Maritana"; Saturday matinee, "Fra Diavolo"; Saturday evening, "Mascot."

ACADEMY
Flynn & Sheridan's City Sports Big Show, which will be the attraction at the Academy the coming week contains more novelties, more features, and more genuine amusement than any show of a like character has ever been seen in this city. The show is organized for the present season embraces two new and up-to-date burlesques, embellished with rich and handsome costumes and special scenery. The plot is long and varied and taken care of by those who are capable in their respective lines. This part of the bill is headed by the famous four Nelson Sisters, a quartet of femininity that have no equal in the acrobatic field. Many more acts of a high grade of excellence are noticed in this very interesting bill.

WONDERLAND THEATRE
This house has a double bill for the coming week, wonderful and revival of that very laughable comedy, Muldoon's Picnic, with Frank Hall and Tom Nawn in their great characters of Muldoon and Mufcally, supported by the following company: Larry Tooley, Charles R. Sweet, Annie Tooley, Hattie Nawn, Belle O'Leary, Miss Armstrong, and Whoo Mule, by the donkey. This is one of the most popular Irish comedies ever written, and it will be presented at this house with special scenery and accessories. In addition to the comedy, there will be seen the following acts of specialties, William F. Denny, one of the most popular vocalists ever heard in Rochester, in a new budget of songs; Dolan and Lenhart, a duo of very bright, travesty and character artists and the Veetian social serenaders and operatic sketch artists, introducing brilliant costumes, artistic scenic effects, good jokes, castles, and electric illuminations, forming one of the finest special acts ever seen on any stage. The management of this house are certainly doing wonders in the way of employing high class attractions at low prices. Performance is continuous, both afternoon and evening.

Honoree.
Mr. John Costello, one of the oldest residents of Canastota, and a highly respected member of St. Mary's church, was buried here Wednesday last.
