One of the most notable social events of the season was the dance given on Thanksgiving eve, under the suspices of St. Patrick's Society, in the Opera House. A large crowd was present. Refreshments, which were furnished by the lady members, were served in Union Hall. A pleasing auxiliary feature in connection with the event, was the presentation of an elegant $100 bicycle, which was contested by four boys. Michael Enright, of Mendon, was the successful candidate. The amounts collected by the competitors were as follows: M. Enright. $54.97; Lucy, $51.85; Barry, $22.83; O'Neil, $2.80; total, $148.43. Great credit is due the committee of management for the efficiency and courtery displayed throughout the affair, as all who were in attendance apeak in the highest terms of their reception. A handsome sum was realized for the Society, and was a source of much grat incation to St. Patrick's worthy pastor Rev. . J. Dounelly.

The "World's Fair at St. John's is over. It was a twocees from start to finish. In spite of the bed weather during the first week crowds filled the hall every evening. During the first week even standing room was at a promium. On Thanksgiving day over 500 people from our "Annex" (Roches-ter) visited us. There were also numerous delegates from Charlotte, Mt. Read, Parma. Chili, Coldwater, Spencerport, Clarkson, Penfield, Pittsford, Fairport, Irondequoit Webster, and a committee of one from Syractime. No wonder then that with so tributaries the stream that flowed into Greece grew to enormous proportions, and left a rich deposit in hard cash, greenbacks, and checks. The gross receipts will be about $4,800, and the net gain $1.500. We started the fair hoping to realise $1,000 and we have nearly doubled that rum. We have reason to be proud of our Fair. It cuts the debt on our church down one-half of what it was on the first day of lanuary last. Though last, we were not least among the "Fair-a." At the beginning of the fair our pastor assured us that the members of St. John's had a host of friends, and the result of our festival & proves the truth of his assertion. There was scarcely an idle hand in the parish. The ladies provided the supper, and those who ate and were filled can testify to their generosity and culinary accomplishments. The men busied themselves conveying our guests rom and to the cars. The buggy contest brought $657,40; the bioycle contest, $518.12; the pastor's photo contests, $353.75; Indies' contest, $60.70; cannon contest, $158.00; tool-chest contest. $86.75; doll contest, $27.10. In the buggy contest John King received the highest number of voten; Fred Reinhard, second; George Kiley, third.
