

Like a Ship in rough sea. I suffered from heart disease for 5 years, so that I often felt as if the top of my head came off and my left leg seemed to go into the ground...

FREE Valuable Book on Nervous Diseases and a sample bottle to any address. This remedy has been prepared by the Rev. Father Koenig, of Fort Union, Ind., since 1856, and is now under his direction by...

Knowing that the unfortunate have been imposed upon by the unprincipled pretenders who charge largely in advance.

DR. GRADY

Has adopted this plan: That he will charge nothing for advice, consultation or treatment until the patient pronounces himself well. The only charge being made for medicines used during treatment.

Last Month Free. Dr. Grady will give consultation and advice free during August. After this month the usual consultation fee of $2 will be charged to all new cases.

More Cures. His remarkable success is the talk of all Rochester. Something that confounds the best philosophical experts. The sick are cured and the skeptic left to wonder. He cures after all others fail.

Mr. John Lee, of 13 Waverly place, suffered with catarrh and is now entirely cured. He is one of the colored waiters at Powers hotel, is a Mason and is a frequent visitor to the Baroka lodge of Masons of this city.

Miss Nellie Walsh, cross eyes all her life. Dr. Grady operated on them and they are now perfect.

Mr. Charles Strick of 1 Bismark place will tell you of a wonderful cure in his case of catarrh and threatened consumption. He is now absolutely cured.

Miss Lydia Coniff returned home last week after a six weeks' sojourn in Rochester, Pa. Her aunt, Mrs. Brinkley, accompanied her home.

Messrs. Arthur Coniff and Will Sullivan attended the ball game at Palmyra Saturday.

Ed Guldrich rode to Rochester on his wheel Sunday.

Miss Maggie Howland of Fairport spent last week with her cousins, Misses Maggie and Liza Fogarty.

Miss Marie Reynolds is home again after a prolonged visit with her sister, Mrs. Mitchell, in Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. James Duggan visited Mrs. Duggan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tobin, in Fairport, Saturday.

Fred Dooley and mother and Mr. Miller of Rochester spent a few days the first half of the week with Mr. and Mrs. John Coniff and family.

Misses Frances and Tessie Sullivan entertained friends from Shortsville Sunday.

Katherine, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kerou Downey, was drowned in the canal last week Tuesday. The funeral took place on Thursday from St. Anne's church, Palmyra. She was a bright little girl and the family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mrs. Jessie Maloney of Rochester visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Sarah Daley and son, James Leon, are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McGreal at Macedon Centre.

Thomas Cummings, a resident of this place, was struck by the car at Fairport last Sunday. He was taken to Rochester and placed in the City Hospital, where at present writing he lies in a very critical condition, with but small hopes for his recovery. He has a wife and four children.

Miss Minnie Maxwell attended the Macabees' reunion at Windsor Beach Tuesday of last week. Her mother accompanied her and remained for a week's visit with Mrs. Annie McGreal in Rochester.

Penn Yan. Misses Mary and Kate Dewan are spending their vacation with friends in Kingston, Canada.

Miss Nora Ryan is spending a week with a party of friends at Central Point on Lake Keuka.

Miss Loretta Scanlon of LeRoy is the guest of her sister, Mrs. H. J. McAdams. A pleasant dancing party was given in the C. M. B. A. rooms in honor of Miss Scanlan.

DIOCESAN NEWS.

From Our Special Correspondents

Geneva. Miss Lottie Toner of Willard, who has been the guest of her sister, Miss Belle Toner, composer on the Daily Times in Geneva, has returned to her home.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. James Chapman of Centre street was gladdened on Saturday night by the arrival of another little daughter, Congratulation.

Miss Margaret O'Malley, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael O'Malley of the Hoffman House, is visiting relatives and friends in Dundee.

On Tuesday next, August 18th, at the home of the bride's parents on Putney street, will occur the marriage of Miss Belle, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Urquhart, to John Watson, a prominent and highly estimable young man of this town. They will leave on the evening train for a brief honeymoon which will be spent in Canada.

Miss Julia Lynch of North Main street has accepted a position as clerk in the Wide Awake store on Castle street.

Mr. and Mrs. William Walters and daughter Norma of St. Louis, who have been the guests of Mr. Walters' parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Sparrow of North ave., have returned home after a very pleasant visit here.

Misses Mamie Sullivan and Stasia McDonald of Rochester are visiting at the home of F. F. Moore.

Miss Minnie McCloud left on Monday morning for Keuka Landing, where she spent the week in camp, accompanied by a sister of her friends from Penn Yan and Elmira. They are chaperoned by Mrs. Mahar of Penn Yan.

Misses Sarah Murphy and Marguerite Curran of Auburn, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Welch, have returned home.

Miss Winifred Fenell of Buffalo is spending her vacation in Geneva, the guest of Miss Helen Gallagher.

Sodus Point. School meeting here this year passed off very quietly. Edmund Hill, superintendent of the Parsons' Maltting company, was elected, while Clarence de Ville, a leading merchant who ran on the opposing side, was defeated.

Rev. Father Ruby of Fair Haven was the guest of Rev. D. W. Kavanaugh during the past week.

A silver debate was held in the school house Saturday evening. Several free silver republicans spoke.

High mass was celebrated Sunday at St. Rose's Catholic church by Rev. D. W. Kavanaugh. A large number of campers from Elmira, Lyons and Newark attended mass.

Miss May O'Sullivan of Sodas Centre spent Sunday here, the guest of Mrs. J. Mann.

Miss Alice Mooney of Toronto is the guest of Miss Bessie Fatherly of the place. Macedon.

Miss Maggie Lawlor is visiting in Shortsville.

Miss Anna Krag of Bushnell's Basin is spending some time at Mr. C. Sullivan's.

Miss Marie Fogarty returned home last Sunday after a week's stay with her brother in Fairport.

Miss Lydia Coniff returned home last week after a six weeks' sojourn in Rochester, Pa. Her aunt, Mrs. Brinkley, accompanied her home.

Messrs. Arthur Coniff and Will Sullivan attended the ball game at Palmyra Saturday.

Ed Guldrich rode to Rochester on his wheel Sunday.

Miss Maggie Howland of Fairport spent last week with her cousins, Misses Maggie and Liza Fogarty.

Miss Marie Reynolds is home again after a prolonged visit with her sister, Mrs. Mitchell, in Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. James Duggan visited Mrs. Duggan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tobin, in Fairport, Saturday.

Fred Dooley and mother and Mr. Miller of Rochester spent a few days the first half of the week with Mr. and Mrs. John Coniff and family.

Misses Frances and Tessie Sullivan entertained friends from Shortsville Sunday.

Katherine, the 13-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kerou Downey, was drowned in the canal last week Tuesday. The funeral took place on Thursday from St. Anne's church, Palmyra. She was a bright little girl and the family have the sympathy of the entire community.

Mrs. Jessie Maloney of Rochester visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Sarah Daley and son, James Leon, are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Patrick McGreal at Macedon Centre.

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

Interesting Paragraphs Concerning the Doings of Our Friends Across the Ocean.

Gathered from All Parts of the Emerald Isle.

CONNAUGHT

GALWAY. One of the old stock of Tuam died lately in the person of Mrs. Mary Greally, Galway road, aged 84 years. Interment took place at Claretuan, attended by a large and respectable funeral.

A shocking affair is reported from Bealadangan, in the district of Spiddal. On the occasion of what is known as a "wake," or the spree given when persons are going to America, a row occurred, and a young fellow named Noe was killed, and another seriously injured. Three parties of the name of McDonagh have been arrested.

LETRIM.

Rev. J. Kelly presided at last meeting of the Drumshambo I. N. F. Following members were present: P. Early, treasurer; F. Conway, hon. sec.; J. Moran, assistant sec.; J. Healy, J. Cooney, J. Hyland, J. Campbell, J. Nangle, T. Mahon, etc. The secretary produced a check for £4 from the Evicted Tenants' Committee for the three evicted tenants of the parish—£2 to Charles Reynolds, £1 each to Farrell Ryan and James Murray.

MAYO.

Among the new Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons of England appears the name of Mr. R. Bodkin Mahon of Ballinrobe. Dr. Mahon is a distinguished graduate of the Royal University of Ireland, and grandson of the late Thomas Bodkin of Tuillinalady.

ROSCOMMON.

Mr. L. P. Hayden has been elected chairman of the Roscommon Town Commissioners for the seventeenth time.

Mr. Harris Lewis, Sr. Royle, died lately at the age of sixty-six years, from the effects of a paralytic stroke. The funeral to Assinifin Cemetery was representative of all creeds and classes in the district.

SLIGO.

A boy named Coggins was drowned in Ballisodare Bay recently. He, with other boys went to bathe, and going beyond his depth, was lost before his companions could rescue him.

WEXFORD.

Mr. Edwin N. Edwards, fourth son of the late Thomas Edwards, Esq., of Uonbaston House, Ennis-cordry, has been admitted a solicitor of the Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland.

WICKLOW.

The Rev. Father Curran, parish priest of Blessington, West Wicklow, who is taking a brief holiday, spent a few days in his native town of Dunganary, county Waterford, and paid a visit to Mount Mellary. Father Curran is a popular and well-beloved "Sogarth Aroon" in the county of the O'Byrne.

MUNSTER.

Mr. Frank Moynihan, accountant in the National Bank, Milltownmalbay, was recently made the recipient of a handsome piece of plate—a beautiful chased silver salver—from a few of his Milltownmalbay friends, on the occasion of his marriage.

CLARE.

A young man named Michael Crowley, aged nineteen, was accidentally drowned in Tralee recently. Deceased, who was son of a pilot, was in charge of a boat, the property of Mr. E. W. Hickson, agent to the Limerick Steamship Company, which was moored near the lock gates. At 11 o'clock Crowley proceeded to go on board by means of a plank, when he missed his footing and fell into the water. The body was recovered next morning.

CORK.

With thorough and characteristic earnestness, the Nationalists of Cork have thrown themselves into the work of organizing the branches of the National Federation, so as to secure a proper representation at the great Irish National Convention in September. A splendid meeting has been held in Cork, in furtherance of the movement, and committees of prominent Nationalists are already earnestly at work. Meetings have also been held in Mitchelstown and other centres of National opinion. The clergy are energetically aiding the movement. At all the meetings resolutions urging unity of the whole Irish race, for the cause of motherland, were unanimously adopted.

LIMERICK.

A movement has been carried through in Limerick for the early closing of the monster drapery houses. Nearly all the big houses now close on Saturday at 6 o'clock. The assistants of the other shops are anxious to have the benefit extended to themselves, and placards and handbills are being distributed through the city with that object in view.

TIPPERARY.

A scheme is on hand at present to float the debt of the Clonmel Corporation, and for this purpose redeemable stock (to the extent of £500,000) is to be created, subject to the provisions and regulations of the Local Government Board, to raise money to repay the outstanding loans of the corporation, and also to raise the money authorized by the Clonmel Corporation Act of 1895, and other sums which they have power to raise. The scheme has been a good while under consideration, and the mayor has called a special meeting to take action in the matter.

WATERFORD.

Considerable interest is attached in the county Waterford to the pending appointment of a Baronia High Constable, an office which has been rendered vacant by the resignation of Col. Holroyd Smith.

ULSTER.

It is stated that a project of a central railway station for Belfast will soon be put forward again. The former project fell through, partly owing to the opposition of the late Mr. John Robb.

ARMAGH.

The members of St. Vincent's Band, Lurgan, while marching through Derrymacash a few days ago were wantonly attacked by rabid Orangemen. Joseph Conolly was seriously injured with a stone.

CAVAN.

William D. Dillon, Island Bridge, aged 83 years, died recently. The remains were conveyed from Dublin by rail, and interred in the cemetery at Ballymaugh, Killyleck.

DERRY.

The Coleraine Town Commissioners have passed a unanimous resolution condemning the "caging of the Giant's Causeway," as an unwarrantable encroachment on public rights.

DONEGAL.

The body of Mr. Herbert Allingham, who was drowned in the boating accident at Ballyshannon, was recently washed ashore at Malin Bay.

DOWN.

Rev. Father O'Hare, Newry, on his return from the United States was presented with a beautiful address by the members of the Catholic Literary Club.

FERMANAGH.

At the recent Eniskillen dog show Mr. Nuttall's Irish red-setter, Loretta, won first and special.

MONAGHAN.

Mrs. Patrick McGorak of Drum-horey, Carrickmacross, died recently, widely regretted.

TYRONE.

News reached Ballygawley recently of a most determined resistance offered to the sheriff's men and the Royal Irish Constabulary while making a seizure for rent, by a tenant named Thomas Giles, in the townland of Keady. In the conflict which ensued, between the police and people, three constables were badly injured, and one had his rifle smashed. The bailiffs also received ugly wounds, and had to beat a hasty retreat.

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

Interesting Paragraphs Concerning the Doings of Our Friends Across the Ocean.

Gathered from All Parts of the Emerald Isle.

CONNAUGHT

GALWAY. One of the old stock of Tuam died lately in the person of Mrs. Mary Greally, Galway road, aged 84 years. Interment took place at Claretuan, attended by a large and respectable funeral.

A shocking affair is reported from Bealadangan, in the district of Spiddal. On the occasion of what is known as a "wake," or the spree given when persons are going to America, a row occurred, and a young fellow named Noe was killed, and another seriously injured. Three parties of the name of McDonagh have been arrested.

LETRIM.

Rev. J. Kelly presided at last meeting of the Drumshambo I. N. F. Following members were present: P. Early, treasurer; F. Conway, hon. sec.; J. Moran, assistant sec.; J. Healy, J. Cooney, J. Hyland, J. Campbell, J. Nangle, T. Mahon, etc. The secretary produced a check for £4 from the Evicted Tenants' Committee for the three evicted tenants of the parish—£2 to Charles Reynolds, £1 each to Farrell Ryan and James Murray.

MAYO.

Among the new Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons of England appears the name of Mr. R. Bodkin Mahon of Ballinrobe. Dr. Mahon is a distinguished graduate of the Royal University of Ireland, and grandson of the late Thomas Bodkin of Tuillinalady.

ROSCOMMON.

Mr. L. P. Hayden has been elected chairman of the Roscommon Town Commissioners for the seventeenth time.

Mr. Harris Lewis, Sr. Royle, died lately at the age of sixty-six years, from the effects of a paralytic stroke. The funeral to Assinifin Cemetery was representative of all creeds and classes in the district.

SLIGO.

A boy named Coggins was drowned in Ballisodare Bay recently. He, with other boys went to bathe, and going beyond his depth, was lost before his companions could rescue him.

WEXFORD.

Mr. Edwin N. Edwards, fourth son of the late Thomas Edwards, Esq., of Uonbaston House, Ennis-cordry, has been admitted a solicitor of the Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland.

WICKLOW.

The Rev. Father Curran, parish priest of Blessington, West Wicklow, who is taking a brief holiday, spent a few days in his native town of Dunganary, county Waterford, and paid a visit to Mount Mellary. Father Curran is a popular and well-beloved "Sogarth Aroon" in the county of the O'Byrne.

MUNSTER.

Mr. Frank Moynihan, accountant in the National Bank, Milltownmalbay, was recently made the recipient of a handsome piece of plate—a beautiful chased silver salver—from a few of his Milltownmalbay friends, on the occasion of his marriage.

CLARE.

A young man named Michael Crowley, aged nineteen, was accidentally drowned in Tralee recently. Deceased, who was son of a pilot, was in charge of a boat, the property of Mr. E. W. Hickson, agent to the Limerick Steamship Company, which was moored near the lock gates. At 11 o'clock Crowley proceeded to go on board by means of a plank, when he missed his footing and fell into the water. The body was recovered next morning.

CORK.

With thorough and characteristic earnestness, the Nationalists of Cork have thrown themselves into the work of organizing the branches of the National Federation, so as to secure a proper representation at the great Irish National Convention in September. A splendid meeting has been held in Cork, in furtherance of the movement, and committees of prominent Nationalists are already earnestly at work. Meetings have also been held in Mitchelstown and other centres of National opinion. The clergy are energetically aiding the movement. At all the meetings resolutions urging unity of the whole Irish race, for the cause of motherland, were unanimously adopted.

LIMERICK.

A movement has been carried through in Limerick for the early closing of the monster drapery houses. Nearly all the big houses now close on Saturday at 6 o'clock. The assistants of the other shops are anxious to have the benefit extended to themselves, and placards and handbills are being distributed through the city with that object in view.

TIPPERARY.

A scheme is on hand at present to float the debt of the Clonmel Corporation, and for this purpose redeemable stock (to the extent of £500,000) is to be created, subject to the provisions and regulations of the Local Government Board, to raise money to repay the outstanding loans of the corporation, and also to raise the money authorized by the Clonmel Corporation Act of 1895, and other sums which they have power to raise. The scheme has been a good while under consideration, and the mayor has called a special meeting to take action in the matter.

WATERFORD.

Considerable interest is attached in the county Waterford to the pending appointment of a Baronia High Constable, an office which has been rendered vacant by the resignation of Col. Holroyd Smith.

ULSTER.

It is stated that a project of a central railway station for Belfast will soon be put forward again. The former project fell through, partly owing to the opposition of the late Mr. John Robb.

ARMAGH.

The members of St. Vincent's Band, Lurgan, while marching through Derrymacash a few days ago were wantonly attacked by rabid Orangemen. Joseph Conolly was seriously injured with a stone.

CAVAN.

William D. Dillon, Island Bridge, aged 83 years, died recently. The remains were conveyed from Dublin by rail, and interred in the cemetery at Ballymaugh, Killyleck.

DERRY.

The Coleraine Town Commissioners have passed a unanimous resolution condemning the "caging of the Giant's Causeway," as an unwarrantable encroachment on public rights.

DONEGAL.

The body of Mr. Herbert Allingham, who was drowned in the boating accident at Ballyshannon, was recently washed ashore at Malin Bay.

DOWN.

Rev. Father O'Hare, Newry, on his return from the United States was presented with a beautiful address by the members of the Catholic Literary Club.

FERMANAGH.

At the recent Eniskillen dog show Mr. Nuttall's Irish red-setter, Loretta, won first and special.

MONAGHAN.

Mrs. Patrick McGorak of Drum-horey, Carrickmacross, died recently, widely regretted.

TYRONE.

News reached Ballygawley recently of a most determined resistance offered to the sheriff's men and the Royal Irish Constabulary while making a seizure for rent, by a tenant named Thomas Giles, in the townland of Keady. In the conflict which ensued, between the police and people, three constables were badly injured, and one had his rifle smashed. The bailiffs also received ugly wounds, and had to beat a hasty retreat.

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

Interesting Paragraphs Concerning the Doings of Our Friends Across the Ocean.

Gathered from All Parts of the Emerald Isle.

CONNAUGHT

GALWAY. One of the old stock of Tuam died lately in the person of Mrs. Mary Greally, Galway road, aged 84 years. Interment took place at Claretuan, attended by a large and respectable funeral.

A shocking affair is reported from Bealadangan, in the district of Spiddal. On the occasion of what is known as a "wake," or the spree given when persons are going to America, a row occurred, and a young fellow named Noe was killed, and another seriously injured. Three parties of the name of McDonagh have been arrested.

LETRIM.

Rev. J. Kelly presided at last meeting of the Drumshambo I. N. F. Following members were present: P. Early, treasurer; F. Conway, hon. sec.; J. Moran, assistant sec.; J. Healy, J. Cooney, J. Hyland, J. Campbell, J. Nangle, T. Mahon, etc. The secretary produced a check for £4 from the Evicted Tenants' Committee for the three evicted tenants of the parish—£2 to Charles Reynolds, £1 each to Farrell Ryan and James Murray.

MAYO.

Among the new Fellows of the Royal College of Surgeons of England appears the name of Mr. R. Bodkin Mahon of Ballinrobe. Dr. Mahon is a distinguished graduate of the Royal University of Ireland, and grandson of the late Thomas Bodkin of Tuillinalady.

ROSCOMMON.

Mr. L. P. Hayden has been elected chairman of the Roscommon Town Commissioners for the seventeenth time.

Mr. Harris Lewis, Sr. Royle, died lately at the age of sixty-six years, from the effects of a paralytic stroke. The funeral to Assinifin Cemetery was representative of all creeds and classes in the district.

SLIGO.

A boy named Coggins was drowned in Ballisodare Bay recently. He, with other boys went to bathe, and going beyond his depth, was lost before his companions could rescue him.

WEXFORD.

Mr. Edwin N. Edwards, fourth son of the late Thomas Edwards, Esq., of Uonbaston House, Ennis-cordry, has been admitted a solicitor of the Supreme Court of Judicature in Ireland.

WICKLOW.

The Rev. Father Curran, parish priest of Blessington, West Wicklow, who is taking a brief holiday, spent a few days in his native town of Dunganary, county Waterford, and paid a visit to Mount Mellary. Father Curran is a popular and well-beloved "Sogarth Aroon" in the county of the O'Byrne.

MUNSTER.

Mr. Frank Moynihan, accountant in the National Bank, Milltownmalbay, was recently made the recipient of a handsome piece of plate—a beautiful chased silver salver—from a few of his Milltownmalbay friends, on the occasion of his marriage.

CLARE.

A young man named Michael Crowley, aged nineteen, was accidentally drowned in Tralee recently. Deceased, who was son of a pilot, was in charge of a boat, the property of Mr. E. W. Hickson, agent to the Limerick Steamship Company, which was moored near the lock gates. At 11 o'clock Crowley proceeded to go on board by means of a plank, when he missed his footing and fell into the water. The body was recovered next morning.

CORK.

With thorough and characteristic earnestness, the Nationalists of Cork have thrown themselves into the work of organizing the branches of the National Federation, so as to secure a proper representation at the great Irish National Convention in September. A splendid meeting has been held in Cork, in furtherance of the movement, and committees of prominent Nationalists are already earnestly at work. Meetings have also been held in Mitchelstown and other centres of National opinion. The clergy are energetically aiding the movement. At all the meetings resolutions urging unity of the whole Irish race, for the cause of motherland, were unanimously adopted.

LIMERICK.

A movement has been carried through in Limerick for the early closing of the monster drapery houses. Nearly all the big houses now close on Saturday at 6 o'clock. The assistants of the other shops are anxious to have the benefit extended to themselves, and placards and handbills are being distributed through the city with that object in view.

TIPPERARY.

A scheme is on hand at present to float the debt of the Clonmel Corporation, and for this purpose redeemable stock (to the extent of £500,000) is to be created, subject to the provisions and regulations of the Local Government Board, to raise money to repay the outstanding loans of the corporation, and also to raise the money authorized by the Clonmel Corporation Act of 1895, and other sums which they have power to raise. The scheme has been a good while under consideration, and the mayor has called a special meeting to take action in the matter.

WATERFORD.

Considerable interest is attached in the county Waterford to the pending appointment of a Baronia High Constable, an office which has been rendered vacant by the resignation of Col. Holroy