

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Recovered Hearing.
 Zurich, Kas. Sept. 16, 96.
 I gave Father Koening's Nerve Tonic to a boy 9 years old who had lost his hearing in consequence of scarlet fever. After using 8 bottles he was able again to hear and to talk, although the doctors said he would never hear again, but he is all right now.

Several other persons, that suffered from female weakness and other diseases resulting from the use of Father Koening's Nerve Tonic through my advice and were cured.
 On my trip as missionary in western Kansas the people will ask for advice and I recommend the Tonic as it has the desired effect.

CURES THAT STAY

A Severe Case of Nervous Prostration Resulting from Grip. Together with Rheumatism and Catarrh. Dr. Grady's Treatment Successful where other methods fail. Also Bronchitis and Catarrh Cured.
NERVOUS DOES NOT EXPRESS IT

Joseph W. Waroux is well known here. In a talk with the writer, he said: "Over two years ago I had the grip and the amount of suffering I have had since is hard to describe. I had a terrible pain and aching of the back of neck and head and a fullness of the ears and a constant ringing and buzzing noise in them. I had nervous prostration in the fullest sense. I was in such a shape I could not walk two blocks without resting and would have severe dizzy spells at any time. My stomach was irritable and weak. I would have shooting pains all over my body anywhere, and any time, also chilly feelings, and at other times hot flashes. I could not control my nervousness. I was tired all the time and had a soreness across my back. My sleep was restless and seemed to do me no good. I had a dropping in the throat and a tendency to hawk and spit, with soreness through the eyes. Now, after a short time under Dr. Grady's treatment, all my bad feelings are gone. I can walk a mile and sleep at night and do pretty much as I please. I can say that any one suffering from the effects of the grip, malaria or any other chronic disease, had better take Dr. Grady's treatment, as it is thorough and reliable."
 Mr. John T. Dawley, born in this city 75 years ago, tells a remarkable as well as an interesting story.
 "Yes, I was born in this city seventy-five years ago," said Mr. Dawley to the writer. "But for all my ancestry I had to be afflicted with that terrible plague called rheumatism. It commenced to attack me some years ago in a small way, but about eighteen months ago it became unbearable. My joints thickened up, also my hands, and a numb feeling in my arms. Attacks of pain were constant, first in the hands up to the arms and shoulders, down the back and sides into my hips. The pain was so great that cold sweat would stand out on my forehead in large beads and drop off. My legs grew stiff and I could not walk easy, in fact I felt miserable. Noticing Dr. Grady's remarkable cures of cases whom I knew I took his treatment and commenced to feel better at once and gradually all my pains left me and now I can say that they are all gone, stiffness and all, and this, too, at the present, in the worst season of the year, and at my age of 75. I consider the result marvelous and most certainly advise those afflicted to go to Dr. Grady as his charges are reasonable."
 "Give credit to whom credit is due, and certainly to Dr. Grady is due the credit in curing me," said Mr. John Morrill.
 "Dr. Grady cured me of dyspepsia, catarrh, headache with dizzy spells of years standing, stomach irritable all the time, distress after eating, no appetite, bad taste in mouth, attacks of indigestion, felt tired and weak all the time, constipation, hemorrhoids, eyes, would hawk and spit and had constant dropping in the throat. I improved at once and in a short time was well."
 Dr. Grady reads the human system as an open book, by which he cures his patients. Thousands of living witnesses will testify to this fact. His name is a household delight. His science is acknowledged by the most eminent of the faculty to be the missing link and desideratum of the lost art in Materia Medica.
 Consult the European specialist on all sexual, nervous and chronic diseases. Those suffering from rheumatism, nerves, ulcers, cancer or any form of skin or scalp disease, should visit Dr. Grady at once. Remember, consultation, advice, service and surgical treatment absolutely free until cured.
 Patients at a distance successfully treated by mail.

WILL REED RETIRE?

There seems to be some authority for thinking so.
 Notwithstanding the denial of the speaker's friends, there is excellent authority for the statement that Mr. Reed is being strongly urged to retire from public life at the close of this term. He will then have served 20 consecutive years, during four of which he has filled the office of speaker, a dignity to which he would again be elevated were he a member of the next house. In retiring from a public career which has been conspicuously brilliant the speaker would consult largely his own inclinations and particularly those of his family, who have since the Fifty-first congress urged him to withdraw from politics and devote the remainder of his days to the practice of law. He has not positively decided that he will do so, but there is a strong expectation that this will be his final determination.

It is believed that Mr. Reed will formally announce his intention not to be again a candidate for congress after the meeting of the Republican national convention next month. The congressional elections occur in Maine in the middle of September, and the conventions are usually held about 30 days previously. It is understood that Mr. Reed will make public his intentions in ample time for the aspiring politicians in his district to begin their fight for the succession. It is doubted if he retire from congress that he will locate again in Portland. He has influential political and business friends in New York who believe that that city presents greater inducements for a man of his ability than a provincial town like the Maine metropolis. One of those friends, who urged him four years ago to begin the practice of law in New York city, has since told him that, had he done so, enough business would have been thrown in his way to enable him to earn during the interim fully $300,000.
 It is also said in this connection that the reports which couple Mr. Reed's name with the secretaryship of state under the next administration are not well founded. Mr. Reed's purpose in resuming the practice of law would be to accumulate sufficient means to render him independent. But for this inducement he would remain in the house, where he has been for many years a brilliant party leader—an honor which he would not relinquish even for the glittering rewards of a presidency—Washington Post.

TOOK HER ON TRIAL.

This Unique Way of Marrying Almost Resulted in a Tragedy.
 William Timerson, a young man from Martville, Cayuga county, created much excitement at Wolcott, N. Y., lately.
 Nearly three months ago he became acquainted with Emma Price, the oldest daughter of John Price, and soon after agreed to marry her, provided he might take her on trial for a few months, or until May 1, he supporting her parents in the meantime. She was agreeable, and the authorities did not interfere. All went well until about ten days ago, when Timerson kicked Price and his wife out of doors, locked Emma in and went away. She escaped, borrowed Allen Moore's horse and wagon and got what she said were her things. Timerson returned this week, and after vainly trying to secure her arrest, gave her parents a second beating. Then he drew a revolver and chased Moore down the street for loaning the rig. The latter armed in turn, but bystanders interfered.
 Last night Emma's brother thrashed the bad man just as the police began to think of moving. His present whereabouts is unknown.—New York Recorder.

HE WANTED PIN MONEY.

Baltimore Man Jailed For Being Saucy to His Wife.
 How the new woman and the new man get along together in practical life was illustrated in a case before Police Justice Grannan of Baltimore the other day. Mrs. Ida Kuhn, a good looking woman, had her husband arrested on the charge of abusing her.
 Mrs. Kuhn, who is a collar maker, testified that she had supported herself and her family for 14 years. The husband said that while his wife worked at the factory he attended to the children, dressed and sent them to school and performed the other household duties. All he wanted was a little spending money on Saturday night, and it was the argument about this that led to his arrest. Mrs. Kuhn said she could get a girl to do the work her husband did for $1.25 a week, and she would not have to stand any impertinence.
 Justice Grannan fined Kuhn $1 and costs, and as his wife would not pay up he had to go to jail in default.—Chicago Times-Herald.

Senator Teller's Mother's Butter.

Senator Teller is one of that numerous class of men who are peculiarly fond of "mother's cooking." It happens that the senator's mother lives with him on his Colorado ranch and always superintends the butter making. The senator's wife is an excellent housekeeper, but sometimes things will go wrong in the kitchen, and on such occasions, it is said, Mrs. Teller passes the yellow dairy product to her husband and says brightly:
 "I'm sorry the dinner is not very good today, Henry, but here at least is some of your mother's butter."—New York Mail and Express.

Strikes and Organized Labor.
 Strikes are on the decrease in this country. The people are seeing that they do not pay. Another reason is that the relation of organized labor to labor in general is much less important than was for a long time supposed. According to Carroll D. Wright, there are in this country 15,000,000 wage earners, but of this number only 1,400,000 belong to organized labor.—Baltimore American.
