Progress of the Church at Home and Abroad.

Work has been resumed on the new St. Peter's rectory at Ludlow, N. Y.

The Venerable Cardinal Tascheran of Canada is reported to be seriously ill.

Two magnificent side altars are to be placed in the Church of St. Agnes, East 43rd street, New York.

Rev. Edward J. Tierney, recently ordained in Rome, is now at Holy Rosary Church, East 119th street, New York.

A daring attempt to rob the Immaculate Conception Church in Philadelphia was made by two thieves, one of whom was captured.

Rev. William J. McClure, rector of the Immaculate Conception Church, Stapleton, Staten Island, is visiting points of interest in the West.

The death is announced of Very Rev. Nicholas Franz Sester, rector of the Church of the Sacred Heart, Dunkirk, N. Y. Father Sester was born in Alsace in 1825.

It is rumored in ecclesiastical circles that Monsignor O'Connell, former president of the American College, Rome, is to succeed Bishop Curtis in the See of Wilmington.

The Catholics of Portland, Oregon, are celebrating the golden jubilee of the establishment of their sea Archbishop Branchet governed the see for almost forty years after its foundation.

Plans for a banquet to Cardinal Satoli are being formed by the clergy and laity of Brooklyn. It is proposed to hold the celebration just before his Eminence sails for Rome to receive his insignia as Cardinal.

The Post Office Department at Washington has named a new office recently established in the Adirondacks "Gabriels," in honor of the learned Bishop of Ogdensburg, whose jurisdiction covers that famous summer resort.

M. Francis de Pressense, the well known writer on international politics and one of the most distinguished of French Journalists, has almost ready a volume on Cardinal Manning. M. de Pressense is a recent convert to Catholicism.

The Catholic Young Men's National Union will hold its national convention in New York City on September 22, 23 and 24. An effort is to be made to have a large attendance, not only of delegates, but also of the members in general.

Rev. John M. O'Leary of Haddon Heights, N. J., is about to build a new church. The structure will be of light colored stone, one story high, built in cruciform shape, with slate roof, stained glass windows, and seating room for about 600 persons.

Toronto, Canada, has already chosen its delegates to the convention of the Irish race in Dublin next September. The delegation will be headed by the aged Archbishop of Toronto, who will comply with the wishes of his people and attend the convention.

The First Band of the Transvaal Republic has rescinded an old resolution specially disqualifying Catholics from being appointed officials of the Republic. The measure was introduced by the Government and is regarded as a forward movement in the right direction.

A cablegram announces the death in Basle, Germany, of Rev. Father Edgelbert Stehle, rector of St. Joseph's Church, Cincinnati. He was born in Grolingen, Germany, in 1821, ordained in Paris in 1851, and ever since 1852 he has been pastor of St. Joseph's Church, Cincinnati, for a period of forty-four years.

Dorchester, Mass., will soon have another place of Catholic worship.

the old Grove Hall Universalist church, corner of Blue Hill avenue and Schuyler street, having been bought for that purpose. The edifice, after being fixed, will have accommodations for 300 worshippers. It is in St. Joseph's parish, Roxbury, of which the Rev. H. P. Smyth is permanent rector.

The growth of the Catholic Church in Australia is well illustrated by the fact that whereas at the beginning of this century there was not a single priest and but very few Catholics in that far-away land there are now to be found there a cardinal, 5 archbishops, 18 bishops, 610 priests, 7458 churches and chapels, over 700 schools and one hundred times that number of Catholics.

All four of the reverend gentlemen who have recently been made monsignori are connected with the Catholic press—Father Jessing being editor of the Walsentfreund, Vicar general Michelsleben being a director of the Amerika and the Herold des Glaubens, Father Hessoun being publisher of the Hlas (Bohemian), and Rev. Wm. Walsh being a heavy stockholder in the Church Progress.

Bishop Beaven of Springfield, Mass., has gone to Europe on a brief vacation. He will doubtless call on the Pope while abroad, but it is stated that he proposes to spend most of his time in Switzerland. The administration of the diocese will in the meanwhile devolve upon Very Rev. John J. Power, V. G., the venerable pastor of St. Paul's Church, Worcester, who held the vicar generalship under Bishop O'Reilly and has been continued therein by his successor.

The Negus of Abyssinia, though desirous of concluding a treaty, which would re-establish amicable relations with Italy, until such a treaty is signed has resolved not to free the prisoners of war. He has a profound veneration for the high character and great qualities of the head of the Catholic Church and is anxious to remain on friendly terms with him, but he is obliged to decline the request of the mission of the Holy Father which has arrived at Shoa asking for the liberation of the Italian prisoners.

Steps are already being taken in Ireland to appropriately commemorate the thirtieth anniversary of St. Columbkille, which occurs on June 9, 1897. An Irish exchange, referring to the proposed celebration, says: "Like St. Patrick and St. Malachy and St. Bridget, he is pre-eminently a national saint. Go where the traveler may—into Ulster, Munster, Leinster or Connaught—let him mingle with our peasantry when and where he will, he will find everywhere the same undying, unchangeable reverence for St. Columbkille."

The Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum Society of Brooklyn, N. Y., has made application to the Building Department for permits for eight new buildings on their grounds at St. Mark's and Troy avenues, to cost $234,000. The permits are divided up as follows: One fire-proof dormitory and class-room building, to cost $118,500; one hospital, $65,000; one work-room, $30,000; one reception building for boys, $10,800; one boiler-room and laundry building, $7,000; one passageway between two buildings, $1,100; two toilet buildings, $3,800 and $500 respectively.

By the kindly efforts of M. Bruester, the French Consul, the Government and people of France have been informed of the work of the Jeanne d'Arc Home, 251 West 24th street, New York, which institution affords a temporary home for French girls while seeking situations. The French Government, in compliment to Miss Catherine T. Smith, who founded this home in memory of her mother, has presented to her a valuable gold medal. The Very Rev. Theodore Wucher, of the Fathers of Mercy, who has been very zealous in the work of the Jeanne d'Arc Home, has also received a gold medal from the French Government.

KNIGHTS OF ST. JOHN

Field Day of Rochester and Buffalo Regiments at Batavia.

The First Regiment of the Knights of St. John of this city and the Second Regiment of Buffalo, with their wives and friends, went to Batavia Tuesday morning shortly after 10 o'clock, and held their field day at Agricultural park. Immediately on arrival at Batavia the knights formed in line and paraded from the station to the Central to Main, and up East Main to Ross street, counter-marching up West Main street to Agricultural park. Including the bands and drum corps, there were 450 men in line, and they presented a handsome appearance on the line of march, and a large crowd of Batavians witnessed it with a great deal of pleasure.

At the park during the afternoon a large crowd of Batavians went to take in the sports and the other features of the day. There were 110 knights from Rochester and 600 of their friends. They arrived at 10:15 a. m.

COL. H. N. SCHLICK.

a. m. The knights from Buffalo numbered 180, and they brought 700 of their friends. The line of march was headed by Officers Horach, McQuay and Griffin. Following them came Captain T. Lynch of Batavia and a committee of representatives of the Batavia Catholic societies.

The Rochester knights were in command of Col. Henry N. Schlick, and the Buffalo knights were in command of Col. John L. Schwartz and aides. The Rochester knights were headed by Minger band and the Buffalo knights were led by Tichendorff's band. The Knights of St. George bugle, life and drum corps brought up the rear.

The Batavia places of business were gaily decorated, and many residences were trimmed with flags and bunting for the occasion. Immediately upon arriving at the park the regiments disbanded and they at once retired to their tents, which had been placed in position the day before, and donned their fatigues uniforms. Tents were arranged about the park from which refreshments were dispensed, both solid and liquid. Many of the visitors brought their own refreshments and took their dinners under the trees in the grove. Dinners could also be had at the dining hall on the park. The dress parade and sports were indulged in during the afternoon, and the winners of the events were as follows:

Quarter-mile open, bicycle—O. J. Bauer, Rochester, won; G. J. Erma-tinger, Rochester, second; Bo-worth, Batavia, third.

One-hundred yard dash—O'Connell, Batavia, won; Buckholz, Batavia, second; Minger, Batavia, third.

Half-mile open, bicycle—Page, Batavia, won; Bosworth, Batavia, second; Lewis, Batavia, third.

440-yard dash, open—O'Connell, Batavia, won; Greening, Batavia, second; Miller, Rochester, third.

One-mile bicycle, open—Page, Batavia, won; Bosworth, Batavia, second; Rawson, Rochester, third.

Ball game—Rochester knights vs. Buffalo knights; score, 3 to 1 in favor of Rochester. Only one hit was made off J. Leisacker of this city.

HIBERNIANS AT AVON.

Arrangements for a Big Field Day of the Order.

The Avon Division of the Ancient Order of Hibernians will entertain the Livingston county association at Congress park on August 18th. A fine programme has been prepared. There will be a large parade in the morning, in which over 500 Hibernians are expected to participate.

The officers of the day are: President, James O. Quigley of Avon; vice-presidents, T. McDonnell of Genesee, Patrick W. McKee of Mt. Morris, Thomas E. Gallagher of Danville; treasurer, M. J. Ryan of Genesee; secretary, Benjamin F. Soley of Avon. P. E. Morgan, president of the Livingston county association, will act as marshal.

The following presidents from their respective counties will be assistant marshals: P. R. Murphy, Monroe county; John S. Kennedy, Steuben county; Dr. C. F. McCarthy, Genesee county; Frank S. Kingston, Allegany county; Thomas O'Brien, Wyoming county.

The parade will start from the park at 11 a. m., headed by mounted staff. The order of march is: Mt. Morris Cornet band, Livingston county staff; Hibernian E. files in uniform, from Monroe county, in command of Capt. J. E. Burke; military band; Monroe county Hibernian Knights; Avon Division, preceding Danville, Genesee and State of doors.

After the parade speeches will be made by members.

Among the speakers are Mayor James K. McGuire of Syracuse, John J. Haynes and W. J. Shields of Buffalo. There will be all kinds of field sports and races.

Auxiliary No. 1 held a most excellent meeting on last Monday evening, and the room was filled to overflowing with an enthusiastic membership. The meetings of No. 1 are always pleasant and harmonious, which accounts for the large attendance. On next Tuesday will be held the first annual picnic of this auxiliary, and a very enjoyable time is expected. The affair will be held at Congress park, Avon, N. Y., which is one of the most beautiful picnic grounds in the state, and all attending will be amply rewarded. A hustling committee has the affair in charge, and no expense will be spared to make it a success. A courteous invitation is extended to all members of the different auxiliaries, and brother Hibernians are also expected to be on hand and participate in the festivities, as on this occasion the Hibernians of Livingston county will have their field day. By all means turn out in large numbers next Tuesday. Tickets for sale at Erie depot at 9:30 a. m. and 1:30 p. m., for the small sum of 25 cents.

Errors Catholic Journal:

Dear Sir: As a subscriber and member of the O. E. & B. A. I was very much surprised that you failed to publish in your paper last week the proceedings of the Supreme Council of the O. E. & B. A. held in Auburn recently, as there was a large number very much interested, myself together with a large number of subscribers for your paper, assuming that your paper was published in the interests of the Catholic organizations of this city, and that members might reasonably expect that all the items of interest connected with their organizations would be published by you. As you have failed to do so in this instance, will you kindly explain why, because if you do not I, together with a large number of subscribers connected with the O. E. & B. A. will be obliged to withdraw our subscriptions.

A Broomstick

There is one inflexible rule in every newspaper office, and that is not to publish anonymous communications of any kind, much less to answer them, but we will overlook the omission of the subscriber's name this time for the reason that we imagine we are aware of the source from which the communication emanated. In reply to the subscriber we would say that if he had had the official proceedings sent to this office we would willingly have given them space. As it was we published a short report of what occurred in our Auburn letter of last week, as "Subscribers" will find.

reading the paper. We cannot afford to send a reporter to every society meeting that takes place, and if O. E. & B. A. members, or members of other societies wish to have their doings reported they should at least see that the report reaches the editor and in time for publication, ways signed in every instance with name, not necessarily for publication, but as evidence of good faith.
