The quarterly meeting of the Supreme Board of Trustees of the Catholic Relief and Beneficiary association was held at the Livingston Hotel, Tuesday afternoon, the leading promoters of the organization throughout the State being present. The meeting was convened at 2 o'clock and continued for about two hours.

Those present were Supreme President Thomas H. O'Neill, of Auburn; Supreme Recorder Honora McCarthy, of Auburn; Supreme Board of Trustees, Thomas Heffernan, Auburn; John Holihan, Auburn; Anna S. Wall, Auburn; Dr. P. C. Guinan, Rochester; Thomas Gilmore, Albany; Rev. William Dougherty, Syracuse, and P. F. Milmoe, Canastota.

After the meeting the officials were taken to St. Bernard's Seminary, where they were pleasantly entertained by the Rev. J. T. Hartley until 6 o'clock. In the evening the local branch of the order tendered the visitors a banquet at the Livingston. After the collation several toasts were responded to. The toastmaster was Supreme Medical Examiner Dr. F. W. Maloney, of this city. Those who responded were Supreme President Thomas H. O'Neill, of Auburn; Trus ee W. H. Dougherty, of Auburn; J. P. A large audience, composed chiefly of members of the Catholic Relief and Beneficiary Association, assembled in the Cathedral hall last Tuesday evening to enjoy an entertainment given under the auspices of the Central Council. The programme was arranged with excellent judgment, and in it song and recitation were charmingly blended. The event of the evening was an address on "Fraternal Organizations," delivered by Mr. Patrick J. Carey of Buffalo. Mr. Carey is an attache of the Buffalo district attorney's office of Erie county and is one of the best known and most popular Catholic society men in Western New York. He is an eloquent and expressive speaker, endowed with that easy grace which is characteristic of the natural orator. His fund of fact seems almost inexhaustible, and he is an entertaining speaker on almost any subject he discusses. His address on Tuesday evening, while brief, was instructive and eloquent. He delineated in a few words the characteristics of those seek to affiliate in the fraternal field. He treated all in equal measure the selfish and disinterested, the business candidate and the one who seeks admission to advance his or her social position. He pointed out the difficulties which beset the path of those who seek to labor unselfishly for others. He traced the history of fraternal organization and distinguished in an unerring manner the benefits to be derived from Catholic social endeavor. In conclusion he dwelt upon the advantages of the Catholic Relief and Beneficiary Association from a financial, social and intellectual standpoint. Upon finishing the speaker was enthusiastically applauded.

ACADEMY.

"Fazio Romani" which will be presented at the Academy of Music, Monday Sept. 13th for three nights and matinee Tuesday, is a spectacular production of much merit, being an adaptation of Marie Correlli's novel "The Vendetta." The story of the play is sad, weird and interesting. With the dark passages of the sombre story are many enlivening scenes, that help to make the whole a pleasant entertainment. The promised realism comes at the end of the drama in the earthquake scene. The last act commences with a Mansoleum scene, which occupies the entire stage. At the climax of the commotion the whole tomb sinks out of sight and reveals dwellings falling in ruins, the earth rocking, and rent with fury, and fiery fissures while Mt. Vesuvius in the back ground belches forth huge columns of fire and smoke and pours red streams of lava on the City of Naples at its feet.

On Thursday Sept. 16, for three nights and Thursday and Saturday matinees. The patrons of the Academy of Music will have the pleasure of seeing the very strong comedy drama "The Pay Train," a play that has everything in its construction to win the good will of the theatre-going public.

WONDERLAND THEATRE.

Up to date Wonderland has done a better business than ever before during the first weeks of a new season. Manager Moore intends to spare neither time nor trouble to present at Wonderland this season as good vaudeville as could be seen at Keith's popular vaudeville houses in Boston, New York and Philadelphia, or at Koster & Bial's, or Hammerstein's in New York. In fact, Manager Moore will not book any attractions that have not received the award of merit that appearance at one of these houses gives it. For next week are announced no less a well known and talented pair than Fraulein Bertha Wagner of Hamburg, the young sweet singer and comedienne, assisted by Herr Bruno Armin, the Dresden baritone, in their new, original and refined operatic travesty, entitled "Italian Opera in the Kitchen." A unique feature of the sketch is the singing of a number of popular airs by Miss Wagner in German. The act is closed by a clever imitation of an exciting pair of opera singers wrestling with the prison scene from "Il Trovatore." Other artists of recognized merit who will appear are Whitney Brothers, novelty musical experts, introducing Presto, champion buck dancer and cornetist; John and Bertha Gleason in their novelty singing and dancing specialty, Mandola, the juggling marvel, on the revolving globe; Lew Randall, the black face acrobatic dancer, introducing imitations of the southern darkey's pastimes; the three Marvells, acrobatic grotesque comedians, and Miss Mary Mooney in beautiful ballads.
