CATARRH Cannot be Cured.
This is the general belief of thousands of catarrh sufferers.

Dr. Grady
The eminent and leading specialist of Rochester, says catarrh can be positively and permanently cured right here in this city.

Catarrh of the Head and Throat.
The most prevalent form of catarrh, and results from neglected colds.

"Is the breath foul?"
"Is the voice husky?"
"Do you spit up slobber?"
"Do you ache all over?"
"Do you blow your nose?"
"Is the nose stopped up?"
"Do you snore at night?"
"Does your nose discharge?"
"Does the nose bleed easily?"
"Is there tickling in throat?"
"Do crusts form in the nose?"
"Is the nose sore and tender?"
"Do you sneeze a great deal?"
"Is this worse toward night?"
"Does the nose-itch and burn?"
"Is there pain in front of head?"
"Is there pain across the eyes?"
"Is there pain in back of head?"
"Is your sense of smell leaving?"
"Do you hawk to clear the throat?"
"Is there a dropping in the throat?"
"Is the throat dry in the morning?"
"Are you losing your sense of taste?"
"Do you sleep with the mouth open?"
"Does your nose stop up toward night?"

COOK OPERA HOUSE
The coming of John Kernell, the well-known Celtic star and comedian to Cook Opera House the first three nights of this week, has in itself more than ordinary promise of pleasure. Kernell's manner and method are well-known. He is irresistibly droll, and the assumption of gravity with which he surveys his work stamps him as the true artist, and gives a fitting foil to the witticisms of speech. He has a new vehicle for his drollery this year in "The Irish Alderman," which is said to be the best play he has ever had.

"In Old Kentucky" will be the attraction at Cook Opera House the last half of the week, with a matinee Saturday. As the title would indicate, the play deals with Kentucky life and character, and it is a very graphic story set amid scenes of picturesque beauty and heightened by a number of intensely dramatic situations.

ACADEMY
As an extra strong attraction for Easter holiday week, Manager Cook has secured "Joseph Callahan" in his grand spectacular and electrical production of "Faust," the finest and most elaborate presentation of the dramatization of Goethe's immortal masterpiece, barring none, on the stage. This attraction has never before played in a popular-priced house, but has been secured at great expense as a rare treat to the Academy patron—a high class performance worth double the price of admission—that the amusement-loving public will not be slow to take in and appreciate.

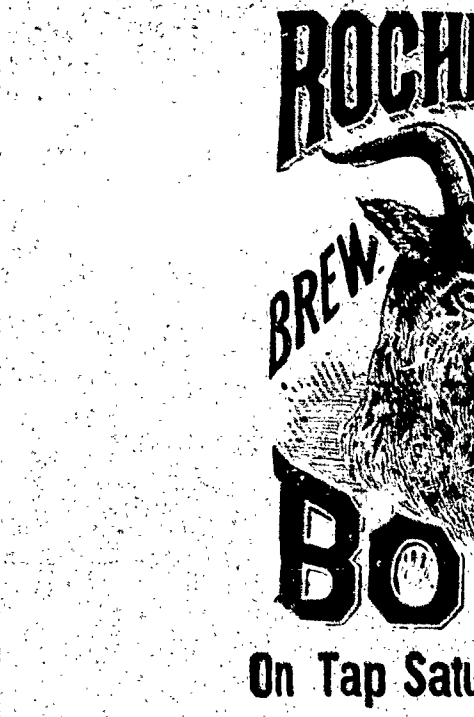

Never in the history of theatres has any play had a more elaborate production. The best electrical and mechanical devices that would add to the effectiveness of the stage settings and lend splendor to the many world scenes have been adopted. In the last act is presented a picture of unrivaled beauty and unsurpassed splendor. It is the ascension of Marguerite among angels to Heaven, amid music—a fitting closing allegory.

WONDERLAND THEATRE.
The management of this theatre have prepared an excellent bill for the coming week, composed of the following high-class vaudeville artists: Redding and Stanton, two artists who have forsaken the dramatic stage and taken to the vaudeville with great success, producing one-act comediettes that would be a credit to any stage in the world. They have been a pronounced hit everywhere they have appeared. Jules and Ella Garrison, travesty artists, who will be remembered on account of the hits they have made at this house before; Mme. Floa, the wonderful transformation dancer, who comes back with an entirely new act; Lolo Fuller's transfiguration dances what is creating such a sensation in New York. These dances and the beautiful lights that are used in them are said to be the most magnificent ever seen in this country. Connel and Swan, the genuine Southern Mobile hook and wing dancers, who have out a standing challenge to dance any two artists in the world in this style of dancing. Colby and DeWitt, a duo of acrobats who come here with a great reputation, and two other great acts not yet announced. This is a good bill, and it should draw well all week.

Thousands have tested the great building-up power of Hood's Sarsaparilla and have found renewed strength, vigor and vitality in its use.
