Reliable Pianos at Honest Prices

BUILT THIS BUSINESS.

Misrepresentation, either in respect to our own Pianos or those of others, is not permitted under any circumstances in our establishment, and full information is freely given in so far as we are conversant with facts.

If a Piano of low price is desired, it is far better to buy a used Piano of a reliable manufacturer than a cheap Piano made to sell at a low price.

No Matter what your impression may be or what others may tell you the fact still remains, the Pianos that have been made to sell at a ridiculous low price, have been made as cheap as they could be made, and serve its purpose to the dealer, who sells them to look well without showing its quality.

We cannot afford to endanger our reputation by offering such Pianos for sale

NEW PUBLICATIONS.

"Catechism of Liturgy" is a short treatise explaining minutely and with precision the ceremonies of the Church, showing all their typical and symbolic meanings, defining the technical terms and making clear the meaning of things which serve for divine worship, their names, uses and significance. The book is translated from the French by Rev. Aug. M. Cheneau. 32mo; cloth, 50 cents. John Murphy & Co., publishers, Baltimore, New York.

"What Christ Revealed." The indefatigable Fr. Junin of St. John's college, Fordham, N. Y., has given us another book. Its title is, "What Christ Revealed." It is divided, as its preface says, into three parts, answering the question implied in the title. It is a brief but reasoned summary of what constitutes the faith of a Catholic. Its style may be characterized as rapid; saying very fast but satisfactorily what has to be said, and then passing, but not in a hurry, to the next topic. It is printed on fine, light paper. The book belongs to the Sacred Heart library, 125 North Clinton street, will look Illustrated New Testament," just published by Benziger Bros., has been received. This is the only illustrated edition issued in convenient form, containing 100 full page illustrations, which makes it especially suitable for Catholic lay people, who will find them attractive and explaining, and a great help toward expounding the text. Neither expense nor labor has been spared to make the book acceptable. Its printing is clear and easy to read, and the binding is handsome as well as durable.

"Short Instructions for every Sunday and for the Principal Feasts." From the French, by Rev. Thomas F. Ward. 12mo., cloth, net, $1.25. Benziger Brothers. This book, as its title implies, contains a short instruction for every Sunday and also for the principal feast days. It is just the thing for the busy priests, and can be read to advantage by the laity.

"How to Make the Mission." By a Dominican Friar. New revised edition. 16mo., paper, 10 cents; per 100, $5.00. Benziger Bros. The object of this little book is to point out some of the faults which are too frequently found in the confessions of the faithful.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Accomplished Wonders.

Offerle, Kan., June '90.
My nervous system was much run down. I suffered much from violent headache and a feeling of weight in the pit of my stomach, so that I could not keep my food and felt like fainting; often these feelings were very distressing. I spent many restless nights, was troubled with bad dreams, numbness in my arms and often with violent cramps in my right leg. Two years I suffered in this manner, tried medicines without permanent relief; 2 months have passed now, since I took only 2 bottles of Pastor Koenig's Nerve Tonic and not a symptom of all the trouble described above I experienced.
