

$1 Per Year.

The Catholic

Vol. VII, No 16.

Rochester, N. Y., Saturday.

FATHER HENRY'S RIDE

PATRICK D. LEONARD

From Englewood we ride, my steed;
No food or rest to-night Until we reach the Stirrup Ranch, Beyond the Cherokee side;
There will be food and rest for you,
But I must ride again—
One hundred and seventy miles across

The lonely western plain.
For I am summoned and must go
In haste to death's bedside.
To save a soul—my gallant steed, O'er the plains to-night we ride.
The priest of God's true Church when called

Will cross both land and wave, No matter what the danger is,
He'll face it, soul to save.
Our glorious Lord who died for man, With me these plains rides on—More precious load a steed never bore

Across this trail before Across the Cherokee Strip we ride, Away o'er the desert sand; Long yet the way before us lies Ere we reach the No Man's Land.
A light ahead, my brave good horse!
The Stirrup Ranch we gain—A steed is here—no time for food—Again I'm on the plain.

Away, away, good horse, your fresh, Although there scarce is light;
For we must cross the Texan line Ere dawn the morning bright.
The Cimarron River we cross, and now

The treacherous sand beware; Heaven will surely guide us o'er To the solid ground—see there McKinley's Ranch before us stands.
Over by yonder height,
On its brow—thank God for this timely gear—

There burns a beacon bright.
On, on again, good horse. No rest—
The trail before us lies;
The adobe walls we cross, and now The night's dark shadow flies.
Away! away! we need to haste;
The moon is shining clear;
We're riding now on No Man's Land, Panhandle's very near.

Ah! here we are, my gallant horse,
This is the Texan line; Palarado Ranch is gained at last—Thank God! we are in time—In time to give the Sacraments.

The lady died that day,
And one more soul to heaven above, Rejoicing winged its way.

THE MONROE DOCTRINE

From the Original Message of President Monroe as Preserved in the Office of the File Clerk of the House of Representatives

We owe it therefore to candor, and to the amicable relations existing between the United States and those Powers, to declare that we should consider any attempt on their part to extend their system to any portion of this Hemisphere, as dangerous to our peace and safety.
With the existing Colonies or Dependencies of any European Power we have not interfered, and shall not interfere. But with the Governments who have declared their independence, and maintained it, and whose independence we have, on great consideration, and on just principles, acknowledged, we could not view any interposition on the part of any European Power as the purpose of opposing them, or as warranting us to take any course hostile to any European Power, or any other Power, on the subject of its unqualified dependence toward the United States.

The House Grand Committee Report in Havana has been communicated to the Spanish Government, and the Hon. John H. Poinsett, a naturalized American, and he is going to try the Horn game in Spain. He claims the $200,000 will be paid at the State Department. The report of the House Grand Committee is a very interesting one. It contains many facts and figures, and is well worth reading. It shows that the Spanish Government is not doing much to improve the condition of the people in the West Indies. It also shows that the United States is not doing much to improve the condition of the people in the West Indies.
The report is a very interesting one, and is well worth reading.

OPEN LETTER FROM BROTHER MAURELIAN

To all Interested in Catholic Educational Institutions.

"I have just succeeded in adjusting the difficulties which were responsible for the vexatious delay in issuing the Illustrated History of the Catholic Educational Exhibits, World's Columbian Exposition, Chil-cago, 1893.

"The mere announcement that the firm J. S. Hyland & Co., the well-known publishers of the Columbian Jubilee, of Four Centuries of Catholicity in America. 'The Catholic Congresses,' etc., have taken hold of the work, will inspire confidence in its speedy completion and its prompt supply to all subscribers.

"The contract and guarantee require the work to be completed by June 10, 1896, and to be issued in the same artistic style and workmanship as the initial number.
Prepaid subscribers will be furnished with a cloth bound copy of the sixteen parts. The editor, whose services have been secured, has personally examined every exhibit in all its details, and is in every respect fully equipped to write as complete and as accurate a history of the 1,500 exhibits as is possible in a work of such magnitude.

"The publication will be unique as a book of art and education. The interest in it will be world-wide, inasmuch as it will show the results of Catholic education, created and encouraged by our prelates, aided and encouraged by thousands of the reverend clergy and religious teachers, supported by the patrons of over 1,500 of our Catholic schools, and descriptive of the school art and industrial work of several hundred thousand children in our Catholic institutions.

"The letters of approval and commendation from our Prelates and other distinguished persons surpass in number and emphasis those ever given to any other Catholic publication. It will be a book of abiding interest, not only to the reverend clergy and educational institutions, but for every family, to entertain parents, and to fire a laudable ambition in the heart of every child for advancement in all connected with a true Christian education.

"I am happy to announce definitely the time for the completion of the work, in answer to numerous inquiries from the reverend clergy and our Catholic educational institutions.
The work will, indeed, be an artistic and valuable souvenir of the Catholic Educational Exhibit, and will be more highly prized each year as time passes.

Very sincerely,
BROTHER MAURELIAN,
Secretary and manager Catholic Educational Exhibit.

I. C. H. A.
St. Bridget's Branch, I. C. S. A. met and installed its officers for the current year Friday night, Jan. 18th.
After the installation a pleasing programme of vocal and instrumental music was rendered.

These officers were installed: President—Guis B. Quinn.
First Vice President—Mary T.
Ryan.
Second Vice President—Ellen T.
McCarthy.
Recorder—Josephine B. Frisbon.
Assistant Recorder—Minnie F.
Quinn.
Financial Secretary—Ellen A.
Quinn.

Treasurer—Mary A. O'Connor.
Manager—John Quinn.
The officers were installed by Brother Maurelian, S. J.

These visitors were present at the meeting: Dr. J. J. Conroy, the pastoral adviser of the parish, Rev.
James O'Connell, of Geneva Falls; Dr.
James Dwyer and T. E. Maroney. The officers were installed by Mrs. Ellen Quinn, President of Branch IV, and the Ladies Aid Society.

The officers were installed by Brother Maurelian, S. J. The meeting was a very successful one,
and the officers were installed with much enthusiasm. The meeting was held at the parish hall, and was attended by a large number of the faithful.
The officers were installed by
Brother Maurelian, S. J. The
meeting was a very successful one,
and the officers were installed
with much enthusiasm. The meeting was held at the parish
hall, and was attended by a large number of the faithful.

Programme of the Winter School

The Catholic Winter School, which has been organized under the auspices of the archbishop of the New Orleans diocese and of the Society of the Holy Spirit, has announced its list of lecturers, and the school will begin Feb. 16, 1896.
The opening ceremony will be impressive, and will include a solemn pontifical celebration at the cathedral, and both of our American ordinals will be present. All the bishops and archbishops have been invited to attend, and many of them have already accepted the invitations, and it is expected that the gathering will be the biggest and most important of that character ever held in the city. Outside of the ecclesiastical features the lecturers will be among the ablest in the country and the course will be a very important and interesting one. The lecturers are:
Colonel Richard Malcolm Johnson, of Baltimore; Mr. Graham Frost, a brilliant member of the St. Louis bar; Mr. Conde Fallon, editor of the Church Progress, in St. Louis; Father Morgan M. Shandy, of Allentown, Pa.; Prof. Alex. Furtus, of Talane University; Brother Baldwin, of the Christian Brothers' Training School, at Anawalk, N. J.; Father Zahn, of Notre Dame University, in Indiana, and Father Powers, the well known Jesuit; Father McLaughlin, of Syracuse, N. Y., who started the movement to have the winter school here; Rev. M. S. Brennan, professor of astronomy in Kenrick Seminary,
St. Louis; Father Langlois, of St.
Martinville, and Miss Starr, the well-known art critic, will deliver a course which will be attractive to all lovers of art.

Altogether, there will be twenty-five lectures, which will include a number of lectures and will be not yet on the schedule. The course will begin Thursday, Feb. 16, and will last until Saturday, Feb. 23.
The sessions will be held at the Catholic Winter School, and will be with receptions, entertainments, perhaps one or two excursions to Catholic editors, leading school teachers, etc. The course will be under the management and control of Archbishop James and a committee of laymen, of which Mr. J. J.
Stauffer, Jr., is chairman. A auxiliary committee will be organized, with a view of interesting ladies prominent in literary and social circles in the work.

This is the first attempt to gather together in New Orleans so many eminent lecturers, and no doubt it will be a literary treat to all intellectual people in the city. While under the auspices of the Catholic it is not by any means the intention to exclude its patrons as Catholics, and non-Catholics are not only invited but urged to attend. The
of the lecturer as possible. The already seen the value of the course. The course will be lectures a day during the week at 10:30 in the forenoon, and at 8:00 in the evening. It will be a course of instruction in the history of the Catholic Church, and will be a very interesting and profitable one.

Subscription for all the lectures $10; for any one course (see course), $1.
The secretary of the Catholic Winter School of America is
H. Fleming, 112 Canal Street,
New Orleans, La. All
communications should be addressed to him, and will be acknowledged.

Members of the Catholic
Winter School of America are invited to attend the course. The course will be held at the Catholic Winter School, and will be a very interesting and profitable one.
The course will be held at
the Catholic Winter School, and will be a very interesting and profitable one.

The course will be held at
the Catholic Winter School,
and will be a very interesting and profitable one. The course will be held at the Catholic Winter School, and will be a very interesting and profitable one. The course will be held at the Catholic Winter School, and will be a very interesting and profitable
one. The course will be held at the Catholic Winter School,
and will be a very interesting and profitable one.

CATHOLIC EDUCATIONAL EXHIBIT

The Catholic Educational Exhibit, which has been organized under the auspices of the archbishop of the New Orleans diocese and of the Society of the Holy Spirit, has
announced its list of lecturers, and the school will begin Feb. 16, 1896.

The opening ceremony will be impressive, and will include a solemn
pontifical celebration at the cathedral, and both of our American or-
dinals will be present. All the
bishops and archbishops have been invited to attend, and many of them
have already accepted the invitations, and it is expected that the
gathering will be the biggest and
most important of that character ever held in the city.

Outside of the ecclesiastical features the lecturers will be among the ablest in the country and the course will be a very important and interesting one. The lecturers are: Colonel Richard Malcolm Johnson, of Baltimore; Mr. Graham Frost, a brilliant member of the St. Louis bar; Mr. Conde Fallon, editor of the Church Progress, in St. Louis; Father Morgan M. Shandy, of Allentown, Pa.; Prof. Alex. Furtus,
of Talane University; Brother Baldwin,
of the Christian Brothers' Training
School, at Anawalk, N. J.; Father
Zahn, of Notre Dame University, in Indiana, and Father Powers, the
well known Jesuit; Father McLaughlin,
of Syracuse, N. Y., who started the
movement to have the winter school
here; Rev. M. S. Brennan, professor
of astronomy in Kenrick Seminary,
St. Louis; Father Langlois, of St.
Martinville, and Miss Starr, the well-known art critic, will deliver a
course which will be attractive to all
lovers of art.

Altogether, there will be twenty-
five lectures, which will include a
number of lectures and will be
not yet on the schedule. The course will begin Thursday, Feb. 16, and
will last until Saturday, Feb. 23.
The sessions will be held at the Catholic Winter School, and will be
with receptions, entertainments,
perhaps one or two excursions to
Catholic editors, leading school
teachers, etc. The course will be under the management and control
of Archbishop James and a committee of laymen, of which Mr. J. J.
Stauffer, Jr., is chairman. A
auxiliary committee will be organized, with a view of interesting
ladies prominent in literary and
social circles in the work.

This is the first attempt to gather
together in New Orleans so many
eminent lecturers, and no doubt it
will be a literary treat to all intellectual people in the city. While
under the auspices of the Catholic
it is not by any means the intention
to exclude its patrons as Catholics,
and non-Catholics are not only
invited but urged to attend. The
of the lecturer as possible. The
already seen the value of the
course. The course will be
lectures a day during the week
at 10:30 in the forenoon, and
at 8:00 in the evening. It will
be a course of instruction in
the history of the Catholic Church,
and will be a very interesting
and profitable one.

Subscription for all the lectures $10; for any one course (see course), $1.
The secretary of the Catholic
Winter School of America is
H. Fleming, 112 Canal Street,
New Orleans, La. All
communications should be addressed to him, and will be acknowledged.

Members of the Catholic
Winter School of America
are invited to attend the
course. The course will be held at the Catholic Winter
School, and will be a very interesting and profitable one.
The course will be held at
the Catholic Winter School,
and will be a very interesting and profitable one.

The course will be held at
the Catholic Winter School,
and will be a very interesting and profitable one. The
course will be held at the Catholic Winter School, and
will be a very interesting and
profitable one. The course will be held at the Catholic Winter School, and will be a
very interesting and profitable
one. The course will be held at the Catholic Winter School,
and will be a very interesting and profitable one.