Revenue.

WASHINGTON, March 16 - The presiient's message, as sent to congress, was levoted to the necessity of securing more revenue for the conduct of the business of the government. He called attention to the issuance of $262,000,000 bonds in the ust administration as a reason for more revenue. He said that for the past three years there had been a deficit of $137.

In February, 1894, $50 000,000 in bonds were tesued, and in Nevernber following a second issue of $50,000,000 was deemed nec essary. The sum of $117,171,785 was realized by the sale of these bonds, but the reserve was steadily decreased until, on Feb. 8, 1895, a third cale of 162,815,400 in bouds for $65,116 244 was announced to congress
