The base ball season will open on May 1st this year, and the Big Three are making preparations for a grand demonstration on that day. Invitations have been extended to city officials and several organizations, and a parade of good length is already promised.

All organizations intending to participate in the parade will report at the corner of State street and Central avenue at 1:45 o'clock to be given a place in the line. It is important that the organizations shall report early, as the column will move promptly at 2 o'clock. The make-up of the procession will be as follows:

Genesee Falls Band.

Platoon of Police. Detail from Cavalry Troop of the Sons of Veterans.

President Powers of the Eastern League, Manager Franklin of the Buffalo Club, and Mayor Warner in Carriage. Representatives of the Press. Big Three and Manager Shannon. Rochester players in hacks. Buffalo players in hacks.

The line of march will be up State to Church, to Sophia, to West Main street, to East Main street, to North Clinton street, to Mortimer street, to North St. Paul street, to Vincent street, where the bands and battalion of cadets will be dismissed and the rest of the procession will proceed to Riverside park. Special cars will be in waiting at Vincent street, and the bands and cadets will be transferred to the ball grounds.

On this day the Rochesterers will wear their new uniforms for the first time.

Cook Opera House.

Colton & Ryno's metropolitan success, "Lost in New York," comes to the Cook opera house for three nights, commencing next Monday matinee and will be given with all the scenery and realistic features, etc., as seen in the original New York presentation. The company this season is said to be stronger than ever. One of the best, as well as the most successful farce comedies produced this year is "The Gilded Age," in which the celebrated trio of comedians, the German of Gorman's Minstrels, appear, supported by a first-class company. They come here at the Cook next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Academy.

Manager Cook announces that his next attraction will be one well adapted to this time of the season—something entertaining and amusing and light in character. "The Original Watson Sisters Company," a superb organization of celebrated specialty and variety stars, presenting a continuous programme of interesting variety acts, embracing all that is best in burlesque, extravaganza and comic opera. This company since their last visit to Rochester has been entirely reorganized and made greater and grander than ever, double its former size, introducing many new and novel features, the principal one being the weirdly beautiful and marvelous acrobatic creation "El Zangano Ciratolo," a decidedly unique electric sensation, the most thrilling and fascinating of mid-air performances, given by the twin Empresses of the Air, the world famous Watson Sisters, assisted by the Mexican gymnasts, G. Clark, Ramirez and Juan de Zamora. A man of action of acknowledged merit, one that has pleased large and critical audiences in all the principal cities of Europe and America, this company should prove a sure "drawing card" and pack the Academy to the doors at every performance.

Wonderland Theatre.

A good show is booked at this house for the coming week, headed by Barney & Russell, a pair of very clever mimics who introduce an acrobatic "The Dog and the Monk," said to be extremely funny. Another act that calls for special notice will be the acrobatic and equilibristic act of O'Connell brothers, two residents of Rochester who are said to be very fine. In addition to these two features there is an extra good list of attractions booked that should draw good houses all the week. Bicycles are checked free of charge at this house.

We hope that Rochesterians will not allow the suggestion of political ambition to cloud their vision. It will be a watershed union if he shall suffer the romantic bias of love's young dream to be mastered by selfish hopes of unobtainable honors. All the world loves a lover if the lover be true to love and keeps out of politics. Mr. Harrison has married a good woman, and that is better than any political success, for it is better to be right than to be president. —Memphis Commercial-Appeal.
