KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Unanimous Vote to Debar Liquor Men from Membership.

The National council of the Knights of Columbus held a two days session last week at Hartford, Conn. They met at 11.30 o'clock Tuesday to discuss the preliminary work of organizing.

Very little business was done Tuesday other than reference of matters to committees, and an informal discussion of amendments presented. It was shown by the interchange of reports that the order was gaining rapidly in the states recently opened to missionary work by the organizers.

Liquor dealers will hereafter be debarred from membership in the Knights of Columbus by an amendment to the constitution which was adopted by the National council. The vote in favor of excluding liquor men was unanimous.

An amendment favoring the extension of the society south of the Mason and Dixon line was reported by a special committee and this matter will be acted upon next March. The gentlemen who have this subject in charge reported good progress, and it is not unlikely that something will be done in the near future toward extending the order into the southern states.

The Syracuse council, Knights of Columbus, celebrated their first anniversary recently with all the eclat that characterizes their doings.

On Wednesday, Oct. 13, at 8.30 mass, occurred the marriage of Miss Frances Sommers to Mr. Jacob Belkirk. A reception was held in the evening which a large circle of friends and acquaintances attended.

The confirmation class of this parish are making preparations to receive the sacrament on the last Sunday of October.

The forty hours' devotion opened last Sunday morning with solemn high mass. Rev. C. Ritter was celebrant, Rev. L. Schwab deacon, Rev. C. Obert sub-deacon and Rev. F. Hennes master of ceremonies.

A report of the marriage will be found in our Auburn letter.—Ed.

Charles B. Ernst. The Democratic nominee for Police Justice, is one of the best known and most popular Democrats in Rochester.

Mr. Ernst's first public office was that of Supervisor for the Fourth Ward, which he held for two years. In 1888 Mr. Ernst was chosen City Attorney by the Common Council and was reappointed in 1890.

From his speech accepting the nomination, we present the following: 'The Police Court, in my opinion, is the place, above all others, where care should be taken not to overstep the limits of its jurisdiction.'

Thomas J. Neville. Thomas J. Neville has been a resident of Rochester since 1852. He is now in the fifty-third year of his age.

When the board of public works was created in 1873, Mr. Neville was appointed clerk. Subsequently Mayor A. Carter Wilder appointed him a commissioner.

Mr. Neville has never engaged in any other occupation, nor has he been connected with any other business since he entered public office.

Mr. Neville's worth as a public official is generally conceded. Combined with great executive ability, he possesses the knack of managing the affairs of his office in a manner which has won for him the commendation of all who have been associated with him within the last quarter of a century.

Harvey F. Remington. Harvey F. Remington, junior judge of the municipal court, was born at Hamlet, Monroe County, N. Y., June 28, 1863.

In 1891 he was urged to make a canvass for supervisor of the old sixteenth ward, and was elected. He served one year in the board, was then elected a member of the board of education, shortly after resigning this position to accept an appointment as second assistant city attorney under C. D. Kiehel.

Through the efforts of Judge Murphy and Remington the calendar of the municipal court, which for a number of years was congested so that attorneys were unable to try their cases from four weeks to three months after issue, has been cleared up, and a cause can now always be tried upon the return day if the attorneys desire.

In 1890 he married Agnes, daughter of Thomas Brodie, of Caledonia, N. Y., and five children have been the result of this union. He resides on Reservoir avenue, in the suburbs of the city.

Marian E. Lewis. The Republican candidate for mayor of Rochester for the two years succeeding January 1, 1893, is no tyro in politics or in public life.

Mr. Lewis has been a lifelong resident of Monroe County. From early boyhood he has been a staunch republican acting in important capacities in the party organization.

Mr. Lewis has been president of the Council since January 1897, and is exceptionally well informed upon city affairs, and possesses the characteristics and knowledge necessary to make him an ideal member of the executive board.

John J. Mehan. Candidate for supervisor of the 15th ward, was born in Brockport, N. Y., February 23, 1868.

The Republican nominee for Superintendent of the Poor of Monroe County, was appointed warden of the Monroe County Almshouse in 1887. Served for seven years in that capacity and so well, that in 1894 was elected Superintendent which position he has held ever since.

His administration has been most satisfactory to the Board of Supervisors to whom he is directly responsible. Through his efforts the per capita cost of maintaining the inmates at the almshouse has been decreased each year.

Mr. Lodge has paid particular attention to investigating cases reported or relied with a view of preventing patients being fostered on Monroe county, which should be cared for by neighboring counties or by other states.

Mr. Lodge has saved the county thousands of dollars, while at the same time, the deserving poor of Monroe county has not suffered, on the contrary have been benefited.

Charles L. Hunt. Republican candidate for County Clerk of Monroe county, he is a resident of the Twelfth ward, and one of the best popular candidates for county office.

Mr. Hunt was twice elected town clerk of Hamlet, his last term being cut short by his removal to this city. He was clerk in the canal office during 1881, and afterwards a clerk in the post office here.

Mr. Hunt is at present President of the Twelfth Ward Republican Club, and has always been an active worker in the interest of his party. Don't fail to vote for him.
