TYRONE.

Mr. John G. R. Porter, J. P., Coroner for the Omagh District, recently held an inquest touching the the death of Samuel Wilson, of the townland of Durnish, who was, as alleged, seriously assaulted at Mullagh Meenagh, when returning home from Omagh fair. The jury returned a verdict that deceased came to his death by ersipoles, restricting from a wound, but there was no evidence to show by whom it was inflicted.

A striking illustration of the slender profits of literature is found in the declaration of Miss Beatrice Harraden that her whole return from "Ships That Pass in the Night" was $650, of which $150 was the fruit of American sales. If Miss Harraden had invented the "pigs in clover" pussie she would have made half a million.
