

FATHER KOENIG'S NERVE TONIC

Worth Gold.

BRANSON, Pa., Aug. 18, 1895.

Headache troubled me for 15 years; the physician called it neuralgia and said it was incurable. It became so severe that I had to lie in bed every week two days, but after I took only a few bottles of Koenig's Nerve Tonic I felt so revived that after taking six bottles more I am entirely well, therefore recommend the Tonic to all such sufferers.

MARIA GRUBER, P. O. Box 114, Branson, Pa., July 10, '95.

I took Koenig's Nerve Tonic for rheumatic pains, which he had for two years. It cured him.

I took Koenig's Nerve Tonic and can sleep well, so that I hope I will be again confined in an insane asylum, and in 6 months I will write Mrs. GRUBER from Branson, Minn., Aug. 18, 1895.

Mrs. W. S. Bessent of Ironsides, N. D., is convinced that Koenig's Nerve Tonic is the best for such ailments, as it also reduces the appetite.

Unprecedented Success in Healing the Sick. Marvelous Cures Affected by the Great Specialist.

Dr. Grady, The Founder and Chief Consulting Physician of the Allman System.

This new system is founded upon the knowledge and experience of the most eminent specialists of all nations. How it came about: Dr. Grady being a specialist and having practiced extensively as a specialist in this country and abroad, he became acquainted with the leading specialists in every city; they would naturally meet together and compare notes and discuss the various remedies in treating diseases. In this way Dr. Grady has acquired the knowledge, skill and best remedies known to the great specialists of the world in treating diseases. Having thus obtained such valuable information, together with his own vast experience and research, he has founded the great Allman System, by which he is performing such marvelous cures. His patients are numbered by hundreds.

He has made wonderful cures in almost every town in the State and has hundreds of patients under treatment by letter in New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maine, Pennsylvania and Canada.

Dr. Grady is a born physician endowed with that wonderful power and gift of healing disease possessed by so few physicians. When but a young physician eminent physicians recognized in him that superlative power and gift of healing which enables him to cure where they have failed. He treats all forms of disease and makes no charge until the patient is cured, except for medicines used during treatment. One of his new remedies, "The Dr. Grady Inhalant," is a positive cure for Asthma, Catarrh, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affections, stops Coughs, Hemorrhages, and all weakening discharges, cures Deafness, Weak Eyes and all blood and skin diseases. His Kidney and Bladder Specific gives immediate relief and effects a rapid and permanent cure. His Specifics for the cure of all Heart, Stomach, Liver and Nervous diseases act like magic.

You will be surprised at the marvelous rapidity with which these remedies go to the seat of the trouble, giving instant relief and effecting a permanent cure. Hundreds of testimonials on file in his office will satisfy the most skeptical. Write for a circular of testimonials.

The Allman staff of physicians and surgeons successfully treat all diseases by their new system. Patients at a distance successfully treated by mail; all letters promptly answered. Consultation and examination free. They have established permanent consulting offices and chemical laboratory for the manufacture of their own medicines and the Dr. Grady Inhalant to supply the New England States and Canada at 16 State Street, Rochester, N. Y. Hours, 10 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 and 7 to 9 p. m., every day, except Wednesday and Sunday. Dr. J. W. Grady, Chief Consulting Physician of the Allman System.

The many friends of Thomas J. Gleason were shocked to hear of his sudden death last Wednesday evening. Mr. Gleason went home at 6 o'clock and, when about to seat himself at the table dropped to the floor dead. A physician was summoned, but it was too late. He was 54 years of age and had formerly lived in Syracuse but for the past two years he has lived with his sister, Mrs. Thomas Burke of Seneca street, who, with two other sisters, survives him. The funeral was held from Holy Family church Saturday morning and was largely attended. Solemn high mass was celebrated with Rev. J. J. Hickey as celebrant, Rev. J. B. Maloney as co-celebrant, Rev. P. J. Neville as sub-deacon. Mr. Gleason was a member of Dr. Loughlin Council No. 311, C. R. L. and three members of that organization on Messrs. Powers, Williams and Higgins, followed the remains to their last resting place in St. Anne's cemetery, Syracuse.

Division No. 3, A. O. H., held a public installation of officers in their rooms in the Second block last Friday evening. An entertainment was given, after which light refreshments were served. The following programme was rendered: Piano solo, Miss Mary Hanlon; vocal solo, John Kotter; piano solo, Charles Maycomber; vocal solo, Miss Anna McDermott; piano duo, Mrs. James Hamilton and Miss Loretta Driscoll; vocal solo, John Hanlon; piano duo, Florence and Frances O'Brien; vocal solo, M. A. Hanlon; address, Danic E. Sheehan, county preacher; banjo solo, J. Murphy; piano duo, Mrs. James Hamilton and Miss Loretta Driscoll; address, Rev. Father Gibbons; piano solo, Miss Gertrude Gleason.

Clifton Springs.

Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock St. Felix church was the scene of a very pretty wedding when Miss Mary C. Hanlon was united in marriage to Thomas W. Martin. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. F. J. O'Hanlon, assisted by Rev. A. M. O'Neil of Phelps. Promptly at 3:30 the bridal party passed up the aisle to the strains of the wedding march from "Oberon" played by the organist, Miss May Conway. The bridesmaid was Miss Mollie Nichols of Rochester, and the groom was attended by J. R. McLaughlin. The ushers were Chas. D. McLaughlin of Batavia and C. F. Murphy of Clifton Springs. The bride was attended in traveling costume of green and gold, with white trimmings, and carried a bouquet of white roses. The bridesmaid's gown was figured poplin, and she carried yellow roses. Mr. and Mrs. Martin left on the 4 o'clock train for New York and other cities. On their return they will begin housekeeping in a house already furnished on East Main street. The bride is one of our most beautiful and charming young ladies. The groom is a member of the board of directors and general agent for the Lisk Manufacturing company. The couple's new home is at the corner of Peck and Main streets. The bride's father is Mr. J. A. Parkhurst and wife, T. C. Parkhurst and wife, J. J. O'Connor and wife, T. D. Brown and wife of Cananahua and J. L. McLaughlin and wife of Batavia. Mrs. Martin was the recipient of many valuable presents.

CAUTION TO PIANO BUYERS.

THE failure of the Martin Piano Co. of this city, led some to believe we were identified with that firm. We wish to state that we have never been connected with any firm of similar name. Prospective purchasers of pianos are cautioned to disregard the statements of interested parties who seek to convey the impression that we have ever been connected with any firm of similar name.

THE long and successful career of this house is largely attributed to the fact that it has always been its aim and ambition to represent pianos whose reputations are firmly established. Now in its thirty-seventh year, the house has no rival in Western New York. We sell pianos of undoubted merit. Our goods carry out all statements made in reference to them. Eighteen different makes to select from.

a few well chosen words, extended a cordial welcome, on behalf of the society, to the invited guests, and explained why it is a good thing to join an organization like the C. R. & B. A., and produce for it a bright future. He then introduced Rev. J. J. Dougherty, who, of course, had bright and cheery words of encouragement and commendation for the Branch. Rev. H. J. Stratton then gave a spiritual view of being a member of the organization. Short speeches were made by Henry Feeder, Baldis Foote and Daniel Finn. Mr. Finn's speech was short and to the point. He "stirred his supper." The entire company seemed to agree with him, and repaired to the dining room, where the good things were spread before an appreciative throng. The evening quickly passed with games, singing, music for the young people to dance, and a jolly good time was had by all.

Seneca Falls.

The Ladies Aid Society of St. Mary's Church had an interesting meeting last night at the home of Mrs. James Brophy in Elizabeth street. The society is in a most flourishing condition, and its good work is constantly growing. Among its recent gifts was a cash donation of $100 by Rev. W. H. Harrington.

Miss Margaret Flannigan, of Green Street, entertained the members of the Father Hecker Literary Society, Monday evening.

At a meeting of the C. M. B. A. Thursday evening Jan. 8th, James A. Flannigan presented Rev. Father O'Connor a purse of $75 in gold, as a token of esteem from the members of the association.

The members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians gave an enjoyable musical and variety entertainment in their hall, on Wednesday evening, January 7th, in honor of Rev. James O'Connor, of St. Patrick's Church, who called Saturday of next week for Rome. During the evening Patrick Ryan, county president of the order, presented Rev. Father O'Connor a purse of $100 in gold, a gift of the local A. O. H. Although taken by surprise, the recipient, graciously thanked the donors for their substantial present.
