AMERICANS IN THE LEAD.

Splendid Showing Made at the Athletic Revival at Athens.

ATHENS, April 7.—The athletic contests which are intended by the projectors as a revival of the ancient Hellenic contests were opened here and the preliminary exercises were accompanied by an impressive ceremonial. Great enthusiasm was manifested by the people and the occasion is observed as a national festival, the city being gaily and brilliantly decorated and thousands of sightseers being abroad. Many visitors are here, attracted by the athletic events.

John Graham, T. E. Burke, E. H. Clark, Arthur Blake.

THE BOSTON LEAD.

The contests were preliminary trials and no decide nothing definitely as to the final awards of victory. The trials were running races at 100 metres, 400 metres and 800 metres and throwing the discus, a sport as old as Greece itself and to which the putting the shot of modern athletics is most nearly allied. The hop, skip and jump was also contested and won by an American.

In the 100 metres dash the first heat was won by B. A. Lane of the Princeton team, Szokoly, a Hungarian, coming in second. The time was 12 2-5 sec.

In the second heat at 100 metres, T. P. Curtis of the Boston Athletic association won, Chalkokondghis a Greek coming in second. Time, 12 4-5.

In the third heat of the 100 metres, T. E. Burke of the Boston Athletic association won, Osman, a German, being second. Time, 11 4-5 sec.

The final heat in the 100 metres dash is fixed for Friday.

In the running race for 800 metres none of the Americans competed.

In throwing the discus Captain Robert Garret of the Princeton team won against the Greeks, Parasrvopulo and Veris.

In the 400-metres running race, first heat, H. B. Jamison of the Princeton team won, Osman, a the German, being second.

In the second heat Thomas E. Burke won, Gimelin, an Englishman, being second.

Ellery H. Clark of the Boston team won the broad jump with 6 metres 84 centimetres. Robert Garrett, captain of the Princeton team, was second with 6 metres. James B. Connolly of Boston was third with 5 metres 84 centimetres.

Thomas E. Burke of the Boston team won the third heat of the 400 metres running race in 54 1-5 sec. H. B. Jameson of Princeton was second.

Robert Garrett of Princeton won the shot put with 11 metres 22 centimetres.

Flack, an Australian, won the first heat of the kilometre run in 4m. 33s. Arthur Blake of the Boston team was second.

In the trial heat of the hurdle race W. W. Hoyt of the Boston Athletic association was defeated by Thomas P. Curtis of the same team.

A great crowd was in attendance at the games and the interest in the festival continued unabated. The royal family of Greece witnessed the games from the position especially provided for them.

Special Agents Must Be Examined.

ALBANY, April 8.—Governor Morton, Civil Service Commissioners Burt and Cobb, Statutory Revision Commissioner Lincoln, State Commissioner of Excise Lyman, Mr. Cullinan, attorney to Mr. Lyman, and Chief Civil Service Examiner Fowler held a meeting and considered the matter of putting the positions of the 60 special agents, whose appointments are authorized by the state liquor tax law, under competitive, exempt or noncompetitive civil service schedules. The whole matter was thoroughly discussed for over two hours. None of the participants in the conference would say anything as to what was determined. It is reported on the best of authority, however, that the applicants will be compelled to take an examination under the civil service of a noncompetitive nature.

NOT YET IN THE RACE.

But Carlisle Does Not Decline the Nomination.

HIS LETTER ON THE SUBJECT.

While He Is Not Seeking the Nomination, His Letter Would Indicate a Willingness to Run on a Sound Money Platform.

WASHINGTON, April 6.—Secretary Carlisle has written the following letter on the subject of his candidacy for the presidential nomination at the Chicago convention.

WASHINGTON, April 4.

Charles B. Long, Esq., Chairman Democratic State Central Committee, Louisville:

Your favor of March 31, in which you say in substance that many of my friends in Kentucky and elsewhere desire me to become a candidate before the approaching national Democratic convention for nomination for the office of president and requesting me to give "some authoritative or definite expression" upon the subject was duly received and has been maturely considered.

Many communications upon the same subject and of similar import have been received from friends in different parts of the country and while very grateful for these numerous expressions of confidence and esteem upon the part of my Democratic fellow citizens, I have not been able to reach the conclusion that the existing conditions require me to comply with their requests by authorizing them to announce me as a candidate for the presidential nomination.

While I feel a profound interest in the welfare of my party I am much more concerned about its declaration of principles than in its selection of candidates because in my opinion, its failure or success at the election, as well as its capacity for useful service in the country in the future, depend upon the position it takes or omits to take upon the public questions now engaging the attention of the people and especially the questions affecting the monetary system of the country and the character and amount of taxation to be imposed upon our citizens.

Its position on these and other subjects having been agreed upon and clearly and distinctly announced, the convention ought to have no difficulty in selecting an acceptable candidate who will fairly represent its views and in order that its deliberations may be embarrassed as little as possible by the contentions of rival aspirants and their friends, I think my duty to the party will be best performed by declining to participate in a contest for the nomination.

The obligations assumed when I accepted my present official position require me to devote my entire time and attention to the public interests committed to my charge and I shall continue to discharge the duties imposed upon me to the best of my ability and in such manner as will in my judgment most certainly promote the true interests of the country, and if, in the opinion of my fellow Democrats in Kentucky in order to entitle me to their confidence and approval, I would regard their indorsement of my public course as an ample reward for the labor I have been able to accomplish on behalf of honest administration and a sound financial policy.

With many thanks for your kind letter I am very truly yours. J. G. CARLISLE.

Latter Day Saints In Session.

KIRTLAND, O., April 7.—The annual conference of the reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints began here in the old Mormon temple with a large attendance. There are delegates present from Canada, California, Maine, Mississippi and intermediate points. There are four of the members of the original church. They are President Joseph Smith, Elder J. C. Clapp and Elder Albert Howes from California and Alex H. Smith. The denomination claims to be the original church established in 1830 by Joseph Smith and out of which sprung the Mormon church of Utah under Brigham Young. The reorganized sect does not, nor never did, practice polygamy.

Fatal Result of a Prizefight.

HAVERHILL, Mass., April 6.—A prizefight which ended with fatal results took place in South Lawrence between Arthur Bradley and Richard Ingram of this city. The latter being knocked out, died at his brother's home here without regaining consciousness.

Hudson River Now Open.

HUDSON, N. Y., April 8.—The great ice gorge four miles above this city gave way and came down the river with a rush, but it did no damage here of any consequence. The river is now navigable from New York to Albany.

VERY DRY SUNDAY.

Law Enforced at Nearly All Points—Attempts at Evasion.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., April 6.—The new liquor law was strictly enforced here and every saloon keeper complied with its provisions.

Andrew M. Stock, proprietor of the Terrace hotel, attempted to evade the law, under the hotel clause. He did a rushing business until 5 o'clock, when he was arrested. His bar was exposed, but he was serving liquor in the dining room. He had a big register containing over 200 names and a small lunch was served with each drink. The proprietor, clerk and waiters were all arrested and were admitted to bail. A test case will be made of this.

Edward Boland, a saloon keeper, was arrested for openly violating the law.

Gotham's First Sunday Drouth.

NEW YORK, April 6.—New Yorkers have had their first taste of Sunday under the Raines law. It was apparent all over the city that the saloon keepers had made up their minds to take no chances under the existing condition of affairs, for there was no attempt to evade the provisions of the law and no violations were reported at police headquarters. On every street the interiors of the drinking places were exposed to full view from the street.

Reports had it that the uptown hotels were profiting largely by the changed order of things and that most of them were doing a rushing, though legitimate, business.

None of them sold liquor over the bars, but the majority, especially those which have bars in their cafes, dispensed liquors to waiters who carried it in turn to guests who were eating meals more or less meagre at the tables.

Trojans Also Went Thirsty.

ALBANY, April 6.—The new liquor law was enforced to the letter in this city, West Troy and Troy. Although the police were especially vigilant but 18 violations of the law were observed in the three places, and but one arrest was made in this city since midnight Saturday.

Dry Sunday In Middletown.

MIDDLETOWN, N. Y., April 6.—Yesterday was the driest Sunday in this city on record. Out of 85 licensed saloons, hotels, etc., liquor could be procured in not more than three or four.

BARNARD'S EMBEZZLEMENTS.

Further Deficits Unearthed In the Fort Stanwix National Bank.

ROME, N. Y., April 8.—Sensations are coming fast in connection with the Fort Stanwix bank and the late treasurer, George Barnard.

In addition to the affairs of the Clark estate, which have been made the subject of investigation, another strange condition of affairs in still another estate has been unearthed.

Before Surrogate Holder, United States Commissioner Rowland, in behalf of Mrs. Lizzie Vandemark, made a motion for the administrators of George Barnard's estate to render an accounting of the estate of N. Hyde Leffingtoell, left in trust with Barnard for Mrs. Vandemark. An inventory of the estate filed by Barnard showed its value to be $40,000 personal property, including $10,000 in stock of the Fort Stanwix bank, valued at $18,000.

It is alleged that all that can be found remaining of the estate is one security of $800. The surrogate issued an order for an accounting, to be made in three weeks. The administrators of Barnard's estate are James Barnard, a son, and E. C. Carpenter, brother-in-law.

It is claimed that all Mrs. Vandemark possesses now is a farm on which she lives and this may be levied on to pay up the bank stock which she holds.

Investigation has also been made regarding the manner in which the estate of William Hughes, left in trust with Barnard, has been handled.

The widow of William Hughes has filed an inventory with Surrogate Holder showing that the estate thus left in trust was valued at nearly $3,000. According to the allegations and claims made by Mrs. Hughes, previous to Barnard's suicide, she asked him to make an accounting and he produced figures to show that he had in his possession $5,000 of the estate and vouchers for the balance.

After Barnard's death John R. Edwards was made administrator and according to his figures but $280 remained with no vouchers to show how the rest of the estate had been disposed of. The $280 in question is on deposit in the Fort Stanwix bank, and it will depend upon the amount of dividends how much of that amount will be refunded.

Cleveland the Logical Candidate?

NEW YORK, April 8.—The World prints a double-leaded editorial today in which it asks whether the logic of the political situation that has led the Republican masses to support McKinley will not compel the nomination of Cleveland by the Democrats. The paper says: "The World does not assert that this is so. It raises the question. It invites public discussion of it."

Sixty Years of Wedded Life.

SARATOGA, April 8.—Four generations assisted Mr. and Mrs. Charles Phillips, 83 and 80 years old, to celebrate the 60th anniversary of their marriage. They were married at Colerain, Mass., April 7, 1836.
