Many people who had witnessed the robbery made a motion as though to stop them, but they kept the crowd back by threatening them with the revolvers, and as they neared the door the third man turned in an alarm of fire, and in the confusion all the men escaped, having secured about $500.

NEGROES BARRED OUT.

All St. Louis Hotels Closed to Colored Delegates.

HEAPS OF TROUBLE BREWING.

Unless Other Arrangements Are Quickly Made the Colored Men Will Not Be Able to Find a Respectable Place to Eat or Sleep.

ST. LOUIS, June 9.—What shall be done with the colored delegates and strangers with the national Republican convention is a question which is puzzling the members of the national committee who have arrived here as well as the Business Men's league which secured the convention to St. Louis.

Every hotel and boarding house has come out flat-footed and declared that it will entertain no negro guest or customer. Money is no object. Threats of prosecution have had no effect and from the present outlook it would seem that unless better arrangements are quickly made to give the colored men a place to eat and sleep, they will have to go hungry and unsheltered.

"I am thoroughly disgusted and discouraged," said National Committeeman J. G. Long of Florida, in speaking of the matter. "I have been looking all day long for a hotel, boarding house or cafe that would admit the negroes, but it has been a fruitless search. I even went as far as to try to charter a steamboat, but when the owners learned for what purpose it was wanted, they found an excuse for refusing me the use of the vessel. It is the first time in the history of the Republican party that such an embarrassing predicament has arisen."

When asked what the national committee would do in the matter he replied: "I have consulted with the members who are here and we have decided to offer a resolution as soon as the committee meets condemning the hotel and innkeepers and providing for the setting aside of a fund for renting a hall in which they shall be placed for the accommodation of the negroes who may come to the convention. We will also request the employment of cooks, etc., to supply them with food. This trouble has been brewing for nearly a week. A number of days ago it was learned by the Business Men's league that some of the leading hotels had been making agreements with certain state delegates when the landlords learned that negro delegates were numbered among them. It became so apparent that the negroes were being discriminated against that the league issued the following resolution: 'The Business Men's league, when in Washington securing the national Republican convention for St. Louis, promised that colored delegates and members of the national Republican executive committee should receive the same recognition from the hotels that any other delegate to the convention would receive. With this it was implied that the citizens representing the city, for securing the convention, would use endeavor to induce public houses, hotels, boarding houses and bath-rooms, at least for convention week, to accord to the reputable and respectable colored men who will come here representing their sections and their people in the Republican party such treatment as any reputable and respectable person should receive. It is not believed that a great many would want to accept the privileges, but it will be very humiliating if one of them with their colleagues and friends, or one should present himself in any public place and be refused admittance or service.'"

"It is hoped, expected and desired by the gentlemen representing the citizens who secured the convention that all will endeavor to meet the situation as justice and propriety require. Any parties failing to reserve accommodations will please report to the general hotel committee, C. C. Rainwater, chairman, or the bureau of information."

When the hotel men read this they were wrathful. They said it was an invitation to the colored delegates to prosecute them for damages. They went to the league committee on hotel accommodations and made a vigorous protest. Concerted action then followed, with the result that the negroes cannot find lodging places or even a reputable place to eat.

Major C. C. Rainwater, a member of the Business Men's league and of the local entertainment committee, is quite as much displeased with the turn affairs have taken as any member of the national committee.

He, with several other members of the local committee, has been hunting for a place to entertain the negro delegates, but without success.

Perry Heath and ex-Congressman Thompson, who are here in the interests of McKinley, are quite as much disturbed as the national committeemen. They have been in telegraphic communication with Messrs. A. Hanna all day, but as yet no solution of the problem has been reached.

PANIC IN A STREETCAR.

Mad Rush Caused by a Burning Fuse and Several Injured.

NEW YORK, June 8.—In a panic on a Brooklyn trolley car of the Nassau line two girls and a man were seriously injured and some 30 others bruised and cut.

The cause of it all was the burning out of a fuse. The car was going at a good rate of speed, when there was a loud report, followed a moment later by a blinding flash. Flames shot from beneath the body of the car, and the wood cracked ominously. There was another series of flashes, and then a woman screamed. Up to this moment the passengers had been sitting quietly in their seats, but the scream seemed to arouse some dormant fear. They made a blind rush from the car, and huddled aside weak women and weaker children, they dived madly to the street.

The three most severely hurt jumped from the car when it was moving swiftly. They were taken to a hospital. The injuries of the others consisted mostly of cuts and bruises.

Twenty were bruised and battered in a horrible fashion, one woman being taken to the hospital with injuries from which she cannot recover. A score or more were slightly hurt. The car started back wards, gathering speed as it went down the hill. The wildest excitement prevailed, the motorman could do nothing with the runaway. As usual, the brakes refused to work according to the conductor. After a mad career of nearly four blocks the flying car left the tracks with a terrific whirl and brought up against a telegraph pole. The car was wrecked.
