the

fits

vant

stop

ngle

- the

dest

cost

ould

CATHEDRAL.

The Rochester Catholic Reading Circle held its opening meeting in Cathedral hall Tuesday evening. All the various reading circles in the city were represented. Rev. J. P. Kiernan gave some interesting facts about the Catholic Summer School, and plans for the season were discussed. Arrangements have been made for a izing. series of lectures by Rev. J. P. Hartley and Rev. John P. Brophy. The first lecture will be given November

Anna M. O'Connor, daughter of Anna and the late Martin O'Connor, died Wednesday morning at the family residence, 56 Orange street, The funeral will take place this morning at 8.30 o'clock from the house and 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's Cathedral.

Miss Lizzie Mykins, of 99 Jay street and Mr. James Watson. o Mt. Morris, were married Wednesday afternoon at the cathedral by the Rev. Father Curran. Miss Sarah Carroll of Elmira, was bridesmaid, and Mr. Robert Twist, of this city, best man. The bride wore a gown of pearl silk, trimmed with lace and some feeling. ribbon, and a hat to match. The bridesmaid wore a dove colored silk dress, trimmed with white silk and chiffon, and hat to match. Both bride and bridesmaid carried bouquets of carnations and ferns.

The Young Ladies' Sodality will give two entertainments, one on Octber 28th, and the other the 29th, at Cathedral Hall. On the first evening Heroine Marie will be presented, and on the second Rebecca's Triumph.

ST. MARY'S

Catherine A. McGraw, wife of morning at the residence of Michael St. Mary's church.

ST STANISLAUS

Mayor Warner, Executive Board Stanislaus parish hall for the benefit of the church last Monday evening. Mayor Warner had been invited to formally open the fair and he did so in a brief address, in the course of which he congratulated the church society upon the possession of a fine school for the education of the children of the parish. Commissioner Knebel also made a brief address in German. Alderman Calihan did not speak. The mayor and his party were met at Holy Redeemer church by several uniformed societies of the church, headed by a band, and were escorted to the parish hall, where the mayor was greeted with hearty cheers. The purpose of the fair is to raise funds to liquidate the heavy debt which now rests upon the church.

ST. BONIFACE

On Wednesday, Oct. 13, at 8.30 mass, occurred the marriage of Miss Frances Sommers to Mr. Jacob Belkirch. A reception was held in the evening which a large circle of friends and acquaintances attended.

The confirmation class of this parish are making preparations to receive the sacrament on the last Sunday of

ST JOSEPH'S

The forty hours' devotion opened last Sunday morning with solemn high mass. Rev. C. Ritter was celebrant, Rev. L. Schwab deacon, Rev. C. Obert sub-deacon and Rev. F. Hennes master of ceremonies. A large number attended the services and it was very successful. The closing took place Tuesday evening.

SS. PETER AND PAUL'S. The Y. M. C. C. of this parish have elected the following officers: President, F.W. Pohl; vice-president, R. Vay; secretary, E. Bauer; ar rangement committee, J. J. Zimmer, Frank Zurn, George Dentinger, Charles Barker.

PERSONALS.

Miss Mary O'Brien of 49 Bates street, has returned from New York where she was a guest of her brother Cornelius who was formerly with Gorton & McCabe, now with John Wanamaker of New York, and a member of St. Anthony's church choir

Miss Ella Burns of 58 Emerson street and her little niece, Florence Kinney, who have been visiting in Fredonia for several weeks, have re-

The friends of Hon. William Purcell, of the Union and Advertiser, will Fegret to learn that he is confined to his bed by illness.

Burn Langie's Coal-It Costs No More. ply now at 337 East Main st. Triangle 594-A. Postoffice, Lincoln park.

CATHOLIC SOCIETIES.

RNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS.

Unamimous Youe to Debar Liquor Men from Mombership.

last week at Hartford, Conn. They met at 11.30 o'clock Tuesday to discuss the preliminary work of organ-

Very little business was done Tuesday other than reference of matters to committees, and an informal discusthe deliberations of this council was in relation to the membership clause. There has been some friction heretoto the qualifications for membership, his success is generally predicted. and a stand was taken by the council From his speech accepting the nomination, from the Twelfth ward by the unheard of taken by prominent life insurance Court, in my opinion, is the place, above endorsed by both democrats and republithe action of the council will create Court is essentially the poor man's court, be presented for adoption at the next formerly in vogue. annual meeting in March, 1898. The liquor exclusion amendment, however, was finally acted upon Wednesday. Under the old law men engaged in the manufacture or sale of intoxi only as associate members. They were tuneral took place from the family the new provision the associate memresidence in Brighton this morning at | bership right is withdrawn from this be required to resign.

In 1895 asi milar exclusion amendment was adopted by the National a trial of the law of 1896.

An amendment favoring the extenand Dixon line was reported by a also vested with power to pass ordinances be acted upon next March. The gen- assessment rolls, which duties now come tlemen who have this subject in charge within the jurisdiction of the council. reported good progress, and it is not board's powers, Mr. Neville was enabled to These members will be allowed the public works and its successor, the execuright of associate membership and not the insurance clause.

Columbus, celebrated their first anni-terests as their servant. ing's programme was opened by lecturing Knight John J Cummins.

Cohoes council of Cohoes, N. Y., will celebrate their first anniversary on October 17.

and bride, we extend congratulations school, the law department of Union Univer-and wish them many years of unalloyed sity, and graduated in 1887. Was at once happiness.

found in our Auburn letter.—ED.

Society Calendars. C. M. B. A. Monday-12, 93, 184. C. R. & B. A. Monday-88. Wednesday-74. Thursday-40, 75. Friday—39. D. OF E Tuedsay-5, 6. Wednesday, z.

Friday-3.

Monday-2. Tuesday-5. Tuesday-50.

Wednesday-82.

TO THE REVEREND CLERGY.

If you have not placed your order ones, we would be pleased to furnish them to you at $2.50 per thou-

CATHOLIC JOURNAL CO... 324 East Main street. [Tel. 1366.]

Try Our Lemigh Valley Coal.

A guarantee of satisfaction with Jacob S. Haight. Yard and office every ton. Order your winter's sup- West avenue, city line. 'Phone, in the suburbs of the city.

The Democratic nominee for Police Justice, is one of the best known and most popciar Democrats in Rochester. He is the January 1, 1898, is no tyro in politics or in son of the late Col. Louis Ernst and was public life He has been a lifelong tesident born in this city in £854. He received his of Monroe County. From early boyhood primary education at St. Joseph's Parochial he has been a stanch republican acting in school. He afterward attended Mount St. imperiant capacities in the party organiza-Mary's Emmittsburg; Md., and graduated iton. His first entry into public lile was from that institution. After leaving St. When he was elected to succeed H. G. Mary's Mr. Ernst went to Albany Law Thayer in the Common Council. He School and graduated from there in 1880, served his constituents so well that he was He then returned to this city and entered resurned without any opposition. He was The National council of the Knights the law office of Judge Angle and afterward president of the Common Council during of Columbus held a two days, session went into parenership with Frank J. Hone. 1895-6 and by virtue of that office was act under the firm name of Hone & Ernst.

Mr. Erast's first public office was that of 1, 1890, to fill out the vacancy occusione Supervisor for the Fourth Ward, which he by the elevation of Mayor George W. held for two years. In 1888 Mr. Ernst was Aldridge to be state superintendent of chosen City Attorney by the Common public works. In his speech accepting th Council and was reappointed in 1890. In nomination, we quote these words. 1893 he was mominated for Police Justice and triumphe : at the polls.

Mr. Ernst has considerable ability as an sion of amendments presented. It was erator and platform speaker. He has done shown by the interchange of reports good service in several campaigns. His that the order was gaining rapidly in speeches are often tinged with dry humos and in private conversation he is one of the the states recently opened to mission- most entertaining of men. His qualificaary work by the organizers. The printions for the office are unquestioned and he cipal business given out as a result of will receive the support of many outside of his own party who desire a man on the bench of the Police Court who can administer justice with intelligence and fairness. Mr. Ernst is a member of the Catholic fore over the interpretation put upon Mutual Benefit Association and has hun- the citizens of Rochester. In his public the section of the constitution relating dieds of warm personal friends in both par-

Knights of Columbus by an amend- there shall be no conviction without a fair ment to the constitution which was preponderance of the evidence and that he adopted by the National council. The shall have the benefit of every reasonable street. doubt as to his guilt, are as dear and as vote in favor of excluding liquor men sacred to the poor as they are to the rich.

was unanimous. The new amendment Abuse heaped upon him. "Upon such lines vision of the constitution which is to the past four years and a radical departure increasing to make his indeed has been taken from the methods the executive board.

Thomas J. Neville has been a resident of Rochestersince 1852. He is now in the fifty-third year of his age. He was educated Michael McGraw, died Wednesday cating liquors were eligible to the order in the public schools, principally at old school No. 6, where he had as fellow students many lads who have since risen to D. Sheehan in East Brighton. The not accorded the right to be insured. In prominence in public and business life. He is a residence of the Tenth ward.

After teaching school for a few years Mr. Neville en tered newspaper work in the 9.15 o'clock and at 10 o'clock from class of applicants, and all liquor men capacity of a reporter on the morning at present enjoying membership will Democrat, early in the '60's, by the advice of E. Rossiter Johnson, who was then one of the editors of the paper. Later Mr. Neville became city editor.

When the board of public works was

The board as originally constituted had sion of the society south of the Mason charge of all local improvements and the special committee and this matter will or local improvements, and to confirm unlikely that something will be done gain a thorough knowledge of municipal in the near future toward extending affairs, which has since been increased by the order into the southern states. his continued relations with the board of

Mr. Neville has never engaged in any other occupation, nor has been connected At the present time the total num- with any other business since he enber of councils in the United States is tered public office. His whole time and attention has been devoted to his duties, and the citizens of Rochester and the taxpayers has been made around the county buildings has had in him one official who has given for the comfort of its inmates as well as their The Syracuse council, Knights of his whole time, his entire ability and the most valuable period of his life to their inversary recently with all the eclat Mr. Neville's worth as a public official is reported for relief with a view of preventing that characterizes their doings. Nearly generally conceded. Combined with great patients being fostered on Monroe county. every member of the council was pres- executive ability, he possesses the knack of which should be cared for by neighboring ent, besides a number of visitors, who were guests of the council. An elabotion of all who have been associated with of dollars, while at the same time, the derate lunch was served and the evening him within the last quarter of a century. most enjoyably passed. The even Democratic and republican boards alike

Harvey F. Bemington.

Harvey F. Remington, junior judge of the municipal court, was born at Henrietta, Monroe County, N. Y., June 28, 1863. He is a son of the late William T. Reming-To Thos. H. O'Niell, Supreme ton and Sarah Northup Foote. He was President of the C. R. and B. A., brought up upon a farm, educated in the admitted to the bar, and opened offices in A report of the marriage will be Alfred Ely. These he still occupies in conjunction with his partmer, Abraham Bene-

> In 1891 he was urged to make a canvass for supervisor of the old sixteenth ward, and was elected. He served one year in the board, was then elected a member of the board of education, shortly after resigning this position to accept an appointment as second assistant city attorney under C. D. Kiehel. He filled this position for two years, and upon the election of A. J. Rodenbeck as corporation counsel he was made first assistant, succeeding Mr. Rodenbeck. His record in this department was such that, upon the vacancy occuring in the municipal court by the election of Judge Warner as mayor, he was unanimously chosen by the common council as Judge Warner's successor. Here, as in every position he has filled, he has been an defatigable

Through the efforts of Judge Murphy and Remington the calendar of the municipal court, which for a number of years was congested so that attorneys were unable to try their cases from four weeks to three months after issue, has been cleared up, for "All Saints" circulars and envel- and a cause can most always be tried upon the return day if the attorneys desire. Since Judge Remington's appointment, besides the uncontested business of the court, nearly 400 causes have been tried before him. Out of this number of liti- Hunt is at present President of the Twelfth gated cases decided by him there have been but forty-two appeals taken, and of these been an active worker in the interest of his there have been but six 'reversed by the party. Don't fail to vote for him. upper courts.

In 1889 he married Agnes, daughter of Thomas Brodie, of Caledonia, N. Y., and five children have been the result of this fore they openly manifest themselves. union. He resides on Reservoir avenue. Therefore keep the blood pure with

The Republican candidate for mayor o Rochester for the two years succeeding ing mayor from January 1, 1895 to January

"If I am elected mayor, I promise to give my best thought, my entire time and all my energies to the affairs of the city, to the end that its business may be conducted in the best possible manner. Economy shall be my watch-word. Experience shall be my guide. The public interest shall be my con- selection at the lowest prices. stant care, and the approval of my fellow citizens, the prize which I shall always strive hardest to pussess.

The Republican nomines for member of Executive Board, needs no introduction to ties. He will make a spirited canvass and which he has won by carnest, intelligent. well directed efforts. Elected alderman Wednesday which has heretofore been we present the following: "The Police majority of 847, on his renomination being all others, where care should be taken not cans, during his aldermanic career, serving companies. Al though it was expected, to convict an innocent man; for the Police on all the prominent committees. While chairman of the Committee on Electricity, and the right not to be deprived of his he suggested and carried into effect the idea Liquor dealers will hereafter be de-liberty without due process of law, the of lighting Main street with incandscent right to a fair, impartial and speedy trial by arc lights which have since attracted so barred from membership in the a competent court, the right to demand that much attention, which improvement has recently been extended to State, West Main streets, and Lyell avenue and Exchange

Mr. Dewey has been president of the Council since January 1897, and is exceptionally well informed upon city affairs, and came up for discussion in a general re- has the Police Court been conducted during possesses the characteristics and knowledge necessary to make him an ideal member of

John J. Mehan,

Candidate for supervisor of the 15th ward, was born in Brockport. N. Y., February 23. 1868. He attended the district school, and later the parochial achool under the Rev. R. J. Story. His father, Peter Mehan, resides there yet. Mr. Mehan came to Rochester at the age of 14 and entered the employ of A. Lehman, shoe manufacturer, where he remained for three years. Later he wasemployed in Thomas Lynch's hard-ware store in Brockport, N. Y. Fer the last twelve years he has been in the employ of his uncle, John O'Laughlin, in the gro-cery business. He joined Division No. 2, A. O. H., in February, 1802, was elected president of the division three times in sucosssion, and also was elected secretary of the Martin J. Calihan took part in the opening of the eight day fair at St.

Stanislaus parish hall for the henefit elected supervisor of the Fiftrenth ward, will give the office the care and attention that the position demands, and will care for the interests of the taxpayers as well as if they were his own.

Clarence V. Ledge

The Republican nomines for Superin-tendent of the Poor of Monroe County, was appointed warden of the Monroe County Almshouse in 1887. Served for seven years in that capacity and so well, that im 1894 was elected Superintendent which position he has held ever since-

His administration has been most satisfactory to the Board of Supervison to his efforts the per capita cost of maintaining the inmates at the almahouse has been decreased each year. Many improvements particular attention to investigating cases of dollars, while at the same time, the deserving poor of Monroe county has not suffered, on the contrary have been bene-

To show their appreciation of his worth the State Association of Superintendents of the Poor, at their annual convention held last June at Thousand Islands Park elected Mr. Lodge to the highest office in the powers of the association, vis. its President, which office he now holds. To day every tax-payer will be pleased to know that Mr. Lodge's administration has been marked by conservatism and rigid economy and should cast his vote accordingly

Charles L. Hunt

Republican candidate for County Clork of Monroe county, he is a resident of the Twelfth ward, and one of the most popular of candidates for county office. He was born in the town of Perinton 39 years ago. And at the age of six years he was left an orphan. He at that tender age, set resolutely to work on a farm in Henrietta, and has worked himself up in the world without help other than his own hands and brain. In 1852 he removed to Dochaster, settling to the state of th moved to Rochester, settling in the old Seventh ward, where he since resided. He was married in 1883 to Miss Ida M. Stone: of Bergen, N. Y., has two children and has always lived in this county. Mr. Hunt was twice elected town clerk of Henricita. his last term being cut short by his semoval to this city. He was clerk in the canal office during 1881, and afterwards a clerk in the post office here. When Maurice J. Leyden was elected County Clerk, he ap-pointed Mr. Huntdeputy clerk and assigned him to duty in the County Court. He has since continued in that position, where he has made hosts of friends by his couries, tact, and all prevailing good nature. Mr. Hunt through his long experience about the Court House, will make an admirable County Clerk, as well as be of invaluable assistance to him when he enters upon the duties of his new position. He has been active in the dusiness world. He was Secretary of the Columbia Building Lot Association, adding much to the success of the business by his efforts. He was also Secretary of the Grand Avenue Association. Mr. Ward Republican Club, and has always

Diseases often lurk in the blood be-Hood's Sarsaparilla

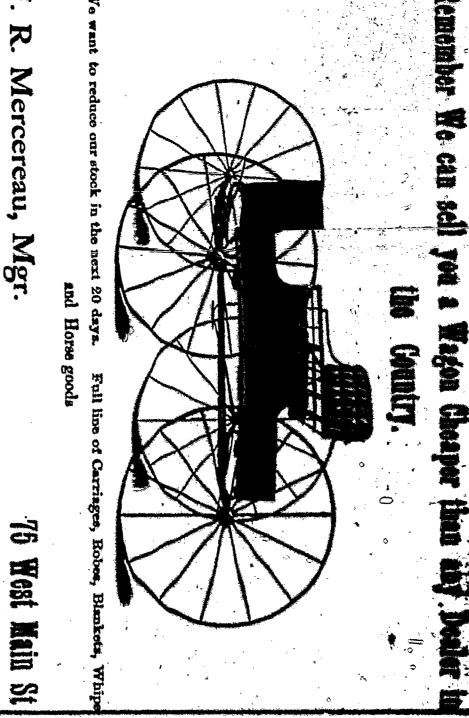

For The Britis

Having many calls for small articles appropriate for well gifts, we maintain a considerable assortment of fancy objects it is Sterling Silver Department. Just now we are showing some year artistic designs in gold-and-enamel Bon-Bon Speems, Berry Speems Meat Forks, Jelly Spoons, etc.; also Puff Boxes, Salt Bettles, Ball Buckles, Jewel Boxes, Vinsigrettes and Ink Bottles, with and with out atone mountings. Any one of these is suitable for a wedding gift and the range of prices is such that the limits of all persons one be considered.

Several new patterns of regular flat ware are now offered for

GLENNY'S

Mead'

School Business

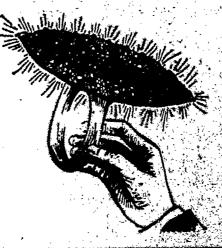

(Formerly Underhill's University.) who he is disectly responsible. Through Gives thorough Instruction both in Shorthand and Book-keeping by antend

Office, 789 Powers Building.

Barry & Brueck, OBOME: 856 Allem Street, 169 South Ave.

LEWIS EDELMAN, Dealer in D. L. & W. COALS

40 North Ave., near N.Y.C.R.R. Tel. 576. . Bosheste

Safer Tham a Bank

money is jewelry you're wise. your value sale and more it you bey " sere and get the most artistle papelle

ames M. Nota

Rochester's Weekly Payment Ja 16 Batt Main Street, One

G. H. STALKER, Manufacturer of $881, DOOPS, BIIIds and Houlde

Window and Door Frames. Swoll Sawing and Turnings 180 Platt St., near Allen, Telephone 921. Rocheck

SUMMER READING

English, German, French-all the latest novels and Wedding Gifts, Religious Pictures, Billies, Prayer Full line of Stationery at lowest prices at

* Walnelie Book Sto 234 East Main St., Wonderland Theatre Blde A

Hollister Lumbé

vol North Coulom Steel Services