FIVE DEAD, MANY WOUNDED.

Result of the Bloody Riots at the Leadville Mines.

LEADVILLE, Colo., Sept. 22 - Five dead bodies lying at the morgue and half a dozen wounded with damage to property of $25,000, are the visible effects of Sunday's lawlessness. It is believed that when all is known the list of dead and injured will considerably exceed these figures. Everything is quiet now the camp being practically under military rule.

The fifth name was added to the death list last evening by discovery of the body of Michael Daugherty near the Emmett mine, where he fell in the attack of the rioters upon the Emmett while dashed with their victory at the coronado.

There are many people in upper windows and on house roofs, provided with glasses, who in the brilliant moonlight saw the attack on the Emmett and the repulse of the rioters. These witnesses say the first volley from the mine was delivered at close range and that the attacking party fell like grain before the shrapnel. How many met the fate of Daugherty it may remain for search of a long abandoned shaft in that vicinity to tell. It now seems that the rioters dragged away their dead and wounded.

Arrived at the entrance of the castle grounds of Balmoral, the servants of the castle and the Balmoral and Cripple Creek volunteers led the procession of carriages with flaming torches. Three other bonfires on the adjoining peaks illuminated the mountain side with a glare of light.

Balmoral castle was reached thus without any incident. The queen and Princess Beatrice received their imperial guests at the door of the castle and the warmest greetings were exchanged, the baggage meantime stounding a shrill welcome and the torches carried by the servants being thrust high in the air. Before the Russian party disappeared within doors the torchbearers marched past them in single file.

Further Details of the Fall of Dongola.

DERVISHES HAD FLED THE CITY

British Gunboats Started to Bombard, but Found No Defense and Promptly Occupied the City - Other Interesting Foreign Happenings.

EL HAFIR, on the Nile, Sept. 20 - The following official details of the capture of Dongola, the de vish stronghold, have been obtained.

The gunboats engaged in the capture of Dongola were the Tantal, commanded by Rougemont, after Naval Commander Colville was wounded. Atoukba, commanded by Hearty and Matabouch, commanded by Othman. They arrived here late in the afternoon. Colville and Hearty who assumed command of the three gunboats, reports as follows:

We arrived at Dongola early in the morning and made fast to the east bank. By this time the dervishes had resumed continuing the operations against Dongola with the intention of storming it at 24 yards range. We immediately perceived that Dongola was not defended and a force was landed which captured a quantity of treasure all the dervish boats and also seven grain laden boats.

I was now able to see the effect of the dervish fire on the gunboats. The Matabouch was struck by one shell, which injured her gun fittings and her boiler, breaking the safety valve.

The dervishes' rifle fire was essentially good. The wooden part of the upper decks was simply riddled with bullets and the sides of all the gunboats showed hundreds of hits.

Hearty received a bullet through his helmet, and Armorer Richardson was wounded in the body. He has since died.

On board the Tantal five men were wounded, on the Atoukba six men were wounded, and one man was wounded on the Matabouch.

Commander Colville is recovering rapidly.

At the time Wed. Bishara was wounded he had just received a letter from the khalfa, and he ordered out of his tent every body except the messenger who had brought the letter and two blacks shortly after wards a shell from one of the gunboats burst in the tent, killing the messenger and the two blacks and wounding the dervish leader in the chest and head.

The main body of Anglo-Egyptian troops, under Sir Herbert Kitchener, started for Dongola last night.

The story has only leaked out, although the outrage, according to the police, was committed on Sept. 9.

The Huntsmans were under threats and were afraid to communicate to the authorities the story, but neighbors learned of the facts and informed the police.

The facts, as reported to the police, are that two of the Huntsman children coming from the postoffice were picked up on the road by two men in a buggy and accused of stealing a pocketbook containing $50.

The next night a party of men came to the Huntsman house, and after calling Huntsman out of bed seized and dragged him outside and beat and abused him in a frightful manner.

Then they forced him to a grave, and putting him in covered him with earth. After a while they dug him up again. Then they beat and abused him a second time and finally buried him again.

Then they dug him up for a second time and again washed him and then drove him away. The two children were also lashed. The affair occurred about midnight. Huntsman is a respectable well-to-do farmer.
