BLESSING THE GRAVES

The Ceremony Will Take Place at Holy Sepulchre Cometery To-morrow.

As announced in all the churches last Sunday, the ceremony of blessing the graves at Holy Sepulchre cemetery will take place to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The priests of the city will meet at St. Bernard's seminary and, together with the faculty of the college and the students, will march to the cemetery chapel where vespers for the dead will be sung. After vespers Bishop Mo-Quaid will deliver an address to the assembled throng from a platform in front of the chapel.

What strange power draws such crowds to see Morrison's "Faust"? Is it to see the devil personated in the flesh? Is it to satisfy a curiosity, regarding the personal appearance of the devil delineated by a mortal or is it the moral of "Faust" where the king of villians, old Mephisto, spirit of evil is triumphed over by the cross of Earth's Redeemer.
