AMUSEMENTS

COOK'S

The attraction at the Cook Opera house the first half of next week will be the Gormans in their up-to-date musical comedy, "The Gilhoolys Abroad." The Gormans are well known, having traveled with Haverly's minstrels, and later with a first class company of their own. George and John Gorman, the former as Owen Gilhooly and the latter as Jonathan Tubbs, are the bright particular stars of the present company, and their acting, singing and dancing carry the audience by storm. They are ably supported by an excellent company of artists.

For the last half of next week the management of Cook Opera House announce the appearance of Miss Jane Coombs in Charles Dickens' masterpiece, "Bleak House," supported by her superb company.

ACADEMY

At the Academy next week the attraction will be Stowe's colossal aggregation of 50 white and 20 colored artists producing that famous old-time drama, "Uncle Tom's Cabin." That the company is larger, stronger and better than ever before in its history of existence is borne out by the reception accorded it by press and public alike wherever produced.

Of the many grand and wonderful scenic effects may be mentioned the grand transformation and tableaux, of which there are many; a gigantic cotton press in full operation; Mississippi river steamers in motion; the landing and unloading of a cargo of cotton; the great levee scene, introducing two immense quartettes and twenty jubilee shouters; the comical pickaninnies at work and play, and many lifelike pictures of southern life that seem to transport one back to the sunny land of cotton and flowers.

A grand parade at noon with two immense brass bands, followed by an immense free band concert, is also one of the many special features.

WONDERLAND THEATRE

The following all star olio will be seen the entire week: Jerome and Bell, popular farce comedians; the three La Martines, acrobats and gymnasts; Eddie Moore, comedian and dancer; John T. Tierney, the modern Irishman; Anna Willmuth, vocalist, and Lil Kerslake's wonderful pig circus, introducing "Mikey," the smallest, funniest and only working clown pig.

JUDGE MCKENNA

Slated for McKinley's Cabinet as Secretary of the Interior. He is a Catholic.

Judge Joseph M'Kenna of California, who is slated for secretary of the interior in McKinley's cabinet, is a Catholic, which fact has aroused the ire of the A. P. A.

Joseph M'Kenna was born in Philadelphia in 1843. When he was 12 years old he was taken by his parents to California, the family settling at Benecia. He studied law at St. Augustine's college and was admitted to the bar 1865. In the same year he was elected district attorney of Solana county, holding the position four years.

In 1878 he was elected a member of the state legislature and in the following year was a candidate for congress from the thirty-first district, but was defeated by John K. Luttrell. Three years later he was elected to congress holding the position four successive terms, his majority at the polls increasing with each election from 219 in 1876 to 5,000 in 1890.

While serving his fourth congressional term he was appointed by President Harrison in 1892 as a judge of the United States circuit court, succeeding Judge Sawyer. He has rendered many important decisions, notably in connection with the railroad legislation in California. Judge M'Kenna has a wife and two daughters who are prominent in society. All the members of the family are devout Catholics.
