People Say it is a Miracle.

A Well-Known Rochester Lady Tells the Whole Story in Her Own way.

Considered By All Absolutely Hopeless.

She Discloses the Plain Unvarnished Truth —The Strength of a Statement Lies in its Truthfulness.

Mrs. Prince is 75 years old, and is an honest and upright woman. She has been for five years at the Old Ladies' Home corner of Alexander street and East avenue, and has lived in this city seven years. To the writer she says "Over seven years ago I commenced to be troubled with catarrh in its worst form. Since then I have suffered with nervous prostration and exhaustion, which was fast leading into paralysis. My feet would shake and tremble and for over a year was confined to my room. It was with the greatest difficulty for me to get around with the aid of a cane.

"I had a terrible pain and aching of the back of neck and head and a fullness of the ears and a constant singing and buzzing noise in them.

"I had nervous prostration in the fullest sense. I was in such a shape I could not walk two blocks without resting and would have severe dizzy spells at any time. My stomach was irritable and weak. I would have shooting pains all over my body anywhere, and any time, also chilly feelings, and at other times hot flashes. I could not control my nervousness. I was tired all the time and had a soreness across my back. My sleep was restless and seemed to do me no good. I had a dropping in the throat and a tendency to hawk and spit, with soreness through the eyes, and can say that any one suffering from the effects of the grip, malaria or any other chronic disease, had better take Dr. Grady's treatment, as it is thorough and reliable.

"Give credit to whom credit is due, and certainly to Dr. Grady is due the credit in curing me. My nervous system was completely unstrung, irritable, and in a run-down condition. I began to feel that my days on this earth were numbered. Words cannot express my sufferings. Life seemed a burden. Despondent as I was, and thinking that there was no help for me, I had almost given up all hopes of recovery, but when looking over a paper, I saw the picture of a physician whose cut appear in all the papers, and by my friends' advice, I consulted him. Strange as it may seem, he told me every ache and pain without asking questions. He further told me that my case was a serious one and would soon destroy my life if let run much longer. He said he could cure my trouble and make me a well woman again.

"Pleased as I was at this good news, I placed my life in his hands. This was on the 21st of August. His vegetable remedies seemed to act like magic. I commenced to get well from the start. Not five weeks under treatment, and yet I am almost a well woman.

VICTORY AT LAST.

"I can now walk without difficulty, eat and sleep like a child, and am fast regaining my health and strength again.

"For the benefit of suffering humanity I wish to say that the physician who has done so much for me, and to whom I owe my life, is Dr. Grady, of 16 State street, the well-known Rochester specialist. I not only found him to be a man to his word, but a true gentleman in every sense of the term.

"To meet Dr. Grady is to find him a most pleasant and agreeable gentleman who impresses all with whom he comes in contact with not only his wonderful skill as a physician, but also with that gentleness of character so necessary to his profession.

"I make the above statement with my own free will, and furthermore I will be glad to answer any and all inquiries relative to my case. I remain yours very respectfully,

"MRS. C. PRINCE,
"Old Ladies' Home,
"Rochester, N. Y."

The doctor can be consulted from 10 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m. every day except Wednesdays and Sundays. Private consultation rooms, first floor. Take elevator.

What proved to be a narrow escape from death by burning occurred at A. L. Collins' furniture store on Tuesday last. George Stack, an employee, while filling a can with gasoline, struck a match to see if the can was filled. The match ignited the oil, which caused the can to explode and set fire to the clothing of Mr. Stack, who ran into the street all in flames, calling for help. A bystander picked up a blanket near by and wrapped the terrified man in it, thereby extinguishing the flames, but not before he was seriously burned about the face and body. By the promptness of the fire department the flames in the basement were extinguished.

Another big show has been booked for this house for next week. Read the following list: Francesca Redding and Hugh Stanton, presenting their original sketch, "A Happy Pair;" Harry Crandall, the German comedian; Mlle. Ottillie, the dainty chansonette; Thomas and Quinn, eccentric comedians; Major Burke, in his lightning drill; Nelson and Milledge, in a comedy sketch, and Melville and Conway, in a regular circus. Continuous performances.

Cook Opera House.

At the Cook Monday matinee and evening and Wednesday evening, Mr. Harrison J. Wolfe, presenting "Corsican Brothers;" Tuesday evening and Wednesday matinee, "David Garrick." The play is magnificently staged, the wierd apparition scene in the first act and the beautiful snow scene and forest of Fountambleau, being especially fine indeed, and the "Duel to the Death" holds the audience spellbound, so intense and realistic is it. Mr. Wolfe is an actor of the most cultured and finished methods. He has also surrounded himself with a strong company.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, Saturday matinee, October 8th, 9th and 10th. People who want to be amused without mental taxation will find "Girl Wanted," the great comedy hit of the season, especially to their liking. It is just the show for busy people. There is no cessation of merriment save when the curtain is down. Of the plot there is just enough to carry the thread of humor. Brilliant specialties are interspersed here and there. The entire action of the play, however, hinges upon the versatility of Mr. Frank Bush, a comedian and mimic of acknowledged ability.
