DIOCESAN NEWS.

What Our Friends in the Surrounding Parishes are Doing.

On last week Thursday, Auburn Council No. 207, Knights of Columbus, conferred first degree on 16 and second degree on 26 candidates. The officers of the local council were assisted by Grand Knight James J. Whalen and Charles M. Barnes of Rochester...

John G. Kottler, the popular tenor, has left for Portsmouth, Ohio, where he has accepted a position in a large shoe manufacturing firm. Mr. Kottler came here six years ago from Ulica, and has since made many friends who will be sorry to part with him...

The Holy Family school closed Friday of last week with appropriate exercises at which Rev. J. J. Hickey and Rev. J. A. Malley presided. In the eight grade Rev. Father Hickey presented beautiful volumes by the best authors for scholarship, deportment, or for pupils being present every day. After the prizes had been distributed...

The Rosary Society of St. Bridget's Parish was more fully organized last Sunday when about fifty ladies joined. They will meet the first Sunday of each month. There will be singing of the Vesper psalms and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament every Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock through the summer.

A class of 83 children received their first Holy Communion at the Holy Family church Sunday morning. Rev. J. J. Hickey celebrated the mass and afterwards gave instructions to the children. The altar was handsomely decorated with flowers and garlands...

Notice was received here during the week that one of our popular young priests had been transferred to Elmira. Rev. A. Malley, who for some time past has acted as assistant pastor at the Holy Family church, proved to be the gentleman, and although his many friends in Auburn were pained to learn of his departure, nevertheless they were pleased to hear that the reverend gentleman had been so favorably considered for promotion to more important duties.

Two fine looking horses attached to single buggies were hitched at the curb opposite the Chestnut street entrance to the Merchants' Exchange, St. Louis. They were hitched several feet apart, but the hitching straps allowed them sufficient liberty of movement to get their heads together if they so desired.

The horse is generally rated as one of the most intelligent of animals, and a pretty incident that was witnessed by a number of persons the other day shows that generosity also enters into his character.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

Young Hobart and His Kite Stories of Stewart L. Woodford, Colonel Hepburn and the Cyclist. In his hopeful moments Frank James, the one-time train robber and general outlaw, sometimes thinks there is a future for him in politics. He has two ambitions. One is that he may some day be made a police commissioner in St. Louis and the other that he may be chief of police.

As the weather bureau kite is nine feet long it would be rather an unwieldy toy, but Mr. Jones set an expert at work on a kite of such dimensions as would be satisfactory for a boy to fly, and the completed work has been presented to Master Hobart.

Stories of Minister Woodford. Many stories of Stewart L. Woodford, the new minister to Spain, are afloat. Some of them go to show that the president's choice is a pretty determined sort of fellow and knows how to act in an emergency.

OUR AGENT. Mr. A. Herman, our traveling agent, will call on subscribers in Auburn, Fleming, Owasso, New Hope, Ensenore, Merrifield, Scipio, Sherwood, Venice, Poplar Ridge, Ledyard, King's Ferry, Five Corners, Grayton, Ithaca and Trumansburg.

Catarth Cannot be Cured. With local applications, as they cannot reach the seat of the disease. Catarth is a blood or constitutional disease, and in order to cure it you must take internal remedies.

AGENTS WANTED. If you do not see any news from your parish in THE JOURNAL write us. We desire an agent and correspondent in every parish in the diocese.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR.

A Shursburg man who had been drinking too much liquor for his own good was induced to sign the pledge the other day. His wife was delighted. She took the document and said: 'You must let me have it. I will keep it for you.'

Jack—Where's your Bill now? Jill—Out west. 'What's come?' 'Raising palms.' 'Doing what?' 'Raising palms—making the tenderfeet throw up their hands.'—Yonkers Statesman.

Wanted an Easy Game. Lazy Lawrence—Would ye have a billiard table in yer house if ye was rich? Stationary Sam—Nope. Not unless it was on wheels. I had a man to roll it around so I could play without walking. —New York Journal.

Used Adversely. 'Several times during the delivery of his eulogium on day oration he paused and took a drink of water. He was very dry.' 'You mean he was very thirsty.' 'Yes, he was thirsty too.'—Chicago Tribune.

Sufficient Reason. 'I understand their engagement has been broken.' 'Yes, she says she was deceived. He had only 6 century runs to his credit instead of 16, and as she had 14 herself he was clearly out of her class.'—Chicago Post.

Always at Hand. Visitor (at dime museum)—What do you do when you feel the need of exercise? Living Skeleton—I take a walk around the fat woman. —Chicago Tribune.

Not Its First Experience. 'It is a beautiful view of the first water.' 'I said the opposite for a loan.' 'Oh, I don't know,' answered the pawnbroker. 'It looks like it had been soaked before.'—New York Journal.

Hand in Hand. Financier—The first thing civilization teaches the savage is outward cleanliness. Cincinnatus—And the next is inward cleanliness. —Yellow Kid Magazine.

Something on Her Mind. 'Queen Victoria always looks so solemn.' 'You'd look solemn, too, if you had had the Prince of Wales for a son all these years.'—Chicago Record.
