CATHEDRAL.

Rev. Jeremiah A. Maley celebrated solemn high mass at St. Patrick's Cathedral last Sunday. Rev. James P. Kiernan was deacon and Rev. George Eisler sub-deacon of the mass. Although it was the first mass the young priest celebrated, nevertheless he sang it as naturally and gracefully as though he were in the ministry a decade of years. His rich tenor voice was never heard with more pleasing effect, and at times, especially at the preface of the mass, his voice seemed to swell with emotion.

Father Maley was born in Pennsylvania, and spent the early years of his life in that village. When a boy of tender years he came to St. Andrew's preparatory seminary, spent the usual four years in studying the classics, and was graduated with high honors. From St. Andrew's he went to Troy, and when St. Bernard's seminary was opened he entered and finished a five years' course in philosophy and theology. As a boy Father Maley's conduct was always edifying to all, and he was looked up to as a model for the other boys of his age. As a student he was diligent and obedient to his professors and superiors, and his jovial and happy disposition always made him a favorite among his fellow students.

May success follow the young priest in whatever field of labor he may be assigned, is the sincere wish of his many friends.

"An Evening with Madonna" was the title of a social enjoyed by the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Tuesday evening at their room in Cathedral hall. The following ladies read interesting papers on the pictures of the Madonna: Misses M. Groff, B. O'Connell, A. E. O'Neill, M. Maher, A. O'Connor, L. Powers and M. Moyihan. Rev. James P. Kiernan, director of the society, very clearly described Madonna of the Immaculate Conception, which title the Sodality holds. Beautiful hymns were sung and an address of welcome was extended the class of '98 by Miss Anna O'Connor and responded to by Miss Lucie Sheridan in the name of her class. All then repaired to the opposite room, where refreshments were served.

The Living Rosary was well represented Sunday evening at the Cathedral by the societies, and a large number of girls were received into the Children of Mary, and 21 young ladies were transferred to the Sodality of the Blessed Virgin. A beautiful instruction was given the members after their reception, by Rev. J. P. Kiernan.

Our Rt. Rev. Bishop will administer the sacrament of confirmation to large class of children Sunday at 4 p. m.

After the parade Decoration day the Cathedral boys returned to the hall, where they were royally entertained by the girls of the school.

Miss Addie Beggy and George Caffrey, both of this city, were united in marriage at 1:45 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by Rev. James P. Kiernan. The bride was Miss Mary Lohney and the groomsmen Stewart Beggy, a brother of the bride. At the conclusion of the ceremony the newly married couple boarded the Empire State express for a trip through the eastern part of the state. Mr. and Mrs. Caffrey will reside in Rochester.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION.

There was a small fire at this church last Sunday morning shortly before high mass. Fathers Hughes and Gommenginger were in the vestry with Father McPadden, who was to celebrate his first mass there. In honor of the occasion the altar had been decorated with flowers, which hung from the chancel dome in wicker baskets. Two of the baskets swung over a row of gas jets protruding from the wall and ignited. Father Hughes saw the blaze from the vestry doors and rushed hurriedly into the chancel. He grasped one of them, Father Gommenginger taking the other, and the burning flower-baskets were thrown into the yard. No damage was done to the altar, although had it not been for the rare presence of mind of the two priests the flames might have done more serious damage.

Rev. Father McPadden, the newly ordained priest, who is a member of this parish and a graduate of the parish school, celebrated high mass Sunday at 10:30 o'clock. Fathers Gommenginger and Maher acted as deacon and sub-deacon. Father Gommenginger preached an eloquent sermon. The congregation manifested great pleasure in seeing these three young priests, so lately ordained, officiating at the altar together, as they are all members of this parish.

A large class of children received first Holy Communion last Sunday morning. Father O'Hare spoke a few words on the Blessed Sacrament and told the children that they should conduct their future lives in accordance with the example of our Blessed Lord.

Our church is undergoing repairing and decorating. It is anticipated that when completed it will present a handsome appearance. Father O'Hare is making every effort to have this work a complete success.

Arthur O'Connor officiated as master of ceremonies. The funeral was largely attended by friends and relatives of the deceased. The church choir sang the mass, assisted by Mrs. W. F. Rampe, late director of the choir, who rendered an affecting solo as the funeral procession passed out of the church. The honorary bearers were: Hon. Rev. Father Michael U. Dwyer, recently ordained a priest, said his first Mass in this church at 10:30 o'clock last Sunday morning. Father Dwyer was assisted by Rev. Fathers Hogan and Hickey. Father Hickey preached the sermon, a discourse singularly appropriate to the occasion, and was listened to with deep reverence by an unusually large number of worshippers. At the conclusion of the mass Father Dwyer gave his blessing to about 300 people.

Rev. Father Arthur O'Connor, who was ordained at Niagara Falls on Memorial day, will celebrate his first mass at this church next Sunday morning.

How $17,500 is Saved.

That shoe manufactured by M. T. Franey, 559 State street, intended expressly for the use of railroad men, has been placed in stock, and the sale has been something wonderful; so much so that he has ordered a new supply. As a bargain, railroad men save easily 40 per cent. by buying a pair of these shoes. It is estimated there are 5,300 men employed in this city in the railway service and as policemen and letter carriers. Saying they wear three pairs of shoes per year at $5.00, and by using Franey's railroad shoe two pairs a year will do at $2.00 per pair, there is a saving of about $17,500 to the buyers. You can easily verify this by calling at Franey's, 559 State street.
