

OUR IRISH LETTER.

NEWS FROM ALL THE COUNTIES OF IRELAND.

What is Being Done by the People at Home—Various Items From Every Section of the Emerald Isle.

ULSTER.

On Sunday the foundation stone of the new church of the recently founded parish of Knockbreda was solemnly laid in the presence of a numerous assembly...

The monthly meeting of the executive committee of the Orphan Society of Down and Connor was held in the Orphanage, Crumlin road, during the week, and was attended by Most Rev. Dr. Henry (in the chair).

An important meeting, attended by members of the various bodies in sympathy with the '88 centenary movement, was held in the rooms, 12 Howland street, Belfast, on Sunday, Mr. P. Russell presided.

The quarterly meeting of the members of the Armagh Catholic Reading Room was held last week, Rev. John Quinn presiding.

William Kelly, of Mongullagh, near Crossmaglen, was drowned in a bog-hole on Sunday in an attempt to save his brother, who fell in.

John Kearns, who has lived in Armagh for many years, met his death under sad circumstances recently. He was walking down the street when he slipped and fell, cutting his head severely.

At the Summer Assizes in Cavan last week only thirteen grand jurors were in attendance. But few cases went before the grand jury, all of very trifling character.

Very Rev. Henry Canon McNeve was parish priest of Magherafelt, County Derry, Ireland.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar, the family burying ground.

rick McQuirk, Tranquilla House, Monaghan, took place in Latturean cemetery. Cortège long and representative of all creeds and classes.

TYRONE. Bernard McCann, working in a quarry in Millis, last week was killed by an overhanging bank of earth falling upon him.

The interment of the late Rev. Bernard Murphy, Carrickmore, took place on July 14, in the churchyard of his church.

Potato blight of a pronounced type has appeared in many of the gardens in West Clare. The early varieties are most seriously affected.

On Wednesday, in the quiet little churchyard of Shanagary, near Clonsilla, there was laid to rest John Fitzgibbon, 29 years of age.

At the Summer Assizes in Cavan last week only thirteen grand jurors were in attendance. But few cases went before the grand jury.

Very Rev. Henry Canon McNeve was parish priest of Magherafelt, County Derry, Ireland.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

neying home to Newcastle West, where his wife and family reside. Deceased was 38 years of age.

A beautiful monument, with statue of the Ex-convict standing over a high light, has been erected by the Community of the Sisters of Mercy, Tipperary.

The interment of the late Rev. Bernard Murphy, Carrickmore, took place on July 14, in the churchyard of his church.

Potato blight of a pronounced type has appeared in many of the gardens in West Clare. The early varieties are most seriously affected.

On Wednesday, in the quiet little churchyard of Shanagary, near Clonsilla, there was laid to rest John Fitzgibbon, 29 years of age.

At the Summer Assizes in Cavan last week only thirteen grand jurors were in attendance. But few cases went before the grand jury.

Very Rev. Henry Canon McNeve was parish priest of Magherafelt, County Derry, Ireland.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

City Hall, Dublin, for the purpose of counting the ballot papers received for the election of the executive council.

RECENT DEATHS IN DUBLIN. McNamara—July 8, at the Hospice for the Dying, Haroldscross. Thomas McNamara, formerly coachsmith to Mr. Mahon, Sumner Hill, for over thirty years.

The interment of the late Rev. Bernard Murphy, Carrickmore, took place on July 14, in the churchyard of his church.

Potato blight of a pronounced type has appeared in many of the gardens in West Clare. The early varieties are most seriously affected.

On Wednesday, in the quiet little churchyard of Shanagary, near Clonsilla, there was laid to rest John Fitzgibbon, 29 years of age.

At the Summer Assizes in Cavan last week only thirteen grand jurors were in attendance. But few cases went before the grand jury.

Very Rev. Henry Canon McNeve was parish priest of Magherafelt, County Derry, Ireland.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

WESTMEATH. A rabid dog ran through Mullaga one day last week, and in his wild course bit 20 other dogs.

WEXFORD. New Ross Branch of the '98' Centenary association met last week. A most encouraging report was read.

The interment of the late Rev. Bernard Murphy, Carrickmore, took place on July 14, in the churchyard of his church.

Potato blight of a pronounced type has appeared in many of the gardens in West Clare. The early varieties are most seriously affected.

On Wednesday, in the quiet little churchyard of Shanagary, near Clonsilla, there was laid to rest John Fitzgibbon, 29 years of age.

At the Summer Assizes in Cavan last week only thirteen grand jurors were in attendance. But few cases went before the grand jury.

Very Rev. Henry Canon McNeve was parish priest of Magherafelt, County Derry, Ireland.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

pretty busy supplying bread to the crews. The Sisters of Mercy, Castlebar, have given the very generous donation of £100 to assist the building fund of the new church.

Rev. Father Judge, C. B., Ballinrobe, is about leaving the secular clergy to join the Jesuit Order. He was held in the highest esteem by Protestants and Catholics in Ballinrobe.

The interment of the late Rev. Bernard Murphy, Carrickmore, took place on July 14, in the churchyard of his church.

Potato blight of a pronounced type has appeared in many of the gardens in West Clare. The early varieties are most seriously affected.

On Wednesday, in the quiet little churchyard of Shanagary, near Clonsilla, there was laid to rest John Fitzgibbon, 29 years of age.

At the Summer Assizes in Cavan last week only thirteen grand jurors were in attendance. But few cases went before the grand jury.

Very Rev. Henry Canon McNeve was parish priest of Magherafelt, County Derry, Ireland.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

On the list of July the remains of Mr. Laurence Meenan, Bundoran, were removed from the residence of his son, Mr. Charles, of Cortoon, for interment in Rossnagar.

Vertical text on the far right edge of the page, likely bleed-through or a continuation of the main text.