THREE PARDONS DENIED.

Pearles Swindlers Receive No Maran

From President Cleveland. WASHINGTON, July 1.4 The president has always shown a dispusition to deal severely with persons who defraud pen-storists and otherwise violate the pension laws, and this tendency is well exhibited in his section apera three applications for pardous in such cases, taken just before his departure from the capital. These were the cases of Andrew I. Rooks of Georgia, Paul A. Marcellino of New Mexico and Stephen O. W. Brandon Tennessee, all convicted of offenses against the pension laws. The president denied the application in each case

In the case of Marcelling the president writes. This convict was guilty, apparently, of nearly all the orlines and frauds denounced by our pension laws. He seems in every way possible to have swindied ignorant pensioners and imposed on the government The punishment meted out to him was well deserved and I cannot yield to the unthinking and irresponsible, appeal for his pardon."

As to Hooks case, the president writes. This convict personated a dead soldier, and through that means precured a pension and robbed the government. He was justly dealt with by the court and should suffer all the punishment awarded to

The indersement upon the application for Brandon's pardon reads. Denied, I am unwilling to pardon those who, in violation of our pension laws, overcharge applicants for pensions for the services they render in substantiating their ing Accident at Boston.

SHARON, Mass, June 89 -A boating acdent occurred on Lake Massapoag here which resulted in the drowning of four choir boys and the choir master of St. John's Episcopal church of Charlestown. They were members of a party consistorner and hal a for another car the ling of the assistant pastor, Rev. Joseph Maxwell, Choir Master Fred E. Brackett, clerk of the church, George A. Teayes and in choir boys of St John's church, > their camp with the intention of staying until Saturday. After dinner Mr Brackett and six boys went out in a boat and when about 40 feet from the shore one of the boys named

> 1 Charlestown, who arrived here and pitched

Harry Parker fell overboard 18 years old, seeing his companion sinking, jumped overboard and rescued the drowning boy and swam with him to

During the excitement the boat was overturned, and the cholemaster and four occupants were floundering in the water, and all were drowned. The bodies were afterwards recovered by guests of the Hotel Massapong The bodies were sent to their homes. The accident occurred so quickly that no outery was made by the boys to draw attention to them, as there was plenty of assistance close at hand if the slightest warning had been given.

ONLY FOUR DROWNED.

Fortunate Outcome of the Pler Academs at Boston.

BOSTON, June 80. - The small pier at Marine park, used; as a landing for the forry boats that ply between City Point and Governor's Island; was overcrowded by persons waiting for the ferry and wish ing so hire rowboate and it collapsed and many people were precipitated into the waser, esveral of them being reported

News of the socident was repolved at po lice headquarters and the police boat pro-tector and a firebest were immediately on dered to the scene to render all possible

There were more than 100 persons on the pier at the time of the accident. About 80 were thrown into the water: 28 were rescued, two being unconscious Four ware drowned

LATER-There was only one officer at the gangway tending to Sheldon's wharf. He found to an utter impossibility to control the mass of people which desired to take advantage of the passage given for free trips to and from the island. The small ferry steamer Ella was about to land at the wharf with a large crowd of passengers, when 200 or more on the small landing endeavored almost simultancously to reach the outer half of the landing where the boat was expected to Almost without warning the outer end began to sink and all those next to the island were able to get clear in time. This left the bulk of the weight on the outer end and it went down in about eight feet of water, completely turning over and leaving from 75 to 80 persons struggling in the water.

Sixteen children were rescued within two or three minutes, and a number who were fortunate enough to land in shallow water got out themselves. The body of a young son of Oliver Cole was recovered soon after the accident, but the bodies of the three others were not taken out until some time later. Two children were taken to the city hospital in an exhausted condition. Others who had been injured by the timbers and floaters were able to go

MABBEY, SCHOEFFEL AND GRAU.

Maeting of Creditors With Directors of the Metropolitan Opera House. NEW YORK, July 1 .- A meeting of the directors of the Metropolitan Opera House and the creditors of Abbey, Schoeffel & Grau took place at the office of George L Rives. The meeting was behind closed doors For more than two hours the directors and creditors sat in session and while authoritative and direct information is lacking, it is known that William Steinway, as chairman of the so-called bead justice of the committee, submitted a report by which it was shown that about 95 per cent of the Mesars. Abbey. Schooffel & Grau's creditors have agreed to accept the terms of compromise and aid toward the rehabilitation of the man-

There is good reason to believe that the agreement will be formally ratified in a short time, and once these formalities are concluded the opera house will be again turned over to the former lesses, and in all probability the same artists who appeared during the season of 1895-96 will he retained for the coming season. The claims of the dissatisfied creditors amount in the aggregate to about $10,000, and an effort will be made to satisfy these losses, so that the reorganization may go on. Beyoud the retention of the Tremont theater in Boston, it is believed that the reorgani ized firm will engage in no other ven-

Looks Like a Suicidal Attempt. STRATFORD, Ont., July 1.-Fred W. Byatt of Buffalo was found lying in Queen's park with a bullet hole in his head and in an uncornectous condition. After being restored to consciousness he was conveyed to the hospital and claimed to have fallen among thieves and been candbagged. Byatt formerly lived here and only moved to Buffalo a few months ago. He came over on Tuesday. Byatt was in the habit of carrying considerable money about with him, but none was found, though his watch and ring were intact. Cartridges were found in his pocket, but not a revolver. Three bullets were found embedded in a tree close by and on its roots dried blood. Fits of melancholy, to which he was subject, may have something to do with the matter, although no revolver can be found. Want Cecil Rhodes Reinstated. BULUWAYO, July 1.—The chamber of mines and of commerce are organizing a massmeeting here to petition the British South Africa company to reinstate Cecil. Rhodes, whose resignation was accepted last week.

aiming at any one who happened to come within range of his rifle, but without of First Lieutenant Clarke, Twelfth infantry, who was in D company's quarters, ordered Private Strine, Company D. a member of the guard, to shoot Weaver, which he did, the ball striking Weaver's rifle near the butt, shattering it and af terwards entering his body, from which he died within an hour. The only provocation known for the act is that a few days ago Weaver became engaged in an altereation with Private McEirov of tompany D. in which he followed McElroy into Company D barracks and was expelled therefrom by Sergeant Livingston. He swore vengeance on the sergeant at the time.

McKinley's Cares Increasing. CANTON, U., July 1-The parade of telegraph messengers to the McKinley home has increased. The governor has been the recipient of hundreds of telegrams and letters congratulating him upon his response to the notification com mittee. The indersements are warm in their commendations and come from all parts of the country. Governor McKinley's friends have been urging him for weeks to take a rest. The generally accepted idea was that he would accept an invitation to visit his cousin, Colonel W. M. Osbozne at Roxbury, near Boston. It is supposed that Colonel Osborne is to be secretary of the Republican national executive committee, but whether Governor Mckinley will leave for this vacation next Monday has not yet been deter | We claim to lead, let others follow if they can.
