WORK OF THE HURRICANE

Death and Disaster Reported From Many Sections as a Result of the Big Storm Which swept Up From the Gulf.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Reports received from the suburban towns about Washington show that great damage was done by the storm through the surrounding country.

At the Catholic university just outside the city the new dormitory, in process of erection, was demolished.

At Brookland, a few miles out, the town hall was partially destroyed and many other buildings were unroofed and otherwise damaged.

On the outskirts of the city few localities escaped.

The train shed at Alexandria was blown down and the debris is across the tracks. Hence the trains that left Washington over the southern railway and the Chesapeake and Ohio have not passed Alexandria.

Three trains due in Washington from Southern points on the Southern, Chesapeake and Ohio and Atlantic Coast line have not been heard from and are supposed to be somewhere south of Alexandria.

In this city the papal legation was unroofed and the Chinese legation was damaged about $1,500. Communication by telegraph and telephone with the outside world is absolutely stopped.

Reports from Rockville, Md., and other small places along the Metropolitan branch of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad show that the storm did great damage, but no loss of life was reported.

The Episcopal church in Rockville was destroyed and a tree fell upon the Episcopal parsonage, wrecking a portion of it.

Houses were unroofed and trees blown down in all the smaller towns outside of Washington.

Great damage is reported in the farming districts, where all grains in stack or shock have been strewn over the land.

Many barns have been blown down. The White House was slightly injured by the storm, a portion of the copper roofing stripped off and other damage done. The tall flagstaff from which the signal was given to the city that the president was in town, disappeared completely.

In the beautiful grounds surrounding the house 35 of the splendid trees, blinis, sycamores, walnuts and magnolias, some of great age and of historical associations, are completely leveled, while full 50 of the surviving trees suffered the loss of their tops and principal branches and are permanently defaced.

The vast pile occupied by the state, war and navy departments was touched on the southern side of the storm and lost portions of its roofing and many of the states, while a structure erected by the signal service for the study of clouds was partially demolished.

The new naval observatory building suffered in the same fashion to the extent of $1,800. At the Washington navy yard the big ship house was partially unroofed, and the gun shops were damaged slightly by the stripping of the roof.

A special bulletin issued by the weather bureau states that for one minute the wind reached a velocity of 80 miles an hour.

DISASTERS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

Have Wrought by the Wind and Rain at Many Points.

LANCASTER, Pa., Oct. 1.—Telegraphic and telephonic communication has been established with the surrounding country and the later reports confirm the earlier advice of the wide extent of the cyclonic disturbance. Every section of the county has been heard from and the story is that ruin rode in the wake of the gale.

An estimate of the total loss is necessarily speculative, there does not seem any doubt that it will easily reach $1,000,000 and may largely exceed that amount.

In this city the individual losses are, as a rule, comparatively small, but there are hundreds of them which will make the aggregate great. The wind roared through the streets with a noise like thunder, and houses literally rocked upon their foundations.

During the two hours of terror, which kept a large part of the population awake, the air was filled with bricks, stones, slate, timbers and roofs of heavy sheet iron and tin, while gigantic trees were ripped up by the roots and tossed about like toys.

The storm outside the city was scarcely less severe and of course the destruction of the Pennsylvania railroad bridge across the Susquehanna at Columbia, overshadowed all else in relative importance. The bridge, which comprised 27 spans, was completely demolished. It was insured for $300,000, and everything was carried away except the stone piers, the single iron span and one of the shore spans. The bridge proper was crushed to splinters. It was lifted bodily off the piers and deposited just above in the water, a portion resting on the piers. Not a timber was left standing. All through freight south was run over the Columbia bridge and the Frederick division to Baltimore and other Southern points.

It is settled now that there was no loss of life, as a search of the debris has failed to reveal the bodies of two men who, it was feared, were in the bridge when it was swept away.

Buildings, Trees and Wires Wrecked.

SHAMOKIN, Pa., Oct. 1.—A terrific storm passed over this section of the state and caused many thousands of dollars' worth of damage. All the telegraph and telephone wires and hundreds of trees were blown down in every direction, and it is impossible to learn the particulars of the havoc done in surrounding towns. A dozen or more houses and buildings were either blown down or unroofed in Shamokin and Carmel, and railroad trains are all delayed by trees and other obstructions that were blown across the tracks.

A block of eight new houses erected by Dr. F. D. Baker at Springfield were levelled to the ground. Barns and hundreds of outbuildings were overturned in all portions of the town. The Lincoln school building, the Windsor hotel, the Bury block, the Wolferton building, the Pennsylvania roundhouse and many other buildings in Shamokin were unroofed.

Lebanon Valley Suffered.

LEBANON, Pa., Oct. 1.—The storm was very severe throughout the Lebanon valley. Buildings were unroofed, trees were uprooted and broken off and outbuildings were completely demolished.

At Bismarck the Reformed church was blown down.

The total damage in this county will be up $50,000.

The storm was especially severe on the tobacco sheds in which this year's crop was stored.

COUNTY IS PENNILESS.

Rensselaer County Treasurer an Embezzler.

LARGE SUM OF MONEY INVOLVED.

Treasurer Morrison Arrested, but Later Bailed Out—County Left Without Funds to Pay the Running Expenses and Salaries.

TROY, N. Y., Sept. 28.—County Treasurer George W. Morrison, one of the most influential and popular men in Troy, a man in the prime of life and reputed to be worth $200,000 in his own name, is behind the bars in the Rensselaer county jail, charged with the embezzlement of $250,000, or practically all of the money belonging to the county that is available at the present time.

For some time past there has been due the city from excise collections $39,000. The city chamberlain has repeatedly tried to get this money, but was unsuccessful until the first of last week when he succeeded in getting $10,000. Not satisfied with this amount Mr. Mayor pressed his claim for the balance and not being able to get it he placed his case before the board of supervisors, and that body appointed a subcommittee to investigate the failure of the county treasurer to pay over city money.

This investigation was begun Saturday and it resulted in finding but $108 deposited to the credit of the county in all the banks in Troy and but a mere sum in the county treasurer's safe. As near as could be hastily figured, there should be at the disposal of the county nearly $300,000.

In the insolvent National bank there is a deposit of $40,000, but none of this will be available for some time yet to come and Rensselaer county today has possibly $200 for current expenses.

Morrison has been bailed out under a bond for $100,000 and the following friends of his attached their names to the bond: Fred C. Draper, Walter C. Harrington, William H. Barnes, Zeph Magin, Frederick Belmeister and August Schlosser, all of Troy.

While Morrison was waiting for his bond to be made out he made a significant remark to a friend to the effect that no matter what happened he would take all the blame on his own shoulders.

MORRISON NOT PROSECUTED.

County Officers Deal Leniently With the Rensselaer Defaulter.

TROY, N. Y., Sept. 30.—County Treasurer George W. Morrison will not be prosecuted for his defaulting of the county money by the county officers, the board of supervisors.

At the meeting of that body resolutions authorizing the county attorney to bring action against Morrison, and calling for the resignation of the defaulting county treasurer, were defeated, and while Mr. Morrison, through the courtesy of the supervisors, will not be prosecuted as far as the county is concerned, and will not be removed from office, he is left with practically no power, as another resolution was adopted directing the finance committee of the board of supervisors to borrow $50,000 for contingent expenses, which amount will be disposed of only on warrants of the finance committee.

Regardless of the action of the supervisors, Mr. Morrison will undoubtedly be prosecuted by the city authorities for his defaulting of the $25,000 of city excise money.

COLLEGE IN FLAMES.

Mount Holyoke Female Seminary Badly Damaged by Fire.

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass., Sept. 28.—Mount Holyoke college, the pioneer institution for the higher education of women, has received a severe blow in the burning of the entire main building, with a probable loss of over $150,000. The buildings have cost over $300,000, and could not be replaced to-day short of $200,000.

Fortunately none of the 400 students or faculty was injured, there being ample time for their escape with part of their personal effects.

It is supposed that the fire originated in the laundry from an overheated steam pipe, as one day had been in the laundry during the day, nor had there been any fire there.

The building and its contents were insured for $150,000 through the Pierce agency of Northampton.

Howard Gould's Complaint.

LONDON, Sept. 30.—Howard Gould has sent to the press a copy of a long communication which he has sent to the council of the Yacht Racing association, regarding a visit by a committee of three from that association, made to Mr. Gould's yacht, Niagara, last May, while at her mooring without having sent Mr. Gould any notice of the intended visit and on which occasion the committee made an examination of the yacht so as to ascertain whether there was any truth in the report that she was fitted with water tanks on each side of the cabin, which were connected by pipes, so as to obtain a shifting water ballast.

Mr. Gould complains somewhat bitterly of his treatment at the hands of the Englishmen and announces that he is going to call for American support and will not race the Niagara in 1897.

More Gold Coming.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—The director of the mint has received a telegram from the San Francisco mint stating that about $1,500,000 in gold was expected to arrive there from Australia a week from next Friday. Information also comes from London that the Bank of England expects to lose $5,000,000 to the United States before the end of the week. Both of these shipments are expected ultimately to reach the treasury, which, together with the amounts already in sight, will bring the gold reserve approximately to $135,000,000.

Big Drygoods Firm Falls.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 28.—The wholesale drygoods house of Wolf & Bro., the largest exclusively wholesale business of the kind in Arkansas, has been closed by attachment. No statement. Liabilities are estimated at $500,000 and assets $300,000. The creditors are principally non-resident.

Fight Over a Party Emblem.

DEVER, Oct. 1.—Judge Johnson has overruled the decision of Secretary of State McCaffey and gave the cottage house emblem, which had been claimed by the so-called Middle-of-the-Road Populists, to the regular organization, known as the Pastors Populists.

W. C. WHITNEY MARRIED.

Quietly Wedded to the Widow of an English Army Officer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 29.—Hon. William C. Whitney, former secretary of the navy, was married at noon today to Mrs. Edith S. Randolph, widow of the late Captain Randolph of East Court, Wiltshire, England.

The wedding was strictly private, not more than a half dozen of his most intimate friends being present. None of the relatives of the contracting parties were at Bar Harbor to witness the ceremony.

Mrs. Randolph's late husband was a captain in the Fifteenth Hussars, commonly called the "Queen's Own," she was originally Miss Edith S. May and is the first cousin to Herman Oelrichs, also to Mrs. Colonel William Jay. She is the mother of two children, the eldest 18 years old. Mr. Whitney's first wife was Miss Flora Payne, daughter of the late United States Senator Henry H. Payne of Ohio, who died recently. It is on account of his death that extreme privacy was maintained at the wedding.

Probably Fatal Shooting Affray.

JAMESTOWN, N. Y., Oct. 1.—John Anderson of Warren, Pa., had a quarrel with a man named Lind at Sheffield, Pa., over money matters and Anderson drew a revolver and shot Lind five times. Lind is still alive, but the doctors say that there is no hope of his recovery. Anderson has been arrested and is in the Warren county jail awaiting the results of the shooting. He is a big burly fellow and is generally regarded as a bad man.

Rochester Shoe Dealer Falls.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 1.—Robert J. Moore, the well-known West Main street shoe dealer, has filed a general assignment to John D. Linn in the county clerk's office. The liabilities are between $10,000 and $12,000, the nominal assets several thousand dollars above the liabilities, and the assignee thinks all creditors will be paid in full.

British Warship Ashore.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 1.—H. M. S. Wild Swan is ashore somewhere along the Central American coast, according to reports that have just reached Esquimaux from the south. The particulars are not obtainable, but it is believed that she is in a very dangerous position.

Special Excise Agent Appointed.

ALBANY, Oct. 1.—Excise Commissioner Henry H. Lyman has appointed E. Alward Manchester of Aurora as a special excise agent for the Seventh judicial district.
