What's Going on in the Various Parishes.

ST. MARY'S

Rev. J. P. Stewart in his financial statement reports that the total receipts for the year, together with a balance on hand January 1st, 1895, of $689.25, were $15,750.66, while the total expenses for the same period were $14,015.96, leaving a balance of $1,734.70 to apply on church debt. In the above amount of expenses, $3,500.00 was paid on a mortgage on the church. The debt January 1st, 1896, is $4,265.81. The reverend pastor in a circular letter to his parishioners says: "We have only a trifling debt, especially if we take into account the $3,000 insurance on my life in the C. M. B. A. for the benefit of St. Mary's, on which I pay the premium personally. And we have a balance of $1,734.70 from the subscription list. It cost $2,800 for repairs and improvements during the year."

CORPUS CHRISTI

An entertainment will be given by Guards of the Sacred Heart of Corpus Christi church, at French Hall Wednesday evening, February 13th, 1896. Tickets, 25 cents.

ST. JOSEPH'S

The Young Ladies' Auxiliary Society of St. Joseph's Church gave the new rector, Rev. Caspar Ritter, a reception at the hall attached to the church on Franklin street Thursday evening. After a welcome address by Miss Otto, Miss Cramer favored the audience with a song and encore. Miss Burns and Miss Gerstner gave recitations, and the ladies of the society presented a farce. The rector then made a pleasant reply, in which he thoroughly ingratiated himself with those about to come under his charge.

ST. PETER AND PAUL

The members of the choir of this church were tendered their annual Cecilia banquet in the parish hall last Sunday evening. A very enjoyable time was had by all present.

LOCAL NOTES.

Mrs. Silas and daughter, of Pittsford, are boarding at No. 2 Langdon Park.

Bishop McQuaid has been slightly ill with a cold for the last week. He was unable to go to Baltimore to attend the investiture of Cardinal Batelli.

Willard A. Marakle presided as toast-master at the Cleveland Legion banquet Monday evening, and the speakers included John F. Kinney, President James L. Whelan, of the Flower City Democracy, William H. McDonald, Joseph F. Heimbach, C. A. McLaughlin, James M. Nolan and James W. Larkin.

To go to Buffalo.

The Buffalo Enquirer has announced that Joseph O'Connor, recently editor of the Post Express, will assume the position of editor-in-chief of that paper next Monday. The new management of the Enquirer is backed by abundant capital, and the intention is to make a paper that will rank with the best in the State.

Perpetual Help Society.

The regular meeting of the Perpetual Help Society was held at St. Mary's Hospital Wednesday. Mrs. O'Connor and Mrs. Klem received visitors.

Entertained their Friends.

The ladies of the Rochester Catholic Reading Circle entertained about one hundred of their friends at their rooms in Cathedral Hall Monday evening. Progressive piano was the feature of the evening, and after cards had been indulged in for a couple of hours, refreshments were served on small tables set about the room; after which most of the guests adjourned to the music room, which had been converted into a ball room, to watch or enjoy the dancing, which held sway for the remainder of the evening. It was a great success, and these entertainments are eagerly looked forward to by the host of friends and well-wishers of the Circle.

The Magna Shoe Co.'s

Four-dollar cushion-sole shoe for ladies, J. W. Maer is selling for $2.50. This is Dr. Reed's patent, and is the most comfortable shoe made. Your foot has the sensation of walking on velvet carpets. They are welts and turn, and even without the cushion sole you could not buy them at that price.

It Will Be Money in Your Pocket

To call at Snyder's cash store, 186 West Main street, before removal to 188. (At 188 in everything.)

The story of the death of the home of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Knap, 802 Brown street Christmas morning, and removed their darling baby Harold, who was a bright child of 17 months. The kind and loving parents have the deepest sympathy of many friends in their sad bereavement. They also have the consolation that their darling is a bright angel in Heaven.

John Gordon died Monday at his home No. 3 Johnson Park, aged 52 years. The funeral was held from the house at 8:30 a. m. Wednesday, and at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's Church.

Stephen E. Rauber died Tuesday night at his home, 29 Evergreen st., aged 38 years. He leaves a wife, one child, a mother, a brother, F. J. Rauber, and two sisters, Mrs. S. F. Grass, of this city, and Mrs. J. E. McGregor, of Staten Island, N. Y. He was a member of Branch 85, C. M. B. A.

The funeral took place Friday at 8:30 o'clock Friday morning, from his late residence, and at 9 o'clock from St. Michael's Church.

Daniel Cullinane died Sunday at his home, No. 15 Ward park, aged 63 years. One son, Timothy, and five daughters, Mrs. J. A. Norton, Mrs. F. Drake, Mrs. L. Kast, Nora and Johanna Cullinane, all of this city, survive him.

Mrs. Catherine A. McLaughlin, of Detroit, died Monday morning at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Kiley, 147 Lake Avenue, aged 48 years. Mrs. McLaughlin had but lately returned from Europe, and stopped on her way to Detroit to visit her daughter. Her death was sudden and unexpected. Two sons, Lewis McLaughlin, of the Michigan Central, Frank O. McLaughlin, of Stearns & Co., pharmacists, of Detroit, and three daughters, Mrs. W. A. Moore and Mrs. Felix McWilliams, of Detroit, and Mrs. John Kiley, of this city, survive her.

The Paris Figaro regrets that American summer tourists lately are evincing a preference for London. The Figaro estimates the number who went to Europe last summer at from 150,000 to 200,000. Of these, the Figaro finds that very few stayed for any length of time in Paris, but that most of them, after a few weeks, went back to London. Since the new hotels have been built in London of late years, Americans find themselves very comfortable there, and inasmuch as they can speak the language it is more agreeable for them than in Paris. The Figaro speaks of this with a tender melancholy, and says that "it is regrettable." It states that each American tourist last year spent, on the average, 8,000 francs, or $1,600. If 150,000 of them spent only $500, that would make $75,000,000 francs. The Figaro thinks that Paris is not getting its due share.

Prof. Max Muller has been trying to ascertain the relative number of the adherents of Christianity, Buddhism and Mohammedanism, but finds the task an impossible one so far as literal accuracy is concerned. The most that can safely be said is that the Christians and the Buddhists each number something over 400,000,000, and the Mohammedans about half as many. "But," he observes, "I attach very little value to such statistics, still less to the conclusions drawn from them, as truth is not settled by majorities; and he quotes the remark of Frederick Maurice when told that in his view about eternal punishment he was in a minority: "I have often been in a minority, but I have never been wrong."

Good to Have in the Kitchen.

Is a flask of pure ligonol, the timely use of which is often of great benefit in preventing colds and even more serious ailments. Such ligonol is sold by J. W. Maer, No. 188 West Main street, who has the largest stock of the purest ligonol in the city.

WOMENLAND THEATRE.
A strong bill has been arranged at this house for the coming week, headed by Miss Alice Raymond, the celebrated cornet soloist. She is no doubt the greatest lady cornetist in this country, and probably in the world, and will no doubt charm large audiences next week.

In addition to this feature the bill is an excellent one, containing the names of a number of A specialty people as follows: Basco and Roberts, aerial comedians in a new and original comedy act. The original two Carles, a very clever duo of musical comedians from the Folies Bergere Paris, and Alhambra Theatre, London. Miss Arline Ramsey, a very charming operatic vocalist; Gilmore and Boshell in their amusing sketch, "The Flat Upside;" and last week of the clever comedians Frank Hall and Larry Tooley in the laughable comedy "Irish Justice."
