The Annual Banquet Held at Delmonico's.

LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT.

Governor Morton Also Sent His Regards in a Brief Epistle—The Usual Elaborate and Brilliant Affair—Many Distinguished Men Present.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—The 128th annual banquet of the chamber of commerce of the state of New York, which was held at Delmonico's, was certainly the most notable gathering that has ever taken place in the history of the great organization. There was a disposition to rejoice over the results of the recent election.

Words of warning reached the members of the chamber of commerce, however, in the form of a letter, written by President Cleveland.

EXECUTIVE MESSAGES RECEIVED BY THE PRESIDENT, Nov. 18. ALEXANDER E. ORR, President, Etc.

MY DEAR SIR:—The pleasure which a participation in the banquet of the chamber of commerce has afforded me in the past, and the kindly feeling and broad spirit of enterprise which always pervade these occasions, cause me to regret most sincerely that I cannot join the goodly company that will gather around the chamber's hospitable board tomorrow evening.

Recent events may well cause those who represent business interests to rejoice in their escape from threatened peril. But while they have abundant reason for rejoicing and can view with the greatest satisfaction the support they have given the cause of sound money in the contest lately waged against it, I earnestly hope that in this time of congratulation it will be remembered that constant vigilance and continued effort are required to maintain present conditions, and that absolute safety will only be secured when our financial system is protected by affirmative and thorough reforms.

When our business men are habitually alert and watchful, and when they are, moreover, fully aroused to the importance of such legislative action concerning our finances as business methods approve and the welfare of the nation as a whole require, such reforms may be confidently anticipated, not only in the accomplishment of practical results, but in the removal of harmful prejudices through an assurance to the people that business and patriotism are becoming more and more united.

Yours very truly, GROVER CLEVELAND.

Governor Morton wrote congratulating the members of the chamber of commerce upon the results of the recent election.
