

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Could Hardly Believe It.

LA SALLE, Ill., August 1908.

I was so afflicted by nervousness for two years that I had to lay in bed nearly all the time. I took Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic only three days and was so strengthened that I was all day long good appetite and sleep well. The twirling in her hands and feet stopped, so that she could take care of her child. People could hardly believe that three bottles of Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic did it.

V. LAUSCHER.

Mrs. V. Lewis, of 76 1/2 St. Louis, New Orleans, writes that Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic is the best deep-producer of all that she tried during two years.

Godsend.

VERSALES, O., August 1908.

I was treated during seven years, by good physicians, for cramps, but to no avail, since March I took Father Koenig's Nerve Tonic and had no more attacks. I believe that such a remedy is made by God.

FREE A valuable book on Nervous Diseases and a sample bottle to any old man, woman or child. Four patients also give the medicine. This remedy has been prepared by Reverend E. Koenig of Port Wayne, Ind., since 1878, and is now made in accordance with the original recipe.

Cancers and Tumors CURED BY ABSORPTION.

Many patients, given up as hopeless after having been operated upon several times, have been entirely cured by Dr. Grady's treatment by absorption.

PEOPLE SAY IT IS A MIRACLE.

A well known Connecticut lady tells her own story:

Mrs. Annie E. Spencer of Beach's Road, Black Rock, Conn., suffered frightfully with an eating cancer—was treated by nine home physicians without relief. She was cured by one course of treatment by Dr. Grady. Write to Mrs. Spencer, and she will tell you of the most remarkable cure known to medical science.

ANOTHER GREAT CURE.

Mr. Arthur Tyler, of No. 7 Vanstone court, Bridgeport, Conn., is well known there and is employed at Warner's Corset Factory. Mr. Tyler came to Dr. Grady suffering with a large tumor on the left side of his neck. He is today absolutely cured and no signs of tumor can be seen.

What more can be said? If convenient write and be convinced for yourself. These cures are not temporary, they are permanent and lasting.

TIBBOLD AND OVARIAN TUMORS.

Cured without pain or the use of a knife. We entrust it duty as well as a pleasure to permit Dr. Grady to refer to us in any way he may choose, and those afflicted in like manner we would by all means advise you to consult him at once.

Mrs. F. M. Kelton, Canandaigua, N. Y.
Mrs. Nellie Staples, Utica, N. Y.
Mrs. W. Taylor, Batavia, N. Y.
Mrs. Etta Carey, Lyons, N. Y.
Miss M. J. Black, Seneca Falls, N. Y., and hundreds of others cured.

Home Cures—Call on them and investigate yourself.

Mrs. Prince, Old Ladies' Home.
Mr. Reels, 409 Clifford street.
Miss Jennie Schaefer, 49 Concord avenue.
Mrs. John Moore, 25 1/2 Ontario street.
Mrs. Stief, 1 Bismark place.
Mr. John Lee, Powers Hotel.
Miss O'Loughlin, 83 Campbell street.
Mr. A. Horn, 55 Hollister street.
Mary Burk, 4 Central park.
Mr. Charles Stief, 1 Bismark place.

A surgeon's knife gives you a feeling of horror and dread. There is no longer necessity for its use in many diseases formerly regarded as incurable without cutting.

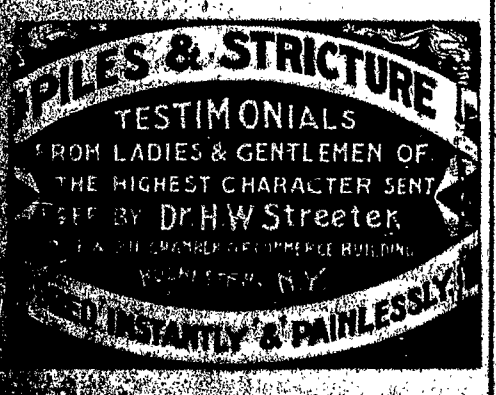

The triumph of conservative surgery is well illustrated by the fact that rupture of breast is now radically cured without the knife and without pain. Clumsy, chafing trusses can be thrown away. They never cure, but often induce inflammation, strangulation and death.

Pile tumors, however large, fistula and other diseases of the lower bowel, are permanently cured without pain or resort to the knife.

The doctor can be consulted from 10 to 12 a.m., 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p.m., every day except Wednesdays and Sundays. Private consultation rooms first floor. Take elevator.

What Our Friends in the Surrounding Parishes are Doing

From Our Special Correspondents.
Auburn.

Rev. Bishop McQuaid of Rochester administered the sacrament of confirmation in the three Catholic churches of the city last Sunday. At the 9 o'clock mass at the Holy Family church he confirmed a class of over two hundred. The children were nicely attired, the girls wearing white dresses, veils and white kid shoes, the boys black suits and white ties. The altar was ablaze with innumerable lighted tapers and hundreds of chrysanthemum blossoms. At half-past ten the bishop went to St. Alphonsus, where a class of 62 was confirmed. At St. Mary's the ceremony was performed at half past three in the afternoon, a class of 125 being confirmed. At the three churches the beautiful instructions of the bishop were listened to by large congregations, his voice being as powerful and eloquent as ever. At the close of the services the bishop gave the pledge to each of the three classes till they were 21 years old.

Great improvements have been made and are still being made in the Holy Family church property. The old house, which has stood on the corner of North and Chapel streets, between the church and parsonage, for so many years, has been torn down and the space leveled off. Although this is not the only change it is the most important. When all the improvements which the active, ambitious pastor, Rev. Father Hickey, has in mind, are completed, this property and church will rank with the best in the city.

Miss Anna Sternhart is visiting in Rochester.

Miss Ida Shafer spent Thanksgiving with her sister in Portage.

Miss Minnie Fox is in Horaville for a week.

Miss Mary Rowan of the Genesee Normal was home for Thanksgiving. She was accompanied by her friend, Miss Denning, Clyde.

The many friends of Mrs. Mar. Hayden were grieved to learn of her death, which occurred on Monday last at her home about three miles east of this village. Mrs. Hayden was a young and popular member of this parish, and was highly esteemed and beloved by all her associates. Miss Hayden for the past three years has been teaching school, and last fall she taught in Oswego county, where she contracted a severe cold which led to bronchitis, causing her death.

The funeral services were held from St. John's Catholic church Wednesday morning, where requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. J. J. Gleason. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sorrowful loss, as only nine months ago a son was taken from the family circle with the same disease.

Mrs. G. H. Wright and son Charles, accompanied by Miss George of Auburn, returned home Monday.

The officers of the Ancient Order of Hibernians presented, on October 22, the $50,000 which the order has raised for the endowment of the Celtic Chair in the University. The presentation took place at 4 p.m., in the assembly room of the McMahon Hall of Philosophy. The exercises were attended by the Board of Directors and the visiting Archbishops, the acting rector, the professors and the students of all the schools. A large delegation came from the Baltimore, Alexandria and Washington branches of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, and many visitors were present. Cardinal Gibbons presided, and the Very Rev. Dr. Garrigan, acting rector of the University, introduced the speakers.

Bishop Phelan of Pittsburgh has returned to his diocese after an absence of over three months, most of which time he spent among his relatives in Ireland. The Bishop went abroad for his health and feels much improved. On the return journey the vessel met the terrific hurricane that had swept to sea after damaging the Atlantic coast and during the rough weather that ensued Bishop Phelan got a heavy fall in the cabin. He was not seriously injured however, and has felt no bad effects of the accident.

When you think you have heard disease, the real trouble is probably indigestion.

Mr. Peter Lawlor was in Rochester last week visiting her daughter, Mrs. Scofield.

St. Columba's church on Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock, Miss Maggie Farley and Mr. Patrick Handrahan were united in marriage. Rev. Father Esler performing the ceremony and celebrating the high nuptial mass which followed. The bride was attired in an ecru gown with chiffon trimmings and hat of corresponding color. The bridesmaid, Miss Margaret Cunningham of Rochester, wore a gown of blue. Peter Lally of Rochester was the groom's best man. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. John Leahy, to relatives only, after which the happy couple departed for their future home in Buffalo.

Council 14 C. R. & B. A. held a private hop in their rooms on Thanksgiving night.

She leaves a son and three daughters to mourn her loss—Mr. A. J. Connor of Wellsville, Mrs. M. D. Callan and Mrs. Kate Connor of Batavia, and Mrs. James Callan of this village.

JOKES OF THE JESTERS.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

A wife whose husband lets her have her own way in everything isn't a happy woman.

A man never makes a good investment that his wife doesn't say she advised him to.

A married woman never loses her memory to the extent that she isn't interested in a bride.

As soon as a bachelor gets old enough to have had any past a woman always imagines that he has a life secret.

There is generally lots of fun in girls who "tell mamma everything."

If a man can remain a mystery long enough to a woman, she is pretty sure to fall in love with him.

Men like to make girls think they are awfully careless about their health so they will take to mothering them.

The average woman would a good deal rather be disappointed in love than to be disappointed in marriage.

Some women are conceited enough to think their husbands love them so much that they can go around looking any way.

A grass widow is one who has all the advantages of having no husband without the annoyance of having people tell her what a fine man he was.—New York Press.

A Custer Survivor.

"I am a survivor of the Custer massacre," said the tramp, "and for that reason, kind sir, you should give me a little aid. I am no ordinary beggar."

"So I see," replied the historian to whom he had related his tale of woe—"so I see, and you are also an extraordinary liar, for every schoolboy knows that in that terrible fight, the battle of Little Big Horn, in 1876, Custer and his entire command were wiped out by the Indians and not one white man escaped."

"I am fully aware of that sir," said the tramp.

"And yet you claim to be a survivor of the battle?"

"And so I am, sir."

"But you vagabond," exclaimed the angry citizen, "you have just admitted that no white man escaped."

The tramp drew himself up proudly, doffed his ragged cap and, bowing very low, said with dignity, "I am one of the Indians, sir."

He got a quarter for his gall.—New York Evening Journal.

The Hangings.

When they told her that the young man whose suit she had rejected the previous evening had hanged himself to the gallows directly he left her, the beautiful girl shrugged her shoulders.

"It isn't my fault," she said coldly.

"I specifically told him he mustn't think of hanging around here any more,"—Detroit Tribune.

First Person Singular.

Algernon Coxcombe—Oh, I know the man well—a capable fellow, but, in my opinion, an inveterate egotist.

Miss Pinkney—Do you distinguish then between an egotist and an egotist?

A. C.—Undoubtedly. The distinction is subtle, but well marked—

Miss P.—Then which are you?—Truth.

His Apprehension.

"Dear me!" said Willie Giggs. "I hope that chrysanthemums won't go out of fashion all of a sudden, as they threaten to do."

"What difference does that make?"

"If I take mine off now, I know I shall take cold."—Washington Star.

Hard Lines.

"Yes, they've had a good deal of trouble."

"Indeed?"

"Yes, the son was caught in some crooked work and it left the old man in very strained circumstances."—Detroit News.

News For Mamma.

Tommy—Here! Don't you hit me with that old shoe. Don't you know it's awful bad luck to hit anybody with a shoe?

Jimmy—Is it? Gee! I must tell my father that as I get home.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Prostrated.

"What are you doing with a Turkish lounge in this coal office?"

"Our bookkeeper writes poetry, and we had to fix up a place for him to lie down when his manuscripts come back."—Chicago Record.

Had Given All.

Lawyer (investigating client's story)—Now you must keep nothing from me. Client—I haven't. I paid you every cent I had in the world for your retainer.—Tit-Bits.

Omnipresent.

Tell me, ye winged winds
That round my pathway fly,
Knowest thou some quiet spot
Where mortals say not "Nisi?"

Tell me, ye winged winds
That whirl through slushway thaw me,
Must we forever hear,
"Just tell them that you saw me!"

Tell me, ye winged winds,
Knowest thou no sylvan nook
Devoid of "Oats no loe?"

Tell me, thou mighty deep,
Whose billows round me play,
Knowest thou a spot where falls
Say never, "Don't get gay?"

Some island far away
Asleep in some fair lake
Where one may never hear:
"Come off! You take the cake!"

And thou, serenest moon,
Ere oceanward you sink,
Bereft of "Oh, don't think!"

Do not look upon the earth
Asleep in night's embrace
And note a spot where no'er
Is heard "Oh, close your face!"

L'ENVOI.
The winged winds, the mighty deep,
The fair moon's palest sheen
Dispersed in turn the same reply.
