The Gregorian music is sung by the sanctuary choir, composed of forty-five students of St. Andrews Seminary.

The choir consists of fifty members, banded together as a society, of which Eugene Sackett is president at present. Miss Minnie F. O'Loughlin, assistant organist.

M. D. Kavanaugh, assistant director; Eugene Bonn, organist and director.

MICHAEL'S

Genevieve Clarissa, daughter of Charles J. and Sophia Stephany, died Wednesday morning at 635 North Clinton street, aged 10 years. The funeral was held from the church Friday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

St. Leo society received Holy Communion in a body last Sunday at early mass.

St. Anthony's society will receive Holy Communion to-morrow morning at early mass.

The music to-morrow will consist of the following: Kyrie, Missa, "St. Antonius of Padua," Piel; Gloria, Missa, "St. Antonius of Padua," Piel; Credo, "St. Francis Haveni," Rev. F. H. Witt; Offertorium, "Terra tremuit," Thielin; Sanctus, op. XIII., Carolo Greith; Benedictus, op. XIII., Carolo Greith; Agnus Dei, op. XIII., Carolo Greith. Frederick C. Pohl, organist and choir master.

Jacob Joseph Rice, son of William S. and Elizabeth Rice, died last Sunday at the residence of his parents, No. 14 Martin street, aged 17 years. The funeral took place Wednesday morning.

Requiem mass was sung by Rev. Father Hargather. While the remains were being conveyed from the church Miss Caroline Kramer sang a solo in a most affecting manner. The brother of the deceased, who is a student at St. Francis college at Quincy, Ill., was notified by telegraph that his brother was at the point of death. He arrived just in time to speak a few words to him before he breathed his last. The deceased was an exemplary youth, and beloved by a very large circle of friends who deeply feel his loss. His parents have the sympathy of all in the sad loss of their beloved son. The esteem in which the deceased was held was in a manner shown by the large number of floral tokens presented from numerous friends and relatives.

HOLY FAMILY

The choir of this church will sing Leonard's mass in E flat. Offertory, Regina Coeli, by Werner. After the mass, Zingarelli's grand "Laudate Pueri Dominum" will be sung by Mr. A. Mills, jr., and chorus. Personnel—Misses Margaret Burns, Adelaide O'Brien, Kittie Burns, Marie Neville, Ada Young, Florence Clark, Julia Burns and Helen Rosney; Messrs. William C. Bace, A. Mills, jr., John Feanessy and J. P. MacSweeney. Mrs. M. McMahon, organist, J. P. MacSweeney, director.

IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

To-morrow the choir, under the efficient leadership of Wm. F. Predmore, will sing Schubert's mass, a full orchestra will be added to the organ and the music will be very impressive.

ST. MARY'S

The choir will render Giorga's mass to-morrow, and the congregation are assured of some fine music.

The funeral of Lulu A. Kernan took place Monday morning at 9 o'clock from the house and 9:30 from the church. Solemn requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Stewart, assisted by Rev. Father Farron as deacon and Rev. Father Snelts as sub-deacon. The church was thronged with friends of the deceased. The choir under the direction of P. Kearney, assisted by many friends from the cathedral choir, rendered very beautiful music for the mass.

Miss Kernan has been many years a devoted member of St. Mary's church, and for the past two years secretary of the L. C. B. A. of the Cathedral branch, from which society she will be greatly missed.

The funeral of the late Timothy I. Mannix was held at this church at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. High mass was celebrated by the Rev. J. P. Stewart, assisted by the Rev. Father Farron and the Rev. Father Snelts. The bearers were F. A. Smith, W. J. Dempsey, H. Fisher, W. H. Murphy, J. Rancher and J. Love. The remains were interred at Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

FRENCH CHURCH

The Rhea French Dramatic club, composed of the young people of the French church parish on Pleasant st., will present an interesting drama called "Strife," in the school hall, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of next week, for the benefit of the French school. The school children will also give a short entertainment preceding the drama, entitled "The Gipsy Festival," which they have rehearsed diligently and hope to render successfully. Those who will take part in the drama are Messrs. Frank Rivard, Frank Tubbs, Charles Baker, Louis Mitchell, Joe Stoffle, Frank Roberts, Charles Webbring and Arthur Doucette; Misses Irene La Casse, Eva St. Hillaire, Irene Sours and Laura Lebeau.

Holy Thursday high mass was said by Father Notebaert. The school children sang Bonner's mass in honor of St. Aloysius.

A new statue of St. Anthony has been placed in the French church and small books have been distributed among the parishioners containing prayers and the Novena of nine Tuesdays in his honor.

The new choir of the church, under the direction of Miss Kathryn Moran, have prepared special music for Easter Sunday. Millard's Mass in G will be sung, in the rendition of which Mrs. Charles Cunningham will assist. The members of the choir are: Sopranos, Misses Rogers, Haitz, La-Casse and Taylor; alto, Misses E. La-Casse, Walter, Brien and I. La-Casse; tenor, Messrs. Lux, Bouillon and Mevoise; bass, Messrs. Doucette, Clark, Tubbs, Stoffle, MacMarra; Miss Marie Notebaert, organist.

CORPUS CHRISTI

At 10:30 o'clock the choir will sing Cimarosa's mass; for offertory, Halle-luja chorus; Easter mass, Easter carol—"Once the Lord of Glory lay"—tenor solo and chorus, with violin obligato by Eugene Vogt. Mrs. M. Vogt, directress.

Mamie Fagan daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Fagan of 2 Norwood street, died Tuesday. The funeral took place Friday morning at 10:30 from the church.

ST. JOSEPH'S

Anna Maria Mandery Minges, widow of Henry Minges, died Friday of last week at her home, 737 East Main street, aged 75 years.

Mrs. Minges was born in Bavaria in 1822. In 1841 she married Mr. Minges, coming to this country in 1848. Since that time she has been a resident of Rochester. She was one of the earliest and most devoted members of St. Joseph's church and a member of the Holy Family and Sacred Heart societies. She is survived by one son and five daughters.

Helen Nunnold, wife of the late Jacob Nunnold, died Thursday morning at the family residence, No. 54 North Clinton street, aged 61 years. Three sons, Jacob J., Lewis E. and Philip M., and two daughters, Mrs. Fred Klemens and Miss Katie Nunnold, survive.

SS PETER AND PAUL'S

Benedict J. Barker died Sunday morning at his home, No. 211 Jay street, aged 58 years. He leaves a wife, eight sons and two daughters. He was a member of Mack's Battery, O'Rourke Post, G. A. R., and St. Frances Xavier's Society. The funeral was held Wednesday morning at 8:30 from the house, and at 9 o'clock from the church.

HOLY FAMILY

John B., infant son of John B. and Mary Gruber, died Tuesday night at 215 Orange street. The funeral was held Friday at 9:45 a. m. from the house and at 10 o'clock from the church.

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER

High mass at 10:30 a. m. Vidi Aquam, by J. E. Mock; mass by Gruber. Vespers at 3 p. m. Pontiphons, plain chant; Psalms by Ferd. Schaller; Benediction; O Salutaris, and Tantum Ergo, by Mitterer. J. E. Mock, organist.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

COOK'S

Agnes Hedon will present her play "La Belle Marie," at the Cook Opera House, next week. The demand for seats for this play indicates that it has lost none of its attractiveness for play goers. In the company supporting Miss Hedon is that sterling old character actor, John Edgar Macgregor, a native of Rochester, and for many seasons in days gone by a member of the Rochester stock companies.

ACADEMY

"The Boys of Kilkenny," the new Irish play, will be seen here next week at this house. It is an extra strong Easter week attraction and is presented by the popular young author-actor, Townsend Walsh. The play is a reflex of life on the Emerald Isle, and is replete with native wit and humor and rollicking song and dance set off with beautiful stage pictures. The company includes some well known Irish character actors, such as Frank Kilday and William B. Cahill.

WONDERLAND THEATRE

For the week of April 19 another splendid bill of attractions will be given at Wonderland by a company of carefully selected vaudeville artists, insuring a continuance of the large patronage that was showered upon the little play house during the past week. The following performers of merit, well and favorably known in vaudeville circles, will appear four times daily in a melange of high class specialties: Mark Sullivan and Billie Deaves, presenting their new and original up-to-date comedy sketch entitled "The All-mony Club;" Alf Grani, author comedian, introducing new ideas in monologue; John and Nellie McCarthy, banjo quartet, parody singers and comedians; M. B. Bertin, the flexible woman, in a marvelous contortion act; Stuart, the male Patti; Rosalie, acrobatic dancer, and Hall and Sutton, character comedians, as the 20th century burglars, introducing solos on novel instruments. With the above array of talent there can be no doubt but that Wonderland will hang out the S. R. O. sign early and often the coming week.
