The priests of Derry and Waterside have declined to have anything what-ever to do with the distribution of the "jubiles mutton." This stuff will be devoured by the true-blue Orangemen and Unionists of the cky and districts. Mutton with this label on would seriously disarrange the internal machinery of an irish patriot, and they ere numerous in Derry and Waterside. An excursion of the Alleach branch of the Irish National Foresters, Derry. and their friends-fourteen hundred persons—visited the Primatial City. Sunday. They were met by the T. M. Healy Branch of the Irish National Foresters, Armegh, and proceeded to the Foresters' Hall, in Market street. Thence the entire party proceeded to St Patrick's Cathedral, for the 12 O'clock mass, celebrated by Rev. Feix McMally, Cardinal Logue presiding.

DOWN.

The annual dinner of the members of the Holy Name Sodality, Newry, took place in the Dominican Priory, Queen street lately.

No "jubilee" address for the Newry Board of Guardians. Mr. Thomas O'Hare (God bless him!), though an L P., declared at the meeting that loyalty was exclusively confined to Orangeard. P. P. V. F., will be pleased to men and Freemasons. He most convincingly pointed out the frightful effects of Victoria's misgovernment of Ireland during the past sixty years. The country has suffered to an appailing extent through depopulation, overtaxation and loss of commercial standing in every trade and business. No address for Newty Guardians, because they are true to Ireland.

FERMANAGH.

The total number of rents fixed in and out of court during 1893 were 221. The old rent was in total £3,706, 14s; new rent, £2,949, 4s. Though not as much as the condition of agricultural affairs demanded, still, it was a step in the right direction, ireland, however, will never be prosperous, or the people happy, until the toller be the owner of the soil he works upon.
