What is Going on in the Various Parishes.

CATHEDRAL

At 8 o'clock Ascension Thursday morning Rev. James P. Kiernan, rector of the Cathedral, celebrated mass and administered the sacrament of Holy Communion to a class of 112 young people, 50 of whom were boys and the remainder girls.

The nave, galleries and vestibule of the church were filled with friends of the young communicants. The altars were beautifully decorated with flowers, wax tapers and colored lights. The parochial school choir rendered the music of the mass, and all joined in singing a hymn of praise at the close of the services. Rev. Father Kiernan addressed a few well chosen words to the class on the great blessings they had been permitted to be partakers of, and requested them to meet at Cathedral Hall in the afternoon at 3 o'clock, when they were enrolled in the society of the Holy Angels.

An elaborate pedro party and social was given Monday evening at Cathedral hall under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid society of St. Patrick's Cathedral. There were 75 couples present. After the game was finished the ladies of the society served a luncheon.

Such a place for the moderate sum of 5c to each has just been opened at 196 North street. Open from 6 in the morning until 9 at night.

DEATH OF MRS. MARY COX.

Another Old Resident of Rochester: Gone to Rest.

Mrs. Mary Cox died at her residence, No. 51 Portsmouth Terrace, on Friday of last week, after a brief illness from an attack of acute bronchitis, aged 86 years. Deceased was a native of County Longford, Ireland, and had been a resident of Rochester forty-five years, during which period she was a member of St. Patrick's Cathedral. She was a lady of great amiability and charity, and, notwithstanding advancing years, always took an interest in the affairs of younger people, with whom in church and social circles she was a favorite, and by whom her departure from life will be sincerely mourned. There survive her five children, two sons, Patrick and Joseph, and three daughters, Julia, Mary and Eliza. She had through life enjoyed excellent health according to her years, and seldom if ever did her place in church find her absent on Sunday. The funeral took place Monday morning at 8:30 o'clock from the family residence, and at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Cathedral. A large number of friends and relatives were in attendance at the church. Rev. James P. Kiernan, rector of the Cathedral, met the procession as it entered the door and blessed the corpse. The honorary bearers were: James Fee, William Purcell, Dr. Thomas A. O'Hare, A. B. Hone, John Fahy, William Carroll, Richard Whalen and Jesse W. Hatch. The six grandchildren of Mrs. Cox followed the bearers to the sanctuary bearing the casket. Requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. James P. Kiernan, assisted by Rev. J. G. Van Ness of Holy Rosary church, and Rev. A. A. Notabart of the Church of Our Lady of Victory. The choir under the direction of Prof. Eugene Bonn sang the mass, assisted by Mrs. Charles Cunningham and Mrs. Kathryn O. Mahon, after which Father Kiernan pronounced the last absolution. Interment was made at Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

The family wish to tender their thanks to the following friends for floral remembrances: Mrs. A. B. Hone, Mr. and Mrs. William Purcell, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Wolf, Mr. and Mrs. M. Higgins, Mrs. Anna Hanna and family, Mrs. Leo Block, Mr. and Mrs. A. Gaffney, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Barry, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. M. Doyle, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. O'Hare, office employees and foremen of the P. Cox Shoe Manufacturing Co., Mr. Henry Michaels, Mr. and Mrs. James Fee, Mr. and Mrs. John Fahy, Mr. and Mrs. T. Finnucane, Mr. W. L. Bassett.

Gentlemen, if you are interested in your pocketbook, and no doubt you are, a few words in regard to your footwear and what a little money will do in purchasing power won't come amiss. You might glance in our window and compare prices with what you see elsewhere when down town. Our windows are lighted every evening. Now for a little argument. Why should you, if you purchase either a $3.00, $4.00 or $5.00 shoe, pay the merchant who sells it to you from 75c to $1.50 margin when those who pay $1.25 to $2.00 for a pair of shoes pay from 25c to 50c margin? I don't think you can tell me why you should, but still that is what you are doing. We charge the same margin on a $5.00 shoe we do on a $1.25 shoe; enough said. J. W. Maser, 196 East Main street.

Out of the depths of sin and woe I lift my voice and pray My Saviour, look on me below. And hear me as I say: "Oh, Sacred Heart of Jesus, I implore, That I may daily love Thee more and more."

To Sleep 24 Hours.

On Monday evening, in connection with his laughable show, Lee, the hypnotist, will repeat the wonderful experiment that he was so successful with in Albany and Syracuse, of putting a young man in a hypnotic sleep for 24 hours. He will put him asleep at the Cook Opera house at 10 o'clock Monday evening after having him examined as to his pulse, respiration and temperature, by a committee of physicians from the audience. Then the sleeper will be carried to some down store and placed in a window where he will be watched all night by a committee selected at the theatre.

The bodily functions of the sleeper will be practically suspended. He will neither hunger nor thirst, nor feel the ordinary wants of a human being. He will lay entirely motionless on his back the entire 24 hours. On Tuesday evening at 7:30 he will be again carried to the theatre and awakened by Prof. Lee before the entire audience and again be examined by the physicians. His pulse and respiration will be taken hourly during his sleep by any physician who will be present. The young man will show no ill effects from his experience and will be used during the balance of his performance.

The strange feature of Mr. Lee's theory of hypnotism is that this cessation of the bodily functions in a human being is actually the same physical principle which enables the bear to hibernate. If a bear can put himself to sleep for weeks at a time there is no reason why man cannot do the same. Mr. Lee gives assurance for not putting the young man to sleep for a longer period is that he performs the above experiment every week.

The other acts on the bill are as follows: George Austin in his witty and clever comedy with Foster and Evans, a very clever duo of comedy sketch artists, introducing imitations on the piano of harps, banjos, guitars, flutes and drums, music boxes and steam calliopes; the Zarros, the great European mystifiers and exponents of high class magic, presenting the greatest novelty of the age, decapitation, and two other acts not yet announced.
